NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (18-0) vs NEW YORK GIANTS (13-6)

Sunday, February 3, 2008 ★ University of Phoenix Stadium (70,500) ★ 6:00 p.m. EST

The Patriots will seek their fourth Super Bowl title in seven years when they face off against the New York Giants in Super Bowl XLII on Feb. 3. New England is making its sixth Super Bowl appearance in the last quarter-century, marking the highest total by any NFL team over that span.

WINNING WAYS

The Patriots have won 18 games in 2007, tying the NFL's all-time record for most overall victories in a season. New England joins the 1984 San Francisco 49ers and the 1985 Chicago Bears as the NFL's only 18-game winners. The Patriots have become the first franchise in NFL history to have at least three seasons of 17 or more overall wins, with this season's squad joining the 2003 and 2004 Patriots, who both won 17 total games. The San Francisco 49ers are the only other NFL team to have achieved the feat more than once.

PATRIOTS VS. GIANTS

SERIES HISTORY

The Patriots and Giants will meet for the ninth time since their series was inaugurated in 1970. The Patriots claim a 5-3 edge in regular-season play and have won four straight regular-season games against New York since 1996, including a victory in the 2007 regular-season finale on Dec. 29. The series dates back to 1970, the year of the AFL-NFL merger and includes some memorable games despite the relative infrequency of the matchups. In 1996, the Patriots stole a 23-22 win to clinch a playoff berth after trailing 22-3 in the fourth quarter. The first preseason game between the teams was the first NFL game played in Foxborough, as the Patriots opened Schaefer Stadium with a 20-14 win. The clubs have been frequent preseason opponents recently, squaring off in the preseason opener for three straight years from 2001-03 and in preseason finales for three straight seasons from 2005-07. The teams faced each other in the 2007 preseason finale at Gillette Stadium on Aug. 30, with the Patriots claiming a 27-20 victory.

THIRD TIME'S THE CHARM

Super Bowl XLII will mark the third time that the Patriots and Giants have met this season (at the third different venue). The teams met in the final preseason game and in the final regular season game of the season and will now meet in their final playoff game. The Patriots defeated the Giants 27-20 at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass. in the 2007 preseason finale on Aug. 30, and also beat New York 38-35 at Giants Stadium in E. Rutherford, N.J. in the 2007 regular-season finale on Dec. 29.

NEW ENGLAND TIES

In the decades leading up to the founding of the American Football League in 1960, many football fans in New England followed the Giants, a franchise founded in 1925. New England-based NFL outfits such as the Providence Steam Roller (1925-31), the Boston Redskins (1932-36) and the Boston Yanks (1944-48) folded or moved away, leaving the Giants as the closest NFL team to New England until the Patriots franchise inaugurated play in the 1960 season.

MEMORABLE PATRIOTS-GIANTS MATCHUPS

Aug. 15, 1971— The Patriots defeated the Giants 20-14 in the opening preseason game at the old Foxboro Stadium.

Dec. 21, 1996— The Patriots rallied from a 22-3 fourth-quarter deficit to clinch a first-round playoff bye with a 23-22 win at Giants Stadium.

Aug. 10, 2001— New England began its first Super Bowl championship season with a 14-0 preseason shutout of the defending NFC champion Giants.

Dec. 29, 2007— The Patriots defeat the Giants by a thrilling 38-35 score to cap off a 16-0 regular season.

PERFECT REGULAR SEASON

The 2007 Patriots are the fourth NFL team to win all of their regular season games since the league was founded in 1920. The Patriots are the first team to accomplish the feat since the NFL season expanded from 14 games to 16 games in 1978. New England joins the 1972 Dolphins as the only teams to accomplish the feat since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger and joins the 1972 Dolphins as the only teams in NFL history to complete an undefeated and untied regular season and also win a playoff game.

New England's 18 straight regular-season and playoff victories in 2007 represent the longest single-season winning streak in NFL history. The Patriots have also won 19 consecutive regular-season games dating back to a 40-7 win over the Houston Texans at Gillette Stadium on Dec. 17, 2006. New England's 19-game regular-season winning streak is also the longest in NFL history, eclipsing the Patriots' 18 consecutive regular-season wins from Oct. 5, 2003 to Oct. 24, 2004.

The decals depict the number 91, which Hill wore over three seasons with New England from 2004-06. Hill was selected by the Patriots in the second round of the 2004 NFL Draft and was a member of New England's Super Bowl XXXIX championship team.

ROBERT KRAFT: BUILDING SUCCESS

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports. In 14 seasons of ownership, Kraft has transformed one of the league's least successful clubs into what many observers view as a model NFL franchise. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund team, winning just 19 of 80 games (.311 pct.) and recording the worst record in the NFL over that span. When he bought the franchise on Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft announced his intention to bring a championship to New England, a tall order considering the team's previous success rate. But under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won eight division titles, five conference crowns and three Super Bowl championships. The Patriots are making their fifth Super Bowl appearance since Kraft purchased the team, a period during which no other NFL franchise has earned more than two Super Bowl berths.

A CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION

The Patriots and the San Antonio Spurs are the only teams from North America's four major professional sports leagues to have won three titles since 2001. Since 1994, the Patriots trail only the New York Yankees and San Antonio Spurs in having won three titles in the period since Robert Kraft purchased the team.

SELLOUT STREAK

In the early 1990s, the Patriots seemed destined for relocation until Robert Kraft's purchase of the team rejuvenated local interest. In 1991, the season ticket base was just 17,635, barely enough to support the club. Now, the season-ticket base stands at a capped total of 61,759 and more than 50,000 fans are on a waiting list. The Patriots have sold out 149 consecutive home games (dating back to the 1994 regular-season opener).

SUCCESS STORY

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have been one of the NFL's elite franchises. Over the first 14 years of Kraft's ownership, the Patriots own the NFL's highest win total, the league's highest winning percentage and have won more Super Bowl titles, more conference championships and more playoff games than any other NFL team.

Bill Belichick is in his 33rd season as an NFL coach and is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl titles in a four-year span. In the 2007 season, Belichick led the Patriots to the fourth undefeated and untied regular season in the NFL's 88-year history and the first since the NFL established a 16-game schedule in 1978. He has led the Patriots to the Super Bowl for the fourth time in seven seasons and has produced five straight AFC East titles and six division championships in the last seven seasons. Belichick's Patriots teams own the all-time NFL records for consecutive total victories (21 from 2003-04), consecutive regular-season victories (19 from 2006-07) and consecutive playoff victories (10 from 2001-05). Belichick owns the second best postseason record in NFL history (15-3) and is the winningest NFL head coach since 2001 (100-28). From 2003-04, he directed the Patriots to back-to-back Super Bowl titles while posting consecutive 17-win campaigns. Belichick has spent more seasons in the league than any other current NFL head coach, and in that time has been a part of five Super Bowl championship teams. His overall record of 105-39 with the Patriots gives him the most victories and the best winning percentage of any head coach in franchise history. Coach Belichick's overall career winning percentage of .628 (142-84-0) ranks fifth among the 18 NFL coaches with 140 or more wins. He trails only George Halas (324-151-31, .682), Don Shula (347-173-6, .666), Curly Lambeau (229-134-22, .631), and Joe Gibbs (171-101-0, .629).

PATRIOTS IN THE PLAYOFFS

New England has qualified for the playoffs 16 times in its 48-year history. The Patriots have earned 10 playoff berths in the 14 seasons since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, a dramatic contrast to the six total playoff berths that the team earned in its first 34 years of existence. New England has won 11 division crowns and has qualified as a Wild Card team on four occasions (1998, 1994, 1985 and 1976). The Patriots also qualified for the playoffs in 1982 as part of a 16-team tournament following a players' strike.

The Patriots won their three games by scores of 48-27 (at Dallas on Oct. 14), 49-28 (at Miami on Oct. 21) and 52-7 (vs. Washington on Oct. 28), totaling 149 points. Five Patriots are first-time All-Stars; Three Patriots offensive linemen are All-Stars for first time since 1966

Eight members of the New England Patriots have been selected to represent the Patriots and the AFC at the 2008 Pro Bowl in Honolulu on Feb. 10. The Patriots will send eight players to the Pro Bowl for the first time since 1985, and the team's eight Pro Bowlers tie the 1985 squad with the most Patriots Pro Bowl players since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. The Boston Patriots sent a team-record 11 players to the AFL All-Star Game on two occasions (1963 and 1966). Seven Patriots will be among the 22 starters on the 2008 AFC Pro Bowl squad.

Koppen, Light and Mankins comprise the first trio of Patriots offensive linemen to earn Pro Bowl honors in the same season since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. The three All-Star offensive linemen tie a team record also achieved when the Boston Patriots sent three offensive linemen to the 1966 AFL All-Star Game (C Jon Morris, T Tom Neville and G Len St. Jean). This season, New England allowed just 21 sacks, the fewest number of sacks allowed by the franchise in a full season in 30 years, dating back to a 17-sack performance in 1977. Additionally, the 2007 Patriots averaged 4.10 yards per rush, a mark that was the team's highest rushing average since 1985.

Tom Brady's four Pro Bowl selections are the most of any Patriots quarterback, topping the three All-Star selections of Drew Bledsoe (1994, 1996, 1997) and Vito "Babe" Parilli (1963, 1964, 1966). The two-time Super Bowl MVP also earned Pro Bowl nods in 2001, 2004 and 2005. Brady threw an NFL-record 50 touchdown passes in 2007. Brady was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month twice (September and October) and earned AFC Player of the Week honors five times.

Dan Koppen is the third center in Patriots history to earn All-Star honors, joining Damien Woody (2002) and Jon Morris (seven AFL All-Star Game appearances from 1964-70). The Boston College product is in his fifth season with the Patriots since being selected in the fifth round (164th overall) of the 2003 NFL Draft. He started 15 games this season.

Matt Light is the only Patriots player who will return to Hawaii for the second consecutive season, having earned his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2006. Light is one of four Patriots offensive tackles to earn All-Star selections since the 1970 merger, joining Patriots Hall of Famer Bruce Armstrong, Leon Gray and Brian Holloway. The Purdue University product is in his seventh season with the Patriots since being selected in the second round (48th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft. He started all 16 games this season.

Logan Mankins is the first Patriots guard to earn a Pro Bowl selection since 1985, when Pro Football Hall of Famer John Hannah went to his ninth career Pro Bowl. Mankins joins Hannah as the only Patriots guards to earn Pro Bowl bids since the 1970 merger. The Fresno State product is in his third season with the Patriots since being selected in the first round (32nd overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft. He started all 16 games this season and has never missed an NFL game, starting all 48 games of his career.

Randy Moss is the fourth Patriots wide receiver to earn a Pro Bowl selection since the 1970 merger, joining Stanley Morgan, Terry Glenn and Troy Brown. He will return to Hawaii for the sixth time, having also earned All-Star honors from 1998-2000 and from 2002-03. Moss set an NFL record with 23 touchdown receptions and set a new franchise record for receiving yards (1,493). Moss's 138 points scored led the NFL among non-kickers. Moss was the AFC's Offensive Player of the Month for November and earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors on two occasions.

Asante Samuel joins Pro Football Hall of Famer Mike Haynes, Ty Law and Raymond Clayborn as one of four Patriots cornerbacks to earn Pro Bowl honors since the 1970 merger. Since the beginning of the 2006 season, Samuel leads the NFL with 16 interceptions (Champ Bailey, 13) from 2005-07 recorded 58 passes defensed, a total that ties Bailey for the league lead over that span. He was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week following a two-interception performance against Philadelphia on Nov. 25, 2007.

Mike Vrabel is the seventh Patriots linebacker to earn a Pro Bowl nod since the merger and is the first New England linebacker to go to Hawaii since Tedy Bruschi earned the honor following the 2004 season. Vrabel is in his 11th year in the NFL and his seventh season with the Patriots. He led the Patriots with 12.5 sacks this season, tying the third highest single-season total in team history and recording the highest sack total by a Patriot in 20 years. Vrabel was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week following a game against Washington on Oct. 28 in which he recorded three strip-sacks, forcing fumbles that were recovered by the Patriots each time.

Vince Wilfork joins Richard Seymour as the only Patriots defensive tackles to be selected to a Pro Bowl since the 1970 merger. Wilfork started every game this season as part of a Patriots defense that ranked fourth in the NFL in yards allowed per game (288.3). The 288.3 yards per game allowed by the Patriots this season are the fewest for the franchise since allowing 270.2 yards per game in 1979. Wilfork is in his fourth season with the Patriots since being selected in the first round (21st overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft.

RUSHING SUCCESS

The Patriots had a 100-yard rushing performance in three straight games from Sept. 23 to Oct. 7, 2007, marking the first time since 1995 that they have had a player achieve the feat in three consecutive contests. The last time New England had a 100-yard rusher in three straight games was from Nov. 26 to Dec. 16, 1995, when Curtis Martin achieved the feat three straight times.

WATSON: RED ZONE THREAT

Tight end BENJAMIN WATSON finished third on the team with a career-high six touchdown receptions in 2007. He scored touchdowns in four of the Patriots' first five games and caught a scoring pass in six of nine regular season games from Nov. 19, 2006 to Oct. 7, 2007. On Oct. 7 against Cleveland, Watson led the Patriots with a career-high 107 yards on six receptions, totaling the first 100-yard game of his career. STALLWORTH HAULS IN 69-YARD TD PASS

DONTE' STALLWORTH caught a 69-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady against Dallas on Oct. 14, the longest completion of the season for the Patriots. Stallworth's 69-yard play was the longest play from scrimmage for the Patriots this season. Stallworth's catch was the biggest play in his first 100-yard game in a Patriots uniform as he totaled 136 yards on seven catches (19.4 avg.) against the Cowboys. The yardage total is the second highest of Stallworth's six-year career, trailing only his career-high 139 receiving yards (on six catches), for Philadelphia on Nov. 12, 2006 against Washington. Stallworth finished third on the team with 697 receiving yards in 2007.

Vrabel tied his single-game career high with 3.0 sacks on Oct. 28 against Washington, and on each of his sacks caused Redskins signal caller Jason Campbell to fumble, creating three turnovers that resulted in 17 points for New England in its 52-7 win. Vrabel leads the team with four strip-sacks in 2007, with his other strip-sack coming in the fourth quarter against the New York Jets on Sept. 9. Since joining the Patriots prior to the 2001 season, Vrabel has 12 regular-season strip-sacks (four in 2003, one in 2005, three in 2006, four in 2007) and three in the playoffs (one in 2003, 2004, and 2006).

NOTABLE QUOTES

WR Randy Moss on playing for the Patriots
"I'm very blessed and fortunate to be in this position to be able to go out and do what I love to do, and that's play football. There's certain things in life that you don't want to pass up, and this was an opportunity that I didn't want to pass up. Becoming a New England Patriot and playing some real heads up championship caliber football not only towards the end of the season, at the beginning, the middle, and the end."
– Postgame Press Conference, Dec. 29, 2007

QB Tom Brady on throwing an NFL-record 50 TD passes
"I'm just proud of the way we played, and more than any individual record, which to me is just not as important as what I've experienced in the last seven years and what I experienced tonight. I love throwing 50 touchdowns because that means we scored 50 times and we scored a bunch of other touchdowns to break other scoring records so that's cool for the offense to share in that. The defense, too, because that plays a lot of credit into the defense for the way they're getting us the football. Those are all great achievements and I'm just excited to be part of them."
– Postgame Press Conference, Dec. 29, 2007

Head Coach Bill Belichick on what it feels like to have gone undefeated in the regular season
"It's a great feeling and now is the time to take a day or two and appreciate what this team has done, but at the same time we have our biggest game of the year coming up and we are going to have to be ready for that."
– Postgame Press Conference, Dec. 29, 2007

Head Coach Bill Belichick on the Patriots' game-by-game preparation
"I think we approach every week as it's own entity. I don't think our record means anything as far as this week goes. I don't think it will mean anything as far as any other week goes. We just try to take each week at face value, for what it is, where our team is, where our opponent is, how we can maximize the opportunity we have to prepare and then play as well as we can competitively on Sunday."
–Press Conference, Oct. 22, 2007

LB Tedy Bruschi on the undefeated regular season
"How does it feel when you've done something that's never been done before? I just know there is a really great sense of accomplishment in this locker room in every single player, from the guys who cover kicks to the guys who threw touchdown passes. It took everybody to accomplish this goal, every single person on this team, every single coach, and we're going to take a couple of days to be proud of this accomplishment."
--The Boston Globe (Christopher L. Gasper), Dec. 30, 2007

S Rodney Harrison on the hype surrounding the team
"We don't get caught up in that cat and mouse game. The games aren't won or lost through the media. They're won or lost on Sunday and that's what we focus on."
--Postgame Locker Room, Dec. 9, 2007

QB Tom Brady on Coach Belichick
"I've been playing for him for eight years and he's never wrong. Usually, we come in Monday morning and look at the evaluations and if we do the things that he really talked about, usually we come out ahead. He's a great leader and he's a great coach to play for. We all believe in him and we trust him. He always says that he makes decisions based on the best interest of the team. He truly means that."
--Press Conference, Oct. 31, 2007

QB Tom Brady on his competitive nature
"I try to win every single time I take the field. Every time I try to win in backgammon. I try to win in cards. I try to win driving to the bubble when we practice in the bubble."
--Locker Room Interview, Nov. 14, 2007

WR Randy Moss on playing for the Patriots
"I come to work every day. I love seeing the guys. I love the camaraderie in the locker room. I love going to practice every day. We have fun."
--Postgame Press Conference, Oct. 14, 2007

Hall of Fame Head Coach John Madden on the Patriots offense and QB Tom Brady
"It's the best offense I've ever seen. Tom Brady is playing the position of quarterback, right now, better than I've ever seen anyone play it in my history. Where they go as the best team, I think offensively they are right there. I think the best offensive teams that won were probably the San Francisco 49ers, in my mind, and I think this [offense] -- the way they're playing right now -- is probably better. Again, I put the whole thing together with the offensive line and the receivers and the quarterback and everything."
--NBC Sports Conference Call, Nov. 20, 2007

Hall of Fame QB Joe Montana on Tom Brady
"Right now you look at him and he's in such a zone. He has so much confidence in his own abilities, it's hard to stop. When you reach that point, it's difficult for a defense to get you out of there, especially when you're on a team with as many weapons as the Patriots."
--Boston Herald (John Tomase), Oct. 10, 2007

Hall of Fame QB Joe Montana on Randy Moss
"Someone like Randy makes your whole team better and takes you to another level, just like Jerry [Rice] did for us."
--Boston Herald (John Tomase), Oct. 10, 2007

Hall of Fame Head Coach Marv Levy on the 2007 Patriots
"They are the best I have seen in a long, long time."
--Boston Globe (Reid Laymance), Nov. 19, 2007

Hall of Fame QB Troy Aikman on the 2007 Patriots
"[Bill] Belichick and personnel guru Scott Pioli have assembled a great group of smart, tough, talented players who fit the schemes. They're focused, they're united, they're confident -- and they're playing at a level that I've never seen executed over such a large chunk of the season. Shoot, they've gotten better as the season has progressed."
--SportingNews.com, Nov. 14, 2007

Head Coach Bill Belichick on Randy Moss
"As a head coach, [I've] never had a better receiver than Randy. I've been on teams that have had a lot of other good receivers, but he's very good and he's been good for this football team. He's added a lot. He's brought a lot of leadership as well as play-making ability and a lot of versatility to our football team. I'm glad we have him. I don't know about ranking anything. I don't know about all that, but I'm glad he's on our team. I'm glad he's playing for us."
–Press Conference, Nov. 20, 2007

Head Coach Bill Belichick on Mike Vrabel
"I think Mike's been a good consistent football player for us for several years now and he's done it again this year. He's smart, he's tough, he's in good condition, he's strong, he's well-prepared. It's like having a coach on the field out there. He's a very good communicator, picks up offensive tenancies and is very adept at those types of things, making adjustments and playing good situational football. He's been good at that for awhile; he's been good at it this year."
–Press Conference, Nov. 20, 2007

PATRIOTS TV RATINGS

PATRIOTS GAMES MAKE NATIONAL AND LOCAL TV RATINGS HISTORY

Patriots games are four highest-rated games of 2007 NFL regular season

Patriots-Giants game on Dec. 29 is highest-rated regular-season game in Boston market and attracts more national viewers than any NFL game since 1995

While the New England Patriots continue to set records on the field, they are also attracting television viewers at a historic rate.

The New England Patriots' 27-24 victory over the Baltimore Ravens on ESPN on Monday, Dec. 3 was seen by 17,522,000 viewers according to Nielsen Media Research, making it the most-watched program in cable television history. The number of viewers for the game surpassed the 17,241,000 viewers who watched High School Musical 2 on the Disney Channel on Aug. 17, 2007. That program held the previous record for the largest cable television audience.

Until the NFL playoffs began, Patriots games were the four most-watched TV programs of any kind since the 2007-08 television season began on Sept. 24. The Patriots-Giants game on Dec. 29 was seen by 34.5 million people nationwide, making it the most-watched TV program of the 2007-08 television season at the time (and the most-watched NFL game since 35.7 million people watched the Dallas-Kansas City game on Thanksgiving, 1995). New England's 24-20 win over the Indianapolis Colts on Nov. 4 was seen by 33.8 million people on CBS, the Patriots-Steelers game on Dec. 9 was seen by 30.3 million people on CBS and the Patriots' 48-27 victory over the Dallas Cowboys on Oct. 14 was seen by 29.1 million people on CBS.

At any given point during the Patriots-Colts game on Nov. 4, 33.8 million viewers were watching, making it the largest national audience for a Sunday afternoon regular-season NFL game since CBS began keeping records in 1987. In all, 66.4 million people watched at least six minutes of the Patriots-Colts game.

The Patriots-Cowboys game also earned a historically high rating, although its records were eclipsed by the Patriots-Colts game the next month. The 18.5 rating earned by the Patriots-Cowboys game was at the time the highest-rated regular-season NFL game on CBS since the network resumed televising NFL games in 1998.

Additionally, the Patriots-Steelers game on Dec. 9 earned an 18.0 rating. The Patriots' games against the New York Giants, Indianapolis, Pittsburgh and Dallas were the four highest-rated NFL regular-season games this season on any network.

The Patriots-Ravens game on Dec. 3 earned an 11.1 rating, making it the highest-rated Monday Night Football game on ESPN and the highest-rated NFL game on ESPN in 12 years. The Patriots-Ravens game broke the previous ESPN Monday night record (10.6 rating) achieved by the Dallas Cowboys-New York Giants game on Oct. 23, 2006. The 11.1 rating for the Patriots-Ravens game was the highest-rated NFL game on ESPN since Dec. 3, 1995, when a Buffalo-San Francisco game garnered a 12.8 rating.

The Patriots-Giants game on Dec. 29 earned a 50.1 rating (75 share) in the Boston market, making it the highest-rated regular-season Patriots game in history in the Boston market. The rating represents a combined figure from an unprecedented four-way telecast in which the game was seen in Boston on NFL Network, WBZ-TV Channel 4 (CBS), WCVB-TV Channel 5 (ABC) and WHDH-TV Channel 7 (NBC). The game's 75 share meant that at any given point during the game, 75 percent of the TVs in the Boston market that were on were tuned in to the Patriots game.

The Patriots-Jets Game on Dec. 16 earned a 40.4 rating (62 share) in the Boston market, making it the highest-rated 1:00 p.m. regular-season Patriots game in history in the Boston market. The game was the third highest rated regular-season Patriots game in team history in the Boston market, trailing only the Patriots-Dolphins game on Dec. 7, 2003 (43.8 rating, 61 share) and the Giants game on Dec. 29, 2007.

TOP TELEVISION RATINGS

Patriots games averaged more than a 50 share for the sixth straight season, meaning that more than half of all televisions that were on during Patriots games were tuned in to the game. The Patriots had a share of 50 or higher in 13 of their 16 games during the regular season.
