STEVE NICOL
HEAD COACH

NICOL

Entering his sixth season at the helm of the Revolution in 2007, Steve Nicol was named head coach of the team on November 6, 2002, after serving as the interim head coach for the final 21 games of the 2002 regular season and the postseason. In each of his five seasons at the helm of the Revolution, Nicol has guided the club to the MLS Eastern Conference Championship game, and has three times led the team to MLS Cup (2002, 2005 & 2006), including each of the last two seasons. The Revs are one of just two MLS clubs to ever return to MLS Cup in back-to-back season.

Nicol's hiring marked yet another impressive accomplishment in the Scotland native's distinguished career. During his playing days Nicol, 44, gained worldwide fame while playing for Liverpool in England's top division before moving on to play for Notts County, West Bromwich Albion, Sheffield Wednesday and Doncaster Rovers.

Nicol, who was born in the Scottish town of Troon, began his pro career at the age of 18 with Ayr United before being signed by Liverpool in 1981. The £300,000 transfer fee remains the Ayr United club record.

While with Liverpool, Nicol made 467 appearances as a defender and midfielder and scored 46 goals. He was at the heart of a Liverpool side that won four English League Titles, three F.A. Cup Titles and the 1984 European Cup. In 1989, his importance to the team was honored when Britain's soccer writers named him Footballer of the Year. Between 1984 and 1992 Nicol appeared 27 times for the Scottish National Team, and started for his country at the 1986 World Cup in Mexico.

Nicol's coaching career began in 1995 when he was named player/manager at Notts County. Four years later, he arrived in New England as a player/assistant coach with the Boston Bulldogs. In September of that year, he joined the Revs as interim coach for the final two games of the season, both of which were Revolution wins. He returned to the Bulldogs as a player/coach for the 2000 and 2001 season before re-joining the Revs as an assistant coach prior to the 2002 campaign.

Nicol was named the 2002 MLS Coach of the Year after leading the Revolution within a goal of the MLS Cup. In 2003 and 2004, he led the Revs to within an extra time goal and a penalty kick shootout, respectively, of making the league final. He coached the Revs to his second MLS Cup final in 2005, after winning the Eastern Conference Championship with New England for a second time.

Nicol was also honored for his coaching excellence in August 2005, when he was chosen to lead the MLS Select XI against Real Madrid at the Santiago Bernabeau Stadium.

Nicol holds a USSF "A" coaching licence.

In addition to his coaching duties, Nicol is also a guest analyst for ESPN International.

Nicol resides in Hopkinton, Mass., with his wife, Eleanor, and the couple have two children, Michael and Katy.

PAUL
MARINER
ASSISTANT COACH

GWYNNE
WILLIAMS
ASSISTANT COACH

2007 REVS:
STAFF

Paul Mariner enters his fourth season as Steve Nicol's top assistant coach in 2007. He has helped lead the Revolution to three straight MLS Eastern Conference Championship games, as well as MLS Cup 2005 and MLS Cup 2006.

Born in Bolton, Lancashire, England, Mariner is remembered by world soccer fans as one of the top center forwards in English football in the late 1970s and early 1980s. He earned 35 international caps playing for his country, and led the England attack in the 1982 FIFA World Cup. He is the co-holder for the England National Team record for goal scoring in consecutive games (6).

After starting his professional club career with Plymouth Argyle, Mariner scored 97 goals in eight seasons for Ipswich Town from 1976-84, before playing three seasons with Arsenal FC in London and finishing his English Leagues career with Portsmouth.

Mariner's many honors as a player include winning the 1978 FA Cup Final with Ipswich Town, a game in which he was named Man of the Match despite not being the goal scorer, in the memorable 1-0 classic win over Arsenal. He was also a key member of the 1981 UEFA Cup-winning Ipswich Town team. He scored for England against France in the 1982 World Cup, and also scored in a qualifying match against Hungary on Nov. 18, 1981, a 1-0 victory at Wembley Stadium that put England through to the 1982 World Cup.

Mariner came to the United States in 1988 to coach the Albany Capitals of the APSL, followed by a stint with the league's San Francisco Bay Blackhawks. Before joining the Revolution, Mariner was an assistant to former Revs forward and current Harvard University head men's soccer coach John Kerr, Jr. Mariner has also served as Technical Director for the FC Greater Boston Bolts, one of the top youth soccer clubs in the U.S.

Mariner has worked as a color commentator on BBC North West broadcasts of the English Premier League and as a World Cup analyst on New Zealand television and ESPN International.

Mariner and his wife, Dee, live outside of Boston.

Gwynne Williams is in his first season as the goalkeepers coach for the New England Revolution. He joined the Revolution coaching staff in February 2007 after 11 seasons on the staff of NCAA Division II soccer powerhouse Lynn University in Boca Raton, Fla.

An NSCAA National Goalkeeping Instructor, Williams is a member of the USSF National Coaching Staff and holds a USSF "A" coaching license.

A native of St. Helens, England, Williams has been on the coaching advisory councils of the Canadian Soccer Association and Bermuda Football Association.

Williams earned his certificate of education from Nonington College of Physical Education in 1975, and completed his bachelor of education degree at London University in 1976.

BRIAN
EQUIPMENT
MANAGER

Brian Banfill is in his second season as the equipment manager of the New England Revolution. Banfill's responsibilities include organizing and maintaining the team's uniforms, practice gear and equipment, and overseeing the gameday equipment staff that assists in both the Revs' and visitors' locker rooms and on the field. He also works closely with the technical staff on setting up and equipping training sessions both at home and on the road.

Banfill joined the organization as the Revs' equipment manager on Nov. 28, 2005 after three seasons working with the team's volunteer gameday staff, the Revs Brigade. He contributed in many areas during this time, also working in the popular Soccer Celebration pregame interactive entertainment area before joining the gameday staff where he worked both the home and visitors' locker rooms.

Prior to joining the Revolution, Banfill worked for eight years in the sporting goods retail industry. He is an avid ice hockey fan and participates in several recreational leagues in his spare time.

Banfill lives in central Massachusetts with his wife, Melissa, and their son, Kyle.

BERTRAM ZARINS M.D.

HEAD TEAM
PHYSICIAN

Dr. Bertram Zarins has been the New England Revolution's head team physician since the team's inception in 1996. He is Associate Clinical Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery at Harvard Medical School and Chief of the Sports Medicine Service at the Massachusetts General Hospital.

Zarins also has been team physician for the New England Patriots since 1982 and the Boston Bruins since 1976. He served on the U.S. Olympic Committee Sports Medicine Council for 12 years and was Head Physician for the XIV Winter Olympics in Sarajevo in 1984.

Dr. Zarins is an orthopedic surgeon and specializes in the treatment of athletic injuries. He is an expert on the knee and shoulder, especially injuries such as torn anterior cruciate ligament (ACL), torn meniscus (knee cartilage), shoulder instability and torn rotator cuff.

Zarins received his M.D. degree from the State University of New York, Upstate Medical Center in Syracuse in 1967. He later completed an internship and assistant residency program in general surgery at the Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore. Additionally, Zarins completed the Harvard Combined Orthopedic Residency Program in 1973, before serving as Chief of Orthopedics at the US Naval Regional Medical Center in Guam for two years. Following his military service, Zarins completed a fellowship in Sports Medicine with Dr. Carter Rowe and the Edward F. Cave Travelling Fellowship in 1976.

Zarins is a former Chairman of the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons Committee on Sports Medicine, and is a member of the AAOS Committee on Arthroscopy Education. He has also served on the Board of Directors of the International Arthroscopy Association and has been active in the Arthroscopy Association of North America, American Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine and other professional organizations including the FDA.

Recognized worldwide for his medical knowledge, Zarins has been president of the Latvian Medical and Dental Association and is a foreign member of the Latvian Academy of Science. Dr. Zarins is Honorary President of the Spain Arthroscopy Association. Zarins received the Distinguished Alumnus Award from Syracuse Health Sciences Center in 1997 and has been on the editorial boards of several medical journals. He is currently a Consulting Editor for Sports Medicine for the Journal of Bone and Joint Surgery.

WAYNE PENNIMAN

Wayne Penniman, P.T., A.T.C., CSCS, is in his first season with the Revolution as the team's head athletic trainer. In addition to being a certified athletic trainer, Penniman is also a registered physical therapist and certified strength and conditioning specialist.

Penniman comes to the Revs from the Bancroft School in Worcester, Mass., where he was the head athletic trainer since 2006, and the Clinton Irish Blizzard of the Eastern Football League, where he has had two stints as the head athletic trainer. Prior to his work at the Bancroft School, Penniman was the Director of Athletic Training Services at Nashoba Valley Medical Center in Ayer, Mass., a staff physical therapist at South County Physical Therapy, and a senior physical therapist at Spaulding Neighborhood Rehabilitation Center in Wellesley, Mass.

He has completed work toward his master's degree in post-professional physical therapy at Oakland University - where he was the head trainer for the men's soccer and baseball teams during the 2002-03 academic year - and expects to earn his masters during the 2007 Revs season.

A fitness expert, Penniman also likes to ride motorcycles and work around his house in his spare time. Penniman, a native of Maynard, Mass., now lives in the suburbs west of Boston with his wife, Leigh.

ANDY DORMAN

Position: _____ Midfielder D.O.B.: ___ May 1, 1982 (Chester, England)
 Height: _____ 6-0 Hometown: _____ Flintshire, Wales
 Weight: _____ 150 lbs. College: _____ Boston Univ.

How Acquired: Selected by the Revolution in the sixth round (56th overall) of the 2004 MLS SuperDraft

Dorman enjoyed a breakout campaign in 2006, establishing himself as one of the league's top midfielders ... a true student of the game, he displayed the ability to thrive at several different midfield slots in Steve Nicol's starting team, including stints as the wide right, attacking and holding midfielder ... demonstrates an exemplary work rate ... Soccer America named Dorman the third-best attacking midfielder in MLS for 2006.

2006: Established new career highs and was voted the Midnight Riders' Man of the Year in his best professional season to date. Recorded six goals and a team-high 10 assists - both totals that surpassed his career totals entering the season - while starting all 32 games and playing every midfield position. His 10 assists were the second-highest total in MLS behind five players with 11. Played a career-high 2,834 minutes to rank sixth in MLS. Was also ranked fifth in the league in shots on goal (33). Had three game-winning assists and three times scored game-tying goals: vs. Chivas USA on May 13, at Chicago on June 11 and vs. D.C. on June 17. Started all four of the Revs' MLS Cup Playoffs matches, and assisted on Taylor Twellman's goal against Chicago in the second game of the Eastern Conference Semifinal.

2005: Increased his playing time five-fold from his rookie campaign, starting 19 games and appearing in a total of 30 regular season matches. Equaled goals output from 2004 with two and registered five assists. Became the Revs' go-to corner kick taker when José Cancela was not on the field.

2004: Dorman bided his time as a squad player before establishing himself as a "super sub" in the latter part of the campaign when 18 of Dorman's 20 regular season appearances were as a sub. Finished seventh on the team in scoring (two goals, one assists, five points) despite playing just 365 minutes.

COLLEGE: Was a four-year player at Boston University (2000-03) ... was a three-time All-New England and three-time all-conference honoree ... left the program holding the career assist record (37), and ranked fourth in the category as a senior with a 0.71 assists per game mark ... his 13 assists as a junior ranked second in school history for single-season production ... concluded his collegiate career ranked seventh in school history in overall scoring with 81 points (22 goals, 37 assists).

QUICK KICKS: Son of Lynne and Dennis Dorman ... Attended Boston University's College of Arts and Sciences, majoring in geography ... his younger brother Richy was a freshman soccer player at BU in 2006 ... team captain and player of the season in 1998 for Flintshire Schoolboys U-18 team in Wales ... favorite sports team is Liverpool FC ... Favorite player is Liverpool midfielder Steven Gerrard ... Enjoys playing cricket ... favorite author is Nick Hornby ... a movie aficionado, his favorite films are Shawshank Redemption and Pirates of the Caribbean.

JOE FRANCHINO

Position: _____ Midfielder/Defender D.O.B.: _____ Aug. 9, 1976 (Fontana, Calif.)
 Height: _____ 5-9 Hometown: _____ Alta Loma, Calif.
 Weight: _____ 165 lbs. College: _____ Washington

How Acquired: Selected by the Revolution with the second selection in the 2000 MLS Special Draft from Los Angeles.

2007 REVS:
FRANCHINO

Has been a team leader since arriving in New England during the 2000 season ... is the longest-tenured member of the Revolution, joining the club in 2000 ... leads by example both on and off the field, displaying an unparalleled work ethic and consistency ... a dead-ball specialist with his left foot, Franchino is also a very good crosser of the ball in open play ... will feature at left-sided midfield, left back and in the central midfield ... enters 2007 tied with Jay Heaps for the club's career starts record with 155 ... earlier in 2006, Franchino set the team's appearances and minutes played records, before Heaps assumed the lead in both categories ... is one of five players who have started each of the Revolution's three MLS Cup appearances (2002, 2005, 2006), and has made four total trips to the league's championship game, including a trip with Los Angeles in 1999.

2006: Appeared in 21 games after suffering pair of injuries (hamstring strain and ankle sprain) that caused him to miss 10 games. Set all three of New England's club longevity records and briefly held the Revs' career records in appearances, starts and minutes played during the 2006 season. Started all four playoff games in the midfield. Saw time at left back, left wing and central midfield during the season. Recorded his only assist of the season on Clint Dempsey's game-tying goal against D.C. on Sept. 13 at Gillette Stadium.

2005: Again wore the captain's armband for coach Steve Nicol whenever on the field. Recorded three assists, the fifth time in his career he reached that mark. Tallied assists in back-to-back games in September (Sept. 10 vs. Columbus and Sept. 17 at New York.). Started all four of the Revs' postseason games as New England made its second appearance in MLS Cup.

2004: Once again served as Revolution club captain. Injuries limited Franchino to 20 regular-season games and kept him out of playoff action. Had arthroscopic surgeries on his left knee and also his partially detached gluteus medius (hip) muscle on Oct. 15. Scored his only goal of the season on May 1 against his former team, the Los Angeles Galaxy. Made his 100th appearance and 100th start as member of the Revolution on May 22, 2004 against the MetroStars.

2003: A steady presence on the left side of the defense, starting 25 games, while collecting a goal and four assists. The lone goal was the game-winner in overtime of the Revs' 3-2 win over Columbus on Sept. 28. A late season calf injury stopped him from setting personal single-season highs in minutes played. Tallied new personal bests in shots (25) and shots on goal (8) as the Revs returned to the Eastern Conference Final.

2002: His man-marking abilities and physical play shored up the Revs' defense as the Revs made their first-ever appearance in MLS Cup. His leadership qualities and ability to contribute effectively to the attack earned him the captain's armband. Scored one goal and added a career-high five assists while starting all 23 games in which he played. Started all seven postseason games, playing all 673 minutes of the playoffs. Recorded an assist on Taylor Twellman's game-winning goal against Chicago in game one of the Eastern Conference Semifinals. His presence in the backline helped the Revs to earn a playoff GAA of 0.67.

2001: Started all 23 games in which he played. Saw time both on the back line and in the midfield. Recorded one assist on the season - on Andy Williams' goal on Sept. 7 against the MetroStars in what was eventually the final game of the regular season.

2000: Selected by the Revolution in the MLS Special Draft and became a starter on the left flank of the team's defense. Appeared in eight games for Los Angeles before moving to New England. Moved from the defensive position to the attacking midfield once with the Revs, where he sparked the attack during the club's late season run to the playoffs. Scored the first two goals of his MLS career in the final game of the regular season, a 4-3 victory against the MetroStars at Foxboro Stadium on Sept. 9. His second strike was the game-winning goal and the victory secured the Revs a berth in 2002 MLS Cup Playoffs.

1999: Played 25 games and logged 1,316 minutes, recording three assists. Helped the Galaxy earn a spot in MLS Cup, but did not play as L.A. fell to D.C. United 2-0 at Foxboro Stadium.

1998: Drafted by the Los Angeles Galaxy in the third round (30th overall) of the 1998 MLS College Draft out of Washington. Played 16 games - starting seven - as a left and central defender. Recorded four assists in his rookie campaign.

U.S. NATIONAL TEAM: Earned his first cap with U.S. National Team in a 2-0 win over Mexico in October 2000 ... was part of the U.S. Under-21 National Team that competed in France in April 1994.

QUICK KICKS: Has one daughter, Kaitryn (3) ... is a skillful surfer ... plays golf in spare time ... devotes free time to community work and soccer clinics ... enjoys Mexican food and vacationing in California.

JAY HEAPS

Position: _____ Defender D.O.B.: _____ Aug. 2, 1976 (Nashua, N.H.)
 Height: _____ 5-9 Hometown: _____ Longmeadow, Mass.
 Weight: _____ 155 lbs. College: _____ Duke

How Acquired: Traded to the Revolution, with a 2003 second-round draft choice, in exchange for Brian Dunseth and a 2003 first-round draft choice on June 20, 2001.

2007 REVS:
HEAPS

Heaps continues to improve as an out-and-out defender... possesses the speed and aggressiveness to get forward down the flank and join the attack ... an effective and determined tackler ... will play right fullback or centrally in a four-man back line and as a right back in a three-man defense ... exceptionally strong in the air... began his pro career as a midfielder ... an all-out player, Heaps wears his heart on his sleeve ... a native son of New England who remains a fan favorite in Foxborough ... is the active leader in all three Revolution career categories entering 2007: appearances, starts and minutes ... one of five Revs players to have started and played in each of New England's MLS Cup appearances (2002, 2005 & 2006) ... Soccer America ranked Heaps second in MLS among right-sided defenders playing in a three-man back line for the 2006 season

2006: A standout member of the Revs' record-setting defense that allowed just 35 goals and had a 1.09 goals against average. For the second season, played every minute of all 31 games in which he played, matching career highs in both appearances and minutes. Recorded four assists on the season, including three game-winning helpers, to rank first among Revs defenders. Assisted on Taylor Twellman's game-winning goal - and record-setting 75th career goal - at D.C. on Oct. 7. Started all four of the Revs' MLS Cup Playoff matches, playing all 420 minutes of the 2006 postseason. Established new

Revs club records for appearances (160) and minutes played (14,274) during the 2006 season, and shared the New England team record for career starts (155) with Joe Franchino.

2005: Had arguably his best season as a pro. With the Revs' switch from a 4-4-2 to a 3-5-2 system, slotted in to the right back role, effectively limiting the league's best attackers week-in and week-out. Established career highs for regular season games played and games started (31) and minutes played (2,790). Scored one goal - a game-tying tally against the MetroStars on June 25 in the 72nd minute - and added five assists.

2004: Heaps continued to hold down his place as the starting right back in Steve Nicol's team for most of the 2004 campaign and through the playoffs. Logged 2,415 regular season minutes in 28 appearances. Scored the Revs' first goal of the season at The Home Depot Center in the 2004 opener against the L.A. Galaxy.

2003: Totaled a team-best 2,579 minutes while appearing in 28 of the Revs' 30 games. The team's top scoring defender, netting three goals and adding one assist. Was shown the first regular-season red card of his Revolution career. Tied a team-high by tallying two blocks.

2002: In his first full season with the club, finished third on the team in scoring with 10 points while playing in 27 of the Revs' 28 games, primarily at right back. Scored two goals and added six assists. An integral part of a defense that posted two clean sheets in the 2002 MLS Cup Playoffs quarterfinal series against Chicago, allowing only one goal in the run of play. In the Eastern Conference Final series, scored the only goal of the game in the Revs' 1-0 Game Two victory against Columbus.

2001: Returned to Massachusetts, where he grew up, in a trade from Miami on June 20 for defender Brian Dunseth. Played a total of 28 games in the season, 13 with Miami before seeing time in 15 with New England after the trade. Had four assists on the season, including three for the Revs. Made his Revolution debut on June 20 against Colorado, playing the second half as a substitute. Made his first New England start - as a defender - on July 4 at Dallas.

2000: Played 29 games, scoring a career-best five goals and recording six assists and tied for fourth on the Fusion with 16 points. Named an MLS East All-Star, playing the final 45 minutes and scoring one goal and adding one assist in the East's 9-4, come-from-behind victory. Played every minute of the Fusion's action in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup. Set the then Miami record for blocked shots in a season with five.

1999: Drafted with the second overall pick in the 1999 MLS College Draft by the Miami Fusion. Voted MLS Rookie of the Year, leading all rookies in minutes played (2,511) and ranking second in goals (3), points (7) and games played (29). Netted three goals and recorded one assist. Scored a goal in his MLS debut against the MetroStars on March 20. Played all 180 minutes for Miami in the Eastern Conference Semifinals against D.C.

COLLEGE: Won the 1998 Missouri Athletic Club Award as the top collegiate player, and was the NSCAA Scholar-Athlete of the year that same season. Was a three-time Hermann Trophy (national player of the year) finalist, and was a four-time first-team All-ACC pick, four-time ACC All-Tournament performer and a four-time NSCAA All-South Region selection. Left the Duke program ranked third in career goals (45), fourth in career assists (37) and tied for second in career points (127). Was the Soccer America National Freshman of the Year and ACC Freshman of the Year in 1995. Earned a basketball scholarship at Duke University as a walk-on point guard, and played three-and-a-half seasons with the Blue Devils basketball team before leaving midway through his senior season to pursue his soccer career. Named one of Duke's "Top 10 Devils of the Decade" by the Duke Chronicle.

U.S. NATIONAL TEAM: Has been called into U.S. National Team camp several times, but has yet to earn a cap ... most recently called into U.S. National Team squad for the World Cup qualifier against Panama on Oct. 12, 2005 ... selected to the gameday roster for the USMNT match against Jamaica on Sept. 9, 1999 ... a former member of the Under-17 and Under-20 National Teams.

QUICK KICKS: Heaps and his wife, Danielle, have two children: John F. "Jack" Heaps IV, born on March 6, 2005, and Olivia Jane, born on Dec. 16, 2006 ... hobbies include golf, travel and movies ... his favorite non-soccer sports team is the Duke Blue Devils men's basketball team and his favorite athlete is Grant Hill ... his favorite vacation spots are the Cayman Islands and St. Thomas ... favorite musical artist is O.A.R. and favorite TV shows are Survivor and The Amazing Race.

Position: _____ Midfielder/Defender    D.O.B.: _____ July 23, 1976 (Tyler, Texas)
 Height: _____ 6-0    Hometown: _____ Tyler, Texas
 Weight: _____ 180 lbs.    College: _____ SMU
 How Acquired: Signed by the Revolution on August 5, 2005.

2007 REVS:
HERNANDEZ

With his accurate passing and ball-winning abilities, Hernandez is a player who can dictate the tempo of a game ... composed on the ball, defensively and positionally astute, Hernandez plays with a polished style that belies his toughness and determination ... will join in the attack when the opportunity presents itself ... two years in Mexico's top league with Necaxa allowed Hernandez to expand his range of skills and experience ... possesses a thunderous shot from long range ... is one of five players who have started each of the Revolution's three MLS Cup appearances.

2006: Started the first five games of the season - including the first two as a central defender in the three-man backline - before suffering a complex ankle injury that sidelined him for 25 games and resulted in surgery. Appeared in the final two games of the regular season and all four postseason games - starting three - including MLS Cup 2006 against Houston.

2005: Returned to the Revs in August and slotted right back into the team with his poise and ability. Played in seven regular-season matches and all four of the Revs' playoff games. Contributed a vital assist on Clint Dempsey's game-winner against Chicago in the Eastern Conference Championship game.

CLUB NECAXA (MEX, 2003-05): Played in a total of 50 league matches - starting 39 - and two playoff games for Necaxa, scoring three goals. His Mexican League stint spanned a total of four apertura (opening) and clausura (closing) seasons.

2003: Left the Revolution nine games into the season to join Necaxa of the Mexican Primera division, signing on July 7, 2003.

2002: Hernandez came to the Revolution from the MetroStars in a six-man trade on May 24. With the Revs, he tallied three goals and an assist in the 2002 MLS campaign. Played mostly in the defensive center midfield, becoming the team's freekick specialist. In the 2002 MLS Playoffs, tallied a goal and an assist in the quarterfinals to defeat the Fire. Though he sat out Game 2 against Columbus, he returned in Game 3 to steady the Revs' midfield as the squad qualified for the MLS Cup Final.

2001: Led the MetroStars to a 20-10-3 record (including playoffs) in league play as a starter in the 2001 season. He made the transition from defense to midfield in the second half of 2001, notching a career-high seven assists and adding one

 Height: _____ 6-0 Hometown: _____ Vance River, Trinidad
 Weight: _____ 170 lbs. College: _____ American

How Acquired: Signed as a Senior International on May 19, 2004

2007 REVIEWS:
JOHN

John had perhaps his best year as a pro in 2006, taking the field in the 2006 FIFA World Cup for his native Trinidad & Tobago, and also finally laying claim to a regular starting spot with the Revolution ... a rugged tackler and uncompromising defender, the left-footed John has the ability to match the fastest forwards in MLS with his speed ... Soccer America named John the third-best left defender in a three-man back-line in MLS for 2006.

2006: Settled into a starting role after returning from the 2006 FIFA World Cup with Trinidad & Tobago. The Revs were undefeated during the regular season with John in the starting lineup, going 7-0-3 in his first-team appearances. Started all four postseason matches.

2005: Shuttling back-and-forth between the Revs and Trinidad & Tobago international duty for World Cup qualifying, John remained an important part of the Revs squad, providing leadership and experience for the team in vital situations.

2004: Within two weeks of being signed by the Revolution on May 19, John had earned a regular place in the New England central defense, starting 19 of the 21 league matches in which he appeared. Started all three Revolution playoff matches in 2004. Scored the only goal of the game in the Revs' 1-0 win in Game One of the Eastern Conference Semifinals versus the Columbus Crew, a powerful 26-yard shot that beat Crew goalkeeper Jon Busch cleanly.

BEFORE MLS: Spent 2002-04 seasons playing in theeircom Premier League in the Republic of Ireland with Bohemian F.C. Dublin, Shelbourne United and Longford Town ... previously playing for Revolution head coach Steve Nicol with the Boston

Bulldogs of the USL's A-League as well as for the A-League New Orleans Riverboat Gamblers.

COLLEGE: Inducted into the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Hall of Fame in Tyler, Texas, on Nov. 16, 2005 ... John starred as a sweeper for Yavapai Junior College in 1994-95, and was named to both the NSCAA All-America team and the NJCAA National All-Tournament teams during his playing days for the Roughriders ... transferred to American University as a junior in 1996, where he played his final two collegiate seasons ... John was a two-time All-Colonial Athletic Association performer and a two-time NSCAA All-South Atlantic Region honoree. As a senior in 1997, John helped the Eagles win the CAA Championship and led the team into the NCAA Quarterfinals.

TRINIDAD & TOBAGO NATIONAL TEAM: Has earned 79 caps for the "Soca Warriors" as of March 1, 2007 ... a member of the Trinidad & Tobago 2006 World Cup squad ... started two games in Germany, and missed T&T's game against England in group play after earning a red card against Sweden in the team's opener.

QUICK KICKS: Graduated from American University in May 1999, with a degree in Business Administration, specializing in international marketing ... will begin work toward his masters degree in business this season.

SHALRIE JOSEPH

Position: _____ Midfielder D.O.B.: _____ May 24, 1978 (Saint George, Grenada)
 Height: _____ 6-3 Hometown: _____ Brooklyn, N.Y.
 Weight: _____ 180 lbs. College: _____ St. Johns (N.Y.)

How Acquired: Selected by the Revolution in the second round (14th overall) in the 2002 MLS SuperDraft; Signed on Dec. 3, 2002.

2007 REVIEWS:
 JOSEPH

Joseph is the whole package in the defensive midfield ... as tenacious a ball-winner and tackler as there is in MLS ... Joseph's superior passing touch and good decision making means that he is the trigger-point for the Revs' build-up play ... rarely loses an aerial duel ... a vocal leader and communicator on the field ... Soccer America named Joseph the top holding midfielder in MLS for 2006 ... a talismanic presence on the field and in the locker room ... one of the team's first-choice penalty-kick takers.

2006: An MLS All-Star "First XI" selection, but was unable to play in the league's all-star match against EPL champion Chelsea FC because of the Revs' rescheduled game at Chivas USA. Voted Revolution Best Defender by the New England soccer media. Scored three goals and added one assist while controlling the Revs' midfield. Notched two goals on May 6 in the Revs' 4-0 victory over Los Angeles at Gillette Stadium. Missed the final five games of the regular season after undergoing surgery to repair torn ligaments and nerves in his right hand, but returned to start the three postseason games for which he was available. Played all 120 minutes of MLS Cup 2006, converting his shot in the game-deciding penalty kicks.

2005: Elected to the league Best XI and All-Star teams and voted Revolution team Most Valuable Player by the New England soccer media. Considered by most observers to have been the MLS Select team's best player in the Trofeo Santiago Bernabeu match at Real Madrid on August 23. Added six goals to his usual tough-tackling, accurate-passing brand of play. Recorded his first-career two-goal game against the MetroStars at Giants Stadium on Sept. 17, also adding an assist in that game.

2004: In his sophomore season in MLS, Joseph staked a claim to being the premier contention midfielder in the league. Started and played in 23 regular season matches and all three Revs playoffs games, registering three regular-season assists. Missed two games in June to play in World Cup qualifying with Grenada. Also missed action because of a broken nose (two games) and a hip flexor/quadriceps injury (three games). Accumulated just four regular season yellow cards despite playing an aggressive style, a testament to his good timing and tackling technique. Was a 2004 Sierra Mist MLS All-Star.

2003: Joseph became a force in central midfield during his rookie year with the Revolution, appearing in 28 games and finishing second on the club in minutes played with 2,466. Made his MLS debut on April 19 against Columbus at Gillette Stadium when he came on for Daniel Hernandez at halftime. One week later he made his first start in Dallas and was a fixture in Steve Nicol's starting lineup from that point on, missing just one game. Finished the season with two goals and two assists for six points and his strong partnership with José Cancela in central midfield helped spur the Revs to a 6-0-1 record over the final two months of the regular season. Played briefly in goal against Chicago on July 19. Recorded his first-career MLS point (an assist) on May 17 in a 3-0 victory over Chicago at home, then scored his first career MLS goal on Sept. 28 against Columbus in a 3-2, overtime victory at home. In the 2002 season. He scoring seven goals and added one assist with the Freedoms.

Position: _____ Midfielder/Defender    D.O.B.: ____ Dec. 29, 1980 (El Paso, Texas)
 Height: _____ 5-8    Hometown: _____ Midland, Ga.
 Weight: _____ 165 lbs.    College: _____ Virginia
 How Acquired: Selected by the Revolution in the fourth round (45th overall) in the 2002 MLS SuperDraft; Signed by the Revolution on July 30, 2002.

2007 REVIEWS:
LEONARD

2006: Made one appearance before missing the rest of the season after suffering a ruptured left Achilles tendon on April 24 in a scrimmage against Boston College at Gillette Stadium. Underwent reconstructive surgery that evening and spent the rest of the season rehabilitating after being placed on MLS' season-ending injury list on May 24. Resumed full-team training during the MLS Cup Playoffs.

2005: Was a regular starter for the Revolution on the left side of the midfield. Started 25 of the 27 games in which he appeared during the regular season, and appeared in two games - starting both - in the MLS Cup Playoffs. Scored his first MLS career goal in the 31st minute on April 23 at D.C. United. Added an assist on Clint Dempsey's game-winning goal against Chivas USA on April 30.

2004: More than doubled his number of appearances in 2003 (10), appearing in 25 regular-season games and three post-season matches. Saw time at midfield and in the defense. Registered his first MLS career point with an assist on Taylor Twellman's goal against Dallas on Oct. 2. Played one of his best games in a Revs uniform in the Eastern Conference Championship match at D.C. Assisted Twellman on the first New England goal in that match with a pinpoint cross from the left wing.

2003: Composed, athletic and hard-working, Leonard made the Revolution roster a year after being drafted by the Revs. Appeared in 10 games in his first full MLS season, starting five games mostly as an outside back. By mid-season, he found himself filling in during big games at left back. Made his first-career MLS start on Aug. 30 against Chicago in a 5-1 New England victory. Started all three of the Revs' MLS Cup Playoff games, playing all 281 minutes of action.

2002: Leonard, though initially selected by the Revolution in the 2002 MLS SuperDraft, did not sign with the squad until July 30 after exploring playing options in Europe. Did not see any time on the field.

COLLEGE: A four-year performer at Virginia ... finished his career with the Cavaliers ranked fifth in career minutes played (8,226) and seventh in career games played (89) ... helped UVa reach three straight ACC Tournament championship matches (1999-01) ... was a member of the Virginia defensive unit that did not surrender a goal during the 2001 ACC season as the Cavs became the first team in ACC history to post shutouts in every league contest.

U.S. NATIONAL TEAM: A former member of the U.S. Under-20 and Under-17 National Teams.

 Height: _____ 6-0 Hometown: _____ Tauranga, New Zealand
 Weight: _____ 175 lbs. College: _____ UC-Santa Barbara
 How Acquired: Selected by the Revolution in the third round (33rd overall) in the 2005 MLS SuperDraft; Signed by the Revolution on Sept. 15, 2005

Now in his third season with the Revs, the left-footed New Zealand international is a strong athlete who possesses the ability both to defend and to use his speed to make overlapping runs ... joined the Revs in the fall of 2005 and has seen time as a left-sided defender and midfielder ... also will slot in as a holding midfielder.

2006: Appeared in 16 games and started nine, all on the left side (left back and left midfield). Missed several stretches of the season while competing with the New Zealand National Team. After signing with the Revs in the fall of 2005, made his MLS debut on April 30 against Chicago at Gillette Stadium. Both of his assists came in the Revs' dramatic come-from-behind 3-3 draw at Chicago on June 11. His first-career MLS assist came on Taylor Twellman's goal in the 87th minute, and his second came on Steve Ralston's goal in stoppage time. Did not see any time during the 2006 MLS Cup Playoffs.

2005: Did not see any first-team action with the Revolution after signing with the club late in the season. Made one appearance with the Revs' Reserve Division squad, playing all 90 minutes against the Kansas City Reserves on Oct. 10.

BEFORE MLS: Lochhead played for Orange County Blue Star of the Premier Development League in 2004, appearing in 10 matches. Helped the Blue Star to their second consecutive Premier Development League postseason appearance and earned PDL All-Western Conference. He also scored one goal and tallied one assist for Orange County.

COLLEGE: Missed just five matches in four years at UC Santa Barbara, all because of suspension or national team duty ... as a senior, earned NSCAA Second-Team All-America honors, as well as All-Big West First Team and league defensive player of the year recognition ... his 7,546 career minutes played at UCSB are the most of any field player in program history ... capped his four-year college career at UCSB by leading the Gauchos to the 2004 NCAA Division I College Cup Final.

NEW ZEALAND NATIONAL TEAM: Has earned 11 caps for the New Zealand National Team as of Feb. 1, 2007 ... earned his first cap as a senior international when he started in a friendly match in Iran ... Lochhead has started every match since that he has been available to play ... Lochhead helped anchor the All-Whites' defense in World Cup qualifying at the Oceania Football Confederation's Nations Cup in 2004 ... in 2006, he passed on opportunity to play for New Zealand in order to play with the Revolution in the CONCACAF Champions Cup ... as member of New Zealand's 2004 National Team, Lochhead anchored the Kiwi defense that came within two goals of qualifying for the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens ... he began his play on New Zealand's National teams with the Under-16 team, and has competed on each concurrent squad up to, and including, the Under-23's and full senior national squad.

QUICK KICKS: Majored in Chemical Engineering at UCSB ... recognized as a Big West Scholar Athlete ... If he was not playing soccer he would probably be playing beach volleyball ... his greatest moment in sports was beating Poland 2-1 in the Under-17 World Cup with the New Zealand National Team.

PAT NOONAN

Position: _____ Forward/Midfielder D.O.B.: _____ Aug. 2, 1980 (St. Louis, Mo.)
 Height: _____ 6-0 Hometown: _____ Ballwin, Mo.
 Weight: _____ 170 lbs. College: _____ Indiana
 How Acquired: Selected by the Revolution in the first round (ninth overall) in the 2003 MLS SuperDraft

Noonan can attack from either wing, using both feet to good effect ... has a knack for good link-up play and making players around him better ... holds the ball exceptionally well and has good tactical awareness ... combines well with childhood friend and Revs strike partner Taylor Twellman ... always a scoring threat when he's on the field.

2006: Missed significant portions of the season with various injuries (hamstring, back, hip flexor, sports hernia), which limited to action in only 14 games and a career-low 851 minutes. Netted one goal and three assists in his appearances. Continued his mastery against New York, netting his 11th goal against the club in 14 regular-season games on Sept. 9, which proved to also be the game-winning goal in the 1-0 victory. Returned from sports hernia surgery (Oct. 9) against Chicago on Oct. 28 in Game Two of the Eastern Conference Semifinal Series at Gillette Stadium, entering as a halftime substitute and scoring the series-tying goal that brought New England level, 2-2, on aggregate, before later converting his attempt in the series-deciding penalty kicks, which the Revs won to advance to their fifth consecutive Eastern Conference Championship. Assisted on Taylor Twellman's fourth-minute game-winning goal in the Revs' 1-0 victory at D.C. on Nov. 5, sending the team to its second consecutive MLS Cup. Also started MLS Cup 2006, playing all 120 minutes.

2005: Noonan's third MLS season saw him hit great highs while enduring some frustrating spells. Noonan scored eight goals through June 25 but did not tally in the league again until the playoffs, largely because of absences due to U.S. National Team duty and injuries. Named an MLS All-Star for the league's game against EPL side Fulham FC, but was unable to play because of injury. Was the Honda MLS Player of the Week for Week 13 after scoring two goals against Columbus on June 22 and adding his third strike of the week on June 25 against the MetroStars. Registered assists in four consecutive matches between Sept. 10-24, tying him for the second longest such streak in 2005. Noonan's go-ahead goal against the MetroStars in Game Two of the Eastern Conference Semifinals at Gillette Stadium brought the Revs level at 2-2 on aggregate and was a major component of New England's stunning comeback in that series.

2004: Noonan shared the 2004 MLS Budweiser Scoring Championship with MetroStars midfielder Amado Guevara, recording 11 goals and 8 assists for a league-leading 30 points. Posted second career hat trick in Revs' win at Kansas City on June 2. Scored game-tying goal in the Eastern Conference Championship game against D.C. on Nov. 6

2003: Injuries to key players provided Noonan the opportunity to start at striker down the stretch of the 2003 season and he went on to exceed the expectations of most pundits around the league, scoring 10 goals and adding two more in the playoffs. He started the season as an understudy to the wide midfielders and ended the season as a forward, finishing in the top 10 in MLS in goals (10) and in points (27). Was particularly effective against the MetroStars, scoring seven of his 10 regular-season goals and both of his playoff goals against the Tri-State area club. On Oct. 25 against the MetroStars, scored three goals for his first career hat trick. Named MLS Player of the Month for October after scoring five goals and adding one assist. Was one of three finalists for 2003 MLS Rookie of the Year.

 Height: _____ 5-11 Hometown: _____ Cranston, R.I.
 Weight: _____ 155 lbs. College: _____ Wake Forest
 How Acquired: Selected by the Revolution in the first round (ninth overall) in the 2005 MLS SuperDraft

One of the burgeoning gems in MLS, Parkhurst is a true rarity: an effective central defender who is also a skillful soccer player ... often wins the ball because of his ability to read the play before it unfolds ... possesses a keen sense of tactical understanding ... has remarkable passing touch for a back ... devotes a great deal of time to appearances and community service activities ... Parkhurst grew up a fan of the Revs and attended the team's first ever home game at Foxboro Stadium ... Soccer America named Parkhurst the top-ranked central defender in a three-man back line in MLS during 2006.

2006: Anchored MLS' best defense that allowed just 35 goals in 32 games for a club record 1.09 goals against average. Honored as MLS' U.S. Soccer Foundation Humanitarian of the Year for his exemplary community involvement. After missing the first two games of the season, played every minute of the remaining 30 regular-season games and all four postseason contests. Was voted to Soccer America's 2006 MLS Cup Playoffs Best XI as the Revs had a team GAA of 0.64 in their four-game run.

2005: Won MLS Gatorade Rookie of the Year award. Parkhurst played every minute of every Revolution MLS regular-season game (2880) in 2005, making him one of only five MLS players to do so that year. Committed just six fouls in the course of the entire regular season.

COLLEGE: One of the best defenders in the nation while at Wake Forest ... a two-time NSCAA Second-Team All-America performer (2003 and 2004) and a 2004 Soccer America first-team performer ... a two-time NSCAA All-South Region honoree and a three-time All-ACC selection ... voted ACC

Defender of the Year as a junior ... started every game in which he appeared in his three seasons at Wake Forest (62 games) ... scored one goal and added two assists as a collegian, all in his junior season ... was a two-time team MVP.

U.S. NATIONAL TEAM: Twice called into camp for the full U.S. Men's National Team: early in 2005, but declined the invitation, and then again in 2006 under interim head coach Bob Bradley ... was a member of U.S. Under-17 team while at IMG Soccer Academy.

QUICK KICKS: Is the son of Michael and Marian Parkhurst ... his sister, Molly, is a senior captain for University of Rhode Island's women's soccer team ... his favorite soccer moment was winning the 2005 Eastern Conference Championship ... was in the stands for the first ever New England Revolution game at Foxboro Stadium ... was on the Dean's List every semester at Wake Forest ... played his club soccer in Rhode Island with Bayside United before going on to attend the IMG Soccer Academy in Bradenton, Fla., at the age of 14 ... holds U.S. and Rep. of Ireland citizenship ... his favorite food is Thanksgiving dinner ... attended the 2001 adidas Elite Soccer Program and was a member of the Generation adidas Class of 2005.

 Height: _____ 5-9 Hometown: _____ St. Louis, Mo.
 Weight: _____ 160 lbs. College: _____ Florida International
 How Acquired: Selected by the Revolution in the first round (sixth overall) of the 2002 Allocation Draft.

2007 REVIEWS:
RALSTON

Ralston possesses great technique, tactical knowledge and determination ... Soccer America named Ralston the second-best right midfielder in MLS for the 2006 season ... he has also filled in capably as a left-sided midfielder and right fullback during his five seasons with the Revolution ... the MLS "Iron Man," Ralston holds two of the league's longevity records - minutes played (27,548) and career starts (309) - and is second in career appearances (311) entering the 2007 season, a record which he's poised to claim in 2007 ... also enters 2007 ranked third in MLS career assists (107), behind former Tampa Bay Muliny teammate Carlos Valderrama (114, career leader) and Preki (111). He also holds the Revolution club record for career assists (45) and game-winning assists (12).

2006: Netted six goals and added five assists on the season, marking his ninth professional season with five or more goals. Ralston collected all five of his assists in the final 12 games of the regular season, in which the Revs went 6-2-4. Tied for the MLS lead in game-winning assists (4). Scored the game-tying goal in the final minute of stoppage time in the Revs' 1-1 draw at Kansas City on July 29. His go-ahead, turn-around goal at Chicago on July 8 was an at-large nomination for MLS Sierra Mist Goal of the Year. Set up Pat Noonan for the game-winning goal against the Red Bulls on Sept. 9 at Gillette Stadium. Assisted on Khano Smith's 88th-minute game-winning goal against Columbus on Oct. 14 to help the Revs clinch second place in the Eastern Conference. Spent much time during preseason training and early season matches shuttling between the Revolution and U.S. Men's National Team camps and friendlies.

2005: With his start at Columbus on Sept. 21, Ralston made his 100th appearance in a Revolution uniform, his first having come on March 23, 2002 against the MetroStars. He finished the season with 103 starts, enough for fourth all-time in that category for the Revs. His assist on Taylor Twellman's sixth-minute goal at the MetroStars on May 21 gave him the Revolution record 36th career assist to surpass Joe-Max Moore (35) as he finished the season with 40 career assists. With his assist on Twellman's 39th-minute game-winner against the Crew on Sept. 10, Ralston claimed the Revolution record for game-winning assists with eight, passing Mike Burns (seven GWG in 108 games) and José Cancela (seven GWA in 61 games).

2004: Ralston's versatility proved to be a huge asset to New England as Ralston filled-in at right fullback, left midfield and central midfield due to the Revs' injury problems. The Revolution's team MVP, tied for third on the team in goals (7) and tied for second on the team in assists (8). Only member of the team to play every minute of all 30 games in 2004. Was an MLS All-Star selection, his fourth such honor. Started all three of the Revs' playoff contests, scoring one goal and adding two assists. Assisted on Avery John's game-winning goal against Columbus in Game One of the Eastern Conference Semifinals, then converted a penalty kick and assisted on Pat Noonan's 85th-minute, game-tying goal against D.C. in the Eastern Conference Final.

2003: Though away on U.S. National Team duty for the middle portion of the MLS season, still put up strong numbers for the Revolution. Started 25 of the 26 games in which he played. Did not start the Revs' July 27 contest against D.C. after returning from national team duty. Converted the game-winning penalty kick vs. D.C. United on October 11 that clinched a playoff spot for New England. Started all three of the Revs' playoff contests.

2002: Taken sixth overall by the Revs in the MLS Allocation Draft on Jan. 11, after a six-year stay with the Tampa Bay Mutiny. Ended the season having earned his third MLS Best XI distinction. Led the league with 19 assists. Accounted for assists on slightly less than half (11) of Taylor Twellman's goals on the season (23). Was a starter on the MLS All-Star team, scoring the game winner in the 81st minute. In the decisive Game Three of the Eastern Conference Final against the Crew, Ralston tallied his first points of the 2002 postseason, scoring in the 17th minute.

2001: Tampa Bay's team MVP, netted seven goals and recorded six assists. His seven goals matched his previous career high, which he set as a rookie in 1996. Recorded 20-plus points for the fourth time in his career. Started all 25 games in which he played. Scored goals in three successive games (April 7 at Dallas, April 14 vs. Columbus and April 21 at the MetroStars). Received his first-ever red card for a hand-ball foul on May 19 at Miami, and missed the following game serving the suspension.

2000: Earned his second-ever MLS Best XI honors and his second MLS Fair Play Award. Started all 30 of the games he played for the Mutiny, scoring five goals and recording 17 assists. Named to the East team in the MLS All-Star Game. Started all eight of Tampa Bay's MLS Cup Playoffs games.

1999: Earned MLS Best XI honors for the first time in his career, was also awarded the MLS Fair Play Award. Scored five goals and had an MLS-high 18 assists, which added up to a career-high 28 points. Was the Mutiny Team MVP. Became the first player in MLS history to play 10,000 career minutes in a 2-1 shootout victory at Columbus on Aug. 22. Became Tampa Bay's all-time leading scorer at D.C. on Oct. 6 with an assist on Ritchie Kotchau's goal in a 4-2 victory. Started both MLS Cup Playoffs games against Columbus.

1998: Tallied five goals and recorded eight assists with Tampa Bay. Scored goals in three straight games for the first time in his career (July 29 at D.C., Aug. 6 vs. Miami and Aug. 14 vs. New England). Tied a then team record for four shots on goal - on four shots - against New York/New Jersey on May 3.

1997: Started in all 29 games he played for the Mutiny to lead the team. Netted five goals and recorded 11 assists to tie for second on the team in points. His assist total was second on the team only to Carlos Valderrama, who led the league with a then-record-tying 19. Named to the East team at the MLS All-Star Game. Played in one MLS Cup Playoffs game after missing Tampa Bay's first game with an ankle injury.

1996: Drafted by Tampa Bay in the second round (18th overall) of the 1996 MLS College Draft. Voted the first-ever MLS Rookie of the Year. Tallied seven goals and recorded two assists in his first professional campaign. His seven goals tied for second on the Mutiny. Five of his goals were game-winners, which tied for third-best in MLS. Was one of only two Tampa Bay players to start 31 games. Recorded three assists in the Mutiny's Eastern Conference Semifinal series against Columbus. Notched Tampa Bay's only goal in its 2-1 loss to D.C. in the Eastern Conference Championship.

COLLEGE: Starred for the Golden Panthers for three seasons (1993-95) after transferring from Forest Park Community College in St. Louis after his freshman season ... a two-time All-American at FIU ... led the nation in scoring as a junior with 56 points (19 goals and 18 assists), the second-highest total in school history ... set the FIU single-season assists record that season ... ranks first at FIU in career assists (33) and fourth in career scoring (113 points: 40 goals, 33 assists) and consecutive games with an assist (six), and shares the record for hat tricks (3) ... in 1994, Ralston led the Golden Panthers to their second-ever NCAA appearance and final national rankings of No. 14 in the coaches poll and No. 15 by Soccer America.

U.S. NATIONAL TEAM: Has earned 33 caps and scored four goals for the U.S. National Team as of March 1, 2007 ... an alternate selection to the U.S.'s 2006 FIFA World Cup squad ... scored game-winning goal in 2-0 victory against Mexico on Sept. 3, 2005, as the U.S. claimed a berth to the 2006 FIFA World Cup in Germany ... in the 53rd minute, Eddie Lewis served a free kick to the back post where Oguchi Onyewu rose over his defender and headed the ball off the left post: the ball deflected across the goalmouth to the right side and Ralston had an easy header tap-in for the goal, his fourth with the MNT and his second during 2006 World Cup qualifying ... after a three-year lay-off from the USMNT player pool, became active in national-team events in 2003 and was a force during the 2006 World Cup qualifying cycle ... was a member of the 2005 CONCACAF Gold Cup-winning U.S. squad ... scored his first goal for the U.S. on Jan. 18, 2003 against Canada in the 4-0 victory ... earned his first U.S. cap on Jan. 17, 1997, starting in the midfield against Peru in San Diego.

QUICK KICKS: Married to Rachel and has one daughter, Anna, and one son, Liam ... is an avid fisherman and hunter ... would like to coach soccer or be a fishing guide after his playing career is finished ... majored in education at Florida International University ... his favorite sportsman is pro fisherman Kevin Van Dam ... a St. Louis native, Ralston is a big St. Louis Cardinals fan ... also enjoys Mexican food and country and rock music ... his favorite soccer moment is his goal against Mexico on Sept. 3, 2005, a game the U.S. won to clinch a berth in the 2006 FIFA World Cup.

Position: _____ Goalkeeper D.O.B.: _____ March 28, 1975 (Atlanta, Ga.)
 Height: _____ 6-1 Hometown: _____ Mission Viejo, Calif.
 Weight: _____ 196 lbs. College: _____ UCLA
How Acquired: Traded to the Revolution from Los Angeles in exchange for Alex Pineda Chacon and a 2004 conditional pick on Jan. 17, 2003.

2007 REVIEWS:
REIS

Considered by many to be the top goalkeeper in the league, Reis brings an unmatched presence and intelligence to the position ... sound positionally, brave in traffic and excellent with the ball at his feet, Reis is also a strong organizer and communicator ... a fantastic shot-stopper on penalty kicks, and one of head coach Steve Nicol's first selections to take penalty kicks ... holds every New England career goalkeeping record, including games played in goal (92), games started in goal (91), minutes played in goal (8,237), goals against average (1.22), wins (36), saves (365), shutouts (23) and saves percentage (.729) ... Soccer America named Reis the top goalkeeper in MLS for the 2006 season.

2006: Established himself as arguably MLS' top goalkeeper as he was voted 2006 Revolution Honda MVP. Backed the league's best defense, which allowed just 35 goals in 32 games for a team-record 1.09 goals against average. Led MLS in shutouts (10) and his 141 saves outpaced the next closest goalkeeper by 33, matching and setting New England records, respectively. One of two players in MLS to play every minute of every game, tying the MLS and Revolution records and setting new personal single-season marks in both categories. His 1.09 GAA was the best among all full-time MLS goalkeepers and established a new Revolution single-season club record. Stopped two of the three penalty-kick attempts against him during the season to further entrench his reputation as the league's best in PK situations. Made five or more saves 15 times during the season, including two games with eight. Went 5-0-2 with an 0.57 GAA in the final seven games of the regular season, leading the Revs now annual charge into the postseason. Started all four postseason games, earning a 2-1-1 record and 0.64 GAA as he led the Revs to MLS Cup 2006 for the second consecutive season. Was voted to Soccer America's 2006 MLS Cup Playoffs Best XI.

2005: Reis' second season as the Revs number one goalkeeper was his best yet as a professional. Reis was named to the league All-Star team for the first time in his career and set all-time single-season club marks for wins, saves, shutouts, minutes played in goal and starts in goal. He was also the MLS Select Team's starting goalkeeper for the prestigious Trofeo Santiago Bernabeu match against Real Madrid on Aug. 23. Led MLS in saves with 115, and his 1.13 GAA was tied for second-best in MLS. Ranked second in MLS in wins with 16. His 10 shutouts in 2005 placed him third in MLS in that category. Posted a league-leading 384-minute shutout streak in six matches between April 23 and May 21. On Sept. 10 against Columbus, Reis set a new Revs all-time career mark for wins by a goalkeeper with 22. Also, by playing the full 90 minutes in goal, he took over the top spot for minutes played in goal with 4,817, and also broke the Revs' all-time club mark for saves by tallying his 207th stop. With his start at Colorado on Aug. 20, Reis recorded his 51st start putting him tops for all-time Revs starts in goal. Voted the 2005 U.S. Soccer Revolution Humanitarian of the Year.

2004: Posted a 7-10-7 record with a 1.36 GAA and three shutouts. His 24 appearances and 23 starts were both career highs. Was a huge presence between the pipes in the MLS Cup Playoffs, saving two penalty kicks in Game Two of the 2002: Played 11 games for the Galaxy, posting a 1.26 GAA. Started nine of the team's first 10 games of the season going 4-3-2 in that span. Posted two shutouts, and had a 3-0-2 record in overtime games. Won an MLS Cup championship with the Galaxy with a 1-0, overtime victory over the Revolution at Gillette Stadium.

2001: Posted an 8-3-4 record while making 16 appearances, including 15 starts. Started 15 of the team's first 20 games. Recorded a 1.41 GAA and added six shutouts. Made 52 saves. Again a member of an L.A. team that played in the league's championship game, MLS Cup 2001.

2000: Played six games, posting a 1.61 GAA in Los Angeles. Had a 2-3-1 record in his starts. Earned his first MLS overtime victory on Aug. 16 with a 1-0 victory against Colorado. The 1-0 victory against the Rapids was also his first career shutout, during which he made four saves. Made one postseason appearance for the Galaxy, seeing 51 minutes of action on Sept. 14, earning the win in L.A.'s 1-0 victory at Tampa Bay.

1999: Saw the least action of any backup goalkeeper in the MLS as starter Kevin Hartman played in all 32 MLS games, coming out for only 10 minutes in one game. Reis was the starting keeper in every U.S. Open Cup game the team played. A member of the Galaxy team that played in MLS Cup 1999.

1998: Originally drafted by Los Angeles in the third round (26th overall) in the 1998 MLS College Draft. Recorded a 1.34 GAA in the five games he played during his MLS rookie season with Los Angeles. Earned his first career victory - a 2-1 triumph - on April 18 at Kansas City.

COLLEGE: Finished his college career at UCLA with an NCAA Championship in 1997 ... named 1997 NCAA College Cup Defensive MVP after recording 20 saves - including a school-record 11 in the semifinals - and posting 221 shutout minutes on the way to the title ... named a 1997 All-American by Soccer America and Soccer Times ... posted an 0.64 GAA as a senior starter for the Bruins, his only season as the No. 1 keeper ... also added nine shutouts in 19 appearances while posting a 17-2 overall record.

U.S. NATIONAL TEAM: Selected as an alternate for the 2006 U.S. World Cup squad ... has earned two caps as of March 1, 2007, posting a shutout in his first-ever U.S. National Team start, a 0-0 draw with Canada on Jan. 22, 2006 in San Diego ... is 2-0-0 for the Nats ... was on the U.S. squad for its 2-0 win over Panama at Gillette Stadium in World Cup qualifying on October 12, 2005.

QUICK KICKS: Married his wife Nicole (Odom) in 2002, and the couple welcomed their first child, Jacob Wesley Reis, on June 8, 2006 ... son of J.T. and Kathy Reis of Mission Viejo, Calif., and has one older brother, Mike ... started playing soccer at the age of five with the Rowdies ... was a striker until age fifteen ... enjoys playing sports, going to the beach and spending time with friends and loved ones ... his favorite actor is Will Ferrell and his favorite actress is Ashley Judd ... a fan of Clive Cussler's novels ... named the top practical joker in MLS by 90:00 Magazine ... his wife was an All-America softball shortstop at UCLA (1995-98).

Position: _____ Defender/Midfielder    D.O.B.: ___Oct. 27, 1982 (Colorado Springs, Colo.)
 Height: _____ 5-10    Hometown: _____ Colorado Springs, Colo.
 Weight: _____ 150 lbs.    College: _____ Wake Forest
 How Acquired: Drafted by the Revolution in the second round (21st overall) of the 2005 MLS SuperDraft

2007 REVIEWS:
RILEY

In Riley's second professional season he increased his starting appearances from his rookie campaign and proved his value with a very strong showing in the Revs' 1-0 victory over D.C. in the Eastern Conference Championship match ... is a versatile, athletic player whom Steve Nicol can deploy as a defender or as a midfielder on either side of the field ... displays excellent composure on the ball ... has the speed to turn the corner on opposing defenders and is good on the dribble.

2006: Started all 20 games in which he appeared, playing across the backline and on the left and right wings. Suffered a complex ankle injury on May 27 against Houston, causing him to miss eight games before returning to the lineup against Colorado on July 4 in his home state. Started the Revs' Eastern Conference Championship game at D.C. on Nov. 5, playing all 90 minutes. Started the game as a right fullback in a 4-4-2 alignment before pushing up to the right wing when the team switched to a 3-5-2 formation midway through the game.

2005: The Revs' 2005 second-round SuperDraft choice could arguably be called a "sleeper" pick, though he was unquestionably a great pickup at the 21st slot overall. Riley appeared in 23 matches for Nicol, starting 12 and demonstrating the ability to step into any game situation. In his first professional game on April 2 at San Jose, he assisted on Taylor Twellman's goal in the second half. Scored first professional goal on Sept. 24 against the MetroStars in the 85th minute to secure a berth for the Revolution in the 2005 MLS Playoffs.

COLLEGE: One of the most versatile and consistent players in Wake Forest soccer history. Played in the back and midfield during his career and was one of the top players in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Played in 82 games and started 79 for the Demon Deacons, captaining the team as a senior in 2004. A key part of the team's defensive backline that allowed 0.56 goals per game, just 3.76 shots on goal per game and posted 11 shutouts in 2002.

QUICK KICKS: Son of Chong Horton ... nicknamed "Giggles" or "Giggs" by his teammates ... played for Carolina Dynamo PDL Eastern Conference Championship team (2004) ... was a communications major with a sociology minor ... Riley's mother is Korean-American ... played club soccer for the Colorado Rush, the program that has also produced Seth Tremblay and Conor Casey ... a two-time high school All-American ... Dean's List student at Harrison High School ... worked as a reposition man and financial assistant for Prime Financial of Colorado Springs four consecutive summers ... his favorite place to travel to is Costa Rica and his favorite soccer moment is starting the home opener at Gillette in 2005 against Columbus ... an able dancer ... voted one of Boston's Most Eligible Bachelors by Boston Magazine in 2006.

KHANO SMITH

Position: _____ Midfielder/Forward D.O.B.: _____ Jan. 10, 1981 (Paget, Bermuda)
 Height: _____ 6-3 Hometown: _____ Warwick, Bermuda
 Weight: _____ 190 lbs. College: _____ Lees-McRae
 How Acquired: Signed by the Revolution on April 15, 2005 as a youth international.

2007 REVIEWS:
SMITH

A singular force in MLS with his long strides and separation speed that put immense pressure on outside midfielders and defenders ... plays as an out-and-out striker for the Bermuda National Team ... has mostly featured on the left side in two seasons with the Revs ... Smith came to the attention of Revolution head coach Steve Nicol on New England's 2005 preseason trip to Bermuda when he scored for his country in the Revs' 3-2 victory over Bermuda on March 3 in Hamilton.

2006: After missing the first four months of the season while rehabbing his left knee, appeared in 10 of the final 11 matches, mainly as a second-half substitute on the left wing. Started two of the final three games on the left side of the midfield. Scored his first goal of 2006 in the final regular-season game of the year - the game-winning goal in the 88th minute against Columbus on Oct. 14 to secure second place in the Eastern Conference and home-field advantage in the first round of the MLS Cup Playoffs. Appeared in all four postseason games, assisting on Taylor Twellman's goal in the 113th minute in MLS Cup 2006.

2005: Scored his first career MLS goal in his first career start on June 4 against KC in the 17th minute of the match. Tallied for the Revs on Sept. 2 at Real Salt Lake in astonishing fashion, dribbling solo 65 yards on the counterattack and finishing the game-winning goal in the 1-0 victory. Also notched the winning goal in the 83rd minute of Game Two of the Eastern Conference Semifinal Series to complete the Revs comeback from a 2-0 deficit to win the series 3-2 on aggregate.

BEFORE MLS: Played in the USL's D3 Pro League for the Carolina Dynamo after college, and played in Bermuda's Premier League, winning the 2004 league and cup double with Dandy Town Hornets.

COLLEGE: Starred for Lees-McCrae College in Banner Elk, N.C., earning Division II first-team All-America honors in 2002 ... began collegiate career at Champlain College in Burlington, Vermont.

BERMUDA NATIONAL TEAM: Has 20 caps for the Bermuda National Team as of Feb. 1, 2007, and has scored seven goals for his national team ... participated in the 2006 Digicel Cup, the Carribean Gold Cup qualifying tournament.

QUICK KICKS: Has a daughter, Milana... son of Deborah Smith and Wayne Baxter ... also has three siblings ... enjoys hip-hop and reggae music ... favorite film is Dances with Wolves ... his favorite TV shows are CSI, House, American Idol, Law and Order and SVU ... sites his favorite soccer moment as scoring his first international goal for Bermuda.

TAYLOR TWEWMAN

Position: _____ Forward D.O.B.: ___Feb. 29, 1980 (Minneapolis, Minn.)
 Height: _____ 5-11 Hometown: _____ St. Louis, Mo.
 Weight: _____ 170 lbs. College: _____ Maryland
How Acquired: Drafted by the Revolution in the first round (second overall) in the 2002 MLS SuperDraft.

2007 REVIEWS:
TWEWMAN

Twellman followed up another productive regular season in 2006 with a massive postseason, scoring in three consecutive MLS Cup Playoffs matches, including the MLS Cup final ... Twellman remains the league's premier penalty-area predator, combining a diverse arsenal of scoring abilities with fierce determination in front of the goal ... "Mr. New England Soccer" since his arrival in Foxborough in 2002, Twellman is the mainstay of the Revs' attack ... became the youngest player in MLS history to score 75 goals (26 yrs., 221 days) with his game-winning goal at D.C. on Oct. 7, surpassing Jason Kreis (29 yrs., 168 days) for the record.

2006: Led the Revs in goal scoring for the fourth time in his five-year career, netting a team-best 11 goals. Scored his 75th career goal at D.C. on Oct. 7, a goal that was also the game-winning goal in the Revs' 2-1 victory at RFK Stadium. Was one of six MLS players to start all 32 games, and ranked fourth in MLS in minutes played 2,856, setting a new personal single-season best. Was second in MLS in shots (86) and shots on goal (42), while ranking ninth in fouls suffered (60). An MLS All-Star selection, although he was unable to play in the game because of the Revs' rescheduled game at Chivas USA. Twice scored goals in three straight games during the regular season (April 30 vs. Chicago through May 13 vs. Chivas USA and again June 28 vs. Dallas through July 4 at Colorado), and then again in the playoffs. Notched a goal against Chicago in Game Two of the Eastern Conference Semifinal Series to pull the Revs within one goal on aggregate, and after Pat Noonan knotted the series on aggregate later to send the series to a decisive penalty-kick round, Twellman scored the series-clinching penalty kick in the fourth round. Scored a highlight-reel goal - also the game-winning goal - at D.C. in the Eastern Conference Championship to send the Revs to MLS Cup 2006. Netted a goal in the 113th minute against Houston in MLS Cup 2006 - the Revs' first-ever goal in the league's championship game - and later scored in the penalty-kick round. After scoring goals in the Revs' final three playoff games, Twellman was named to Soccer America's 2006 MLS Cup Playoffs Best XI. Spent much of pre-season training and the early season going back and forth between the Revolution and U.S. National Team camps and friendlies.

2005: Voted MLS Honda MVP and won MLS' Budweiser Golden Boot, while making his second appearance on the end-of-season MLS RadioShack Best XI. An MLS All-Star for the third time in his career, and earned All-Star Game MVP honors after scoring one goal against EPL side Fulham FC. Scored two hat tricks in 2005 - against Dallas on July 16 and against Columbus on Sept. 10 - setting the club record for career three-goal games (3). On April 27 at Soldier Field against the Chicago Fire, Twellman scored his 50th career regular-season goal in a Revolution uniform, making him the first Revs player to reach that milestone. Led MLS in shots on goal (51). Went eight consecutive games with a goal and/or an assist between Aug. 6 and Sept. 24, the longest such streak in MLS in 2005. Earned MLS Player of the Month honors for September, scoring five goals and adding one assist in four games played. Was second in MLS in game-winning goals with six. Was voted the Midnight Riders' Man of the Year, becoming the first player to win the award three times

2004: Fought through injuries to appear in 23 games. Emerged from a scoring slump early in the season to finish second on the Revs in goals with nine. Added two vital goals for the Revs in the playoffs: one goal against Columbus in Game Two of the Eastern Conference Semifinals and the first of the Revs' three game-tying goals against D.C. in the Eastern Conference Final. Led MLS in shots on goal (39).

2003: Led MLS in points per game (1.55) and goals per game (0.68) and tied Carlos Ruiz atop the goal-scoring chart with 15 goals. Tied for third in MLS in points (34). Voted Revolution Team MVP. Missed games because of sinusitis, walking pneumonia and multiple broken bones in his face. His season came to an end when he broke his left foot at Dallas on Oct. 4, a game in which he scored two goals. Missed all of the 2003 MLS Cup Playoffs with the broken foot. Was voted the Midnight Riders' Man of the Year, becoming the first player to win in back-to-back seasons.

2002: Runner-up for league MVP and was a RadioShack Best XI selection. The first MLS scoring champion in Revs history, tallying 52 points on 23 goals and six assists. Was voted the Revolution Most Valuable Player as he helped lead the Revs to their first-ever MLS Cup appearance, a 1-0, overtime loss to Los Angeles at Gillette Stadium. Had five multiple-goal games, and netted five game-winning goals. Was awarded the Nickelodeon GAS Play of the Year for his bicycle kick goal against the Kansas City Wizards on June 22. Started all six of the Revs' MLS Cup Playoffs games in which he appeared. Had two tallies in the playoffs, and was second on the team in postseason points to Brian Kamler (six). Both of his goals came against Chicago in the Eastern Conference Semifinals (Game One and Game Three). Was voted the Midnight Riders' Man of the Year.

BEFORE MLS: Played two seasons with TSV 1860 Munich in Germany ... in 2001, he declined a two-year option with the club and entered the 2002 MLS SuperDraft ... appeared in more than 40 games for the club's reserve side, including qualifying games for the German Cup.

COLLEGE: Played two seasons at Maryland (1998-99) before signing a professional contract in Germany ... scored 28 career goals and added 17 assists for 73 career points in 43 games with the Terrapins ... left the Maryland program ranked 10th in career goals, sixth in career assists and seventh in career points after only two seasons ... was Soccer America's National Freshman of the Year in 1998 after earning a spot on the publication's All-Freshman Team ... was an NSCAA All-American as a sophomore, and was a two-time NSCAA All-South Atlantic and two-time All-ACC performer.

U.S. NATIONAL TEAM: Has earned 19 caps and scored five goals for the U.S. National Team as of March 1, 2007... an alternate selection to the U.S.'s 2006 FIFA World Cup squad ... tied with former Revs teammate Clint Dempsey as the USMNT's leading goal scorer in 2006 ... scored a hat trick in the USMNT's 5-0 win over Norway on Jan. 29, 2006 at The Home Depot Center in Carson, Calif., the ninth hat trick all-time for the U.S. ... was named ESPN2's Man of the Match after scoring the game-winning goal and providing two assists in a 3-2 U.S. National Team victory over Japan on Feb. 10, 2006 at SBC Park in San Francisco ... scored his first international goal on Oct. 12, 2005 at Gillette Stadium in the U.S.'s 2-0 victory over Panama in its final match of the qualifying cycle for the 2006 FIFA World Cup ... is a former member of the Under-20 program, and won the Bronze Boot at the 1999 FIFA World Youth Championship.

2007 REVIEWS:
WARREN

A pure shot-stopper, Warren employs cat-quick reflexes and experience to produce highlight-reel caliber saves ... provides a very capable backup option to Matt Reis ... displays a tireless mentality whether competing for the first team or the reserves ... Warren played collegiate soccer at Clemson and Indiana ... began his MLS career with D.C. United in 2003 and 2004 ... was a longtime member of the U.S. youth international programs.

2006: Did not see any first team action, but was the Revolution reserve squad's starting keeper. Started eight games for the reserves, posting one shutout - a 0-0 draw against Chivas USA on May 14 - while combining with T.J. Tomasso for a 0-0 draw against the Chicago Fire Reserves on Aug. 21. Made a season-high 13 saves against the Kansas City Reserves on Sept. 23.

2005: Traded to the Revolution from D.C. on Jan. 20 in exchange for the Revs' natural fourth-round selection in the 2006 MLS SuperDraft. Made his first-team debut for the Revs on Aug. 17 at Colorado, immediately facing a penalty kick after Matt Reis had been sent off for a foul on the Rapids' Fabrice Noel. Jean Philippe Peguero scored against Warren on the spot kick. Warren started his first match as a Rev on Aug. 27 vs. D.C. United, earning his first-ever MLS victory, recording four saves against his former club. Posted 4-3-3 record for Revolution Reserves with a 1.67 GAA and one shutout.

2004: Started one game for D.C. United - a 3-2 loss at the MetroStars on April 17 - before joining New England on July 10 from the MLS emergency goalkeeper pool after Revs goalkeeper Adin Brown was injured. He backed up Reis for the remainder of the season without making any appearances for the Revs.

2003: Drafted by D.C. in the second round (14th overall) in the 2003 MLS SuperDraft. Warren appeared in six games for D.C., starting five of those.
