

PATRIOTS VS. BILLS

SERIES HISTORY

This week, the Patriots and Bills will meet for the 97th time since the series between the AFC East rivals began in 1960. The Patriots lead the series 55-40, with one tie. The Patriots' 55 wins over Buffalo are their most over any opponent, six more than they own over the New York Jets (49). New England has won nine straight games in the series and has won 14 of its last 15 games against Buffalo dating back to the 2000 season.

The Patriots have swept the season series from the Bills in four straight years and have achieved the feat six of the last seven years. The Patriots have dominated the series in recent years as four of their last five victories have come by 22 points or more. The Patriots own a perfect 6-0 record against the Bills at Gillette Stadium. The Patriots beat the Bills last season at Gillette Stadium by a 38-7 score. The teams have had many memorable matchups over the years, including a five-game span from 1999 to 2001 where four of the five contests were decided in overtime.

The results of the first 96 games between the Patriots and the Bills can be found on page 275 of the 2008 Patriots Media Guide.

SERIES SUCCESS

The Patriots have won nine straight games against the Bills, establishing their third longest regular-season winning streak against an opponent. The longest winning streak against any opponent in team history came against Buffalo, with the Patriots winning 11 straight games in the series from the 1982 season finale until the final month of the 1987 season. New England's current nine-game winning streak against Buffalo is tied for the third longest current winning streak against an opponent in the NFL, trailing only the 10 straight wins by Pittsburgh over Cleveland and the 10 straight wins by San Diego over Oakland.

PATRIOTS – BILLS QUICK HITS

- The Patriots have recorded 55 wins over the Bills, the most by the Patriots against any one opponent.
- New England has won nine straight games against Buffalo and has swept the season series in each of the last four seasons.
- The Nov. 9 meeting is the latest the division rivals have met for the first game of their season series since 1998.
- The Patriots have defeated the Bills 14 times in the last 15 games between the teams – a feat never before achieved in franchise history against any opponent.
- The Patriots defense has held the Bills to a touchdown or less in five of the last eight games between the teams.
- Bill Belichick holds a 14-3 career record against Buffalo, including a 14-2 record as head coach of the Patriots.
- The Patriots and Bills have played in 19 games decided by three points or fewer since 1972.
- Since 1993, the two teams have played five overtime games, good for a total of 51:49 of extra time, almost equaling an entire game.

PASSING PERFORMANCES

Matt Cassel is slated to start against the Buffalo Bills for the first time. Cassel played against the Bills the last time the two teams squared off on Nov. 18, 2007. Cassel entered the game on New England's final drive of the game and completed two passes for 10 yards to help close out the Patriots' 56-10 victory.

PATRIOTS VS. BILLS

THE LAST TIME: PATRIOTS 56, BILLS 10

November 18, 2007 ★ Ralph Wilson Stadium (Att: 71,338)

	1	2	3	4	Final
New England Patriots	14	21	7	14	— 56
Buffalo Bills	7	0	3	0	— 10

The Patriots tied their single-game franchise scoring record in a 56-10 victory over the Buffalo Bills in Orchard Park, N.Y. Randy Moss's franchise-record four touchdown receptions led the way for the Patriots offensively as New England totaled 510 total net yards – its highest total since 1979. New England scored touchdowns on each of its first seven offensive possessions.

The Patriots got on the board first, when an interception by Randall Gay set up a 2-play, 13-yard drive that ended in Laurence Maroney's first touchdown run of the season and a 7-0 New England lead. The Patriots extended their lead to 14-0 with 8:04 left in the first quarter when Tom Brady hit Moss for a 43-yard score. The Bills responded by marching 82 yards on eight plays to cut the lead to 14-7 on a 47-yard touchdown pass from J.P. Losman to Roscoe Parrish. But on the first play of the second quarter, the Patriots struck again when Brady found Moss for a 16-yard score and a 21-7 Patriots lead. Moss added two more touchdown catches in the quarter to give New England a 35-7 halftime advantage.

The Patriots got the ball to begin the second half and marched 73 yards in 12 plays to take a 42-7 lead on a Brady touchdown pass to Benjamin Watson. A 52-yard field goal by Buffalo's Rian Lindell made the score 42-10 entering the fourth quarter. The Patriots raised their advantage to 49-10 on a 1-yard run by rookie Kyle Eckel on the first play of the final quarter. Two plays later, James Sanders forced Buffalo receiver Dwayne Wright to fumble and Ellis Hobbs scooped up the loose ball and ran 35 yards for a touchdown and a 56-10 Patriots advantage.

THIS WEEK IN PATRIOTS HISTORY

Forty-Three Years Ago: Nov. 7, 1975: Former Patriots President William H. Sullivan, Jr. became the first majority owner in club history when he purchased additional voting stock to give him 88 percent of the franchise's voting stock.

Two Years Ago: Nov. 5, 2006: Troy Brown grabs his 535th career reception, in a game against the Indianapolis Colts, passing Stanley Morgan (534 receptions) to become the Patriots' all-time receptions leader.

One Year Ago: Nov. 4, 2007 Tom Brady throws his 33rd touchdown pass of the season, setting a franchise record in a 24-20 victory over Indianapolis Colts. The game between the 7-0 Patriots and the 8-0 Colts was the latest matchup of undefeated teams in NFL history.

PRO BOWL BALLOTING UNDERWAY

NFL Pro Bowl balloting runs from Oct. 13 through Dec. 9. Fans may vote for their favorite NFL players to represent the AFC and NFC in the 2009 Pro Bowl in Honolulu on Sunday, Feb. 8. Fans may vote online at nfl.com/probowl or on Web-enabled mobile phones by going to NFL.com. The AFC and NFC All-Star squads are determined by the consensus votes of fans, players and coaches. Each group's vote counts one-third towards determining each conference's 43-man roster. NFL players and coaches will cast their votes on Dec. 11-12. The Pro Bowl teams will be announced at 4:00 p.m. EST on Tuesday, Dec. 16 in a Pro Bowl Selection Show on NFL Network.

LAST WEEK: COLTS 18, PATRIOTS 15

COLTS 18, PATRIOTS 15

November 2, 2008 ★ Lucas Oil Stadium (Att: 66,508)

	1	2	3	4	Final
New England Patriots	0	6	6	3	— 15
Indianapolis Colts	7	0	8	3	— 18

The Patriots dropped a tight game on the road to the Indianapolis Colts, falling 18-15 after a game-winning 52-yard field goal by Indianapolis in the fourth quarter that broke a 15-15 tie. The Patriots came from behind to tie or take the lead twice in the game. After falling behind 7-0, the Patriots rallied to take a 12-7 lead in the third quarter. The Colts then regained the lead (15-12) with a touchdown, before New England tied the game at 15 early in the final quarter. Despite the loss, the Patriots outgained the Colts 342-301 and outrushed Indianapolis 140-47. Matt Cassel completed 73.5 percent of his passes (25-for-34) and the Patriots rushing attack, led by Kevin Faulk and BenJarvus Green-Ellis, averaged 4.4 yards per carry (140 yards on 32 rushes).

PATRIOTS OWN BEST 100-GAME STRETCH IN NFL HISTORY

Entering the Colts game, the Patriots had won 82 of their last 100 games (including playoffs). New England's 81-18 record in those 100 games was the best record by any team over any 100-game stretch in NFL history, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. Three teams (Green Bay, Pittsburgh and San Francisco) are tied for the second best 100-game stretch, with each having gone 79-21 over various 100-game spans. The Patriots' most recent 100-game stretch leading into the Colts game began with a 31-10 win over the Philadelphia Eagles on Sept. 14, 2003.

WELKER TIES RECORD FOR MOST GAMES WITH SIX OR MORE CATCHES TO OPEN SEASON

On a 10-yard reception in the fourth quarter – his sixth catch of the game – Wes Welker tied the NFL record for most games with six or more receptions to begin a season. Welker has had six or more receptions in each of the Patriots' eight games this season and ties the NFL record established by Jacksonville's Jimmy Smith in 2001.

EVEN STEPHEN

Stephen Gostkowski hit three field goals -- a 29-yard field goal in the second quarter to cut the Colts' lead to 7-3 and a 35-yard kick later in the quarter to cut the lead to 7-6 and a 25-yarder in the fourth quarter to tie the game at 15. The kicks raised Gostkowski to 19-for-20 (95 percent) on field goals this season. Following his boots against the Colts, Gostkowski had nailed 26 of his last 27 kicks (96.3 percent) dating back to last season. Gostkowski is the Patriots' all-time leader in field goal percentage, hitting 60-of-70 kicks (85.7 percent) since being selected by the Patriots in the fourth round of the 2006 NFL Draft.

GREEN-ELLIS SCORES FOR THIRD STRAIGHT WEEK

Rookie running back BenJarvus Green-Ellis gave the Patriots a 12-7 lead on a 6-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. The scoring run was Green-Ellis's third of the season, the third of his career and his third in as many weeks, having also scored against Denver on Oct. 29 and against St. Louis on Oct. 26. Green-Ellis, who was originally signed by the Patriots in the offseason as an undrafted rookie free agent out of Mississippi, was signed to New England's active roster on Oct. 11. He has now scored a touchdown in three of his four professional games.

QUICK HITS

- Kelley Washington tackled Colts punt returner Marvin Harrison at the Indianapolis 9-yard line in the first quarter after just a 2-yard punt return, helping the Patriots to net 62 yards on a 64-yard Chris Hanson punt.
- Mike Vrabel tripped up Joseph Addai in the backfield for a 1-yard loss on third down in the second quarter, forcing a Colts punt on the next play.
- Kevin Faulk completed a pass to Wes Welker for a 2-yard loss in the second quarter. The completion was the second of Faulk's career, and came on his fourth career passing attempt (and his first since 2003). Faulk's only career completion prior to the Colts game came on a 23-yard completion to Tom Brady in 2001.
- Richard Seymour and Mike Vrabel combined to stop Joseph Addai for a 2-yard loss on first-and-goal in the third quarter.
- The Patriots outgained the Colts in total net yardage, 342-301.
- The Patriots outrushed the Colts 140-47.
- Jerod Mayo, the NFL's defensive rookie of the month for October, led the Patriots with 11 tackles (8 solo).

SWAT TEAM

Terrence Wheatley knocked down a Peyton Manning pass intended for Marvin Harrison on third down on the Colts' first possession of the game, forcing an Indianapolis three-and-out as the Colts punted on the next play.

FAULK BREAKS 3,000-YARD RECEIVING MARK

On an 11-yard reception in the second quarter, Kevin Faulk recorded his 3,000th receiving yard, becoming the 14th player in Patriots history to break the 3,000 receiving yard mark. Following his 11-yard catch against the Colts, Faulk had 3,003 career receiving yards – a total that ranks 14th in team history. Faulk is the Patriots' all-time leader in receptions by a running back, and his 348 receptions rank fifth in team history.

PENALTY-FREE STREAK BROKEN

The Patriots were called for a false start penalty in the third quarter, breaking a streak of seven penalty-free quarters. Prior to the third-quarter false start, the last time the Patriots were penalized was in the third quarter against Denver on Oct. 20. On Oct. 26 against St. Louis, the Patriots played the first penalty-free game in franchise history.

ROBERT KRAFT NEWS & NOTES

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports. In 14 seasons of ownership, Kraft has transformed one of the league's least successful clubs into what many observers view as a model NFL franchise. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund team, winning just 19 of 80 games (.311 pct.) and recording the worst record in the NFL over that span. When he bought the franchise on Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft announced his intention to bring a championship to New England, a tall order considering the team's previous success rate. But under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won eight division titles, five conference crowns and three Super Bowl championships. The Patriots have made five Super Bowl appearances since Kraft purchased the team, a period during which no other NFL franchise has earned more than two Super Bowl berths.

A CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION

The Patriots and the San Antonio Spurs are the only teams from North America's four major professional sports leagues to have won three titles since 2001. Since 1994, the Patriots trail only the New York Yankees and San Antonio Spurs in having won three titles in the period since Robert Kraft purchased the team.

SELLOUT STREAK

In the early 1990s, the Patriots seemed destined for relocation until Robert Kraft's purchase of the team rejuvenated local interest. In 1991, the season ticket base was just 17,635, barely enough to support the club. Now, the season-ticket base stands at a capped total of 61,759 and more than 50,000 fans are on a waiting list. The Patriots have sold out 155 consecutive home games (dating back to the 1994 regular-season opener).

SUCCESS STORY

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have been one of the NFL's elite franchises. Over the first 14-plus years of Kraft's ownership, the Patriots own the NFL's highest win total, the league's highest winning percentage and have won more Super Bowl titles, more conference championships and more playoff games than any other NFL team.

BILL BELICHICK NEWS & NOTES

THE HEAD COACH

Overall Record: 147-88 (.626)
Regular Season: 132-84 (.611)
Postseason: 15-4 (.789)
With Patriots overall: 110-43 (.719)
Overall since 2001: 105-32 (.766)
Super Bowl Titles: 5 (86, 90, 01, 03, 04)
Conf. Titles: 7 (86, 90, 96, 01, 03, 04, 07)
Division Titles: 13 (75, 78, 86, 89, 90, 96, 98, 01, 03, 04, 05, 06, 07)

Bill Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl titles in a four-year span. Over the Patriots' last 100 games, Belichick has directed the team to an 81-19 record, marking the best 100-game span for any team in NFL history. In the 2007 season, Belichick led the Patriots to the fourth undefeated and untied regular season in the NFL's 88-year history and the first since the NFL established a 16-game schedule in 1978. He has led the Patriots to the Super Bowl four times in the last seven seasons and has produced five straight AFC East titles and six division championships in the last seven seasons. Belichick's Patriots teams own the all-time NFL records for consecutive total victories (21 from 2003-04), consecutive regular-season victories (21 from 2006-08) and consecutive playoff victories (10 from 2001-05). Belichick owns the second best postseason record in NFL history (15-4) and is the winningest NFL head coach since 2001 (105-32). From 2003-04, he directed the Patriots to back-to-back Super Bowl titles while posting consecutive 17-win campaigns. Belichick has spent more seasons in the league than any other current NFL head coach, and in that time has been a part of five Super Bowl championship teams. His overall record of 110-43 with the Patriots gives him the most victories and the best winning percentage of any head coach in franchise history.

ELITE COMPANY

Bill Belichick is one of nine NFL head coaches to win three or more championships since the league began postseason play in 1933. With the Patriots' victory in Super Bowl XXXIX, Belichick joined an exclusive club in which each of the eight other members has been enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

AMONG THE GREATS

Coach Belichick has recorded a career winning percentage of .626 as a head coach, placing him fourth in NFL history among all NFL coaches with at least 145 career victories. Belichick trails only George Halas (.671), Don Shula (.665) and Joe Gibbs (.629) on that list. Among coaches who began their head coaching careers after the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, Belichick ranks second in league history among coaches with at least 145 career wins.

TOP WINNING PERCENTAGE AMONG HEAD COACHES WITH AT LEAST 145 WINS (INCL. POSTSEASON)

Head Coach	Team(s)	Years	W	L	T	Pct.
George Halas	CHI	1920-29,33-41,46-55,58-67	324	151	31	.671

COACH BELICHICK ON...

Coach Belichick on Matt Cassel, Oct. 27

I think Matt is really progressing in all areas - his decision-making, his reads in coverages [and] his pocket presence. Not that we are cutting anything back but we are building offensively as any team would in the seventh week of the regular season relative to the first week of the season, relative to the 14th week of the season. You build things not just with your quarterback but with your entire offensive, or defensive, or special teams unit. You add plays, you add wrinkles, you do complimentary things and so that has been a part of it too. I think Matt's improved in a lot of areas in his game. As have a lot of other players as they have played more. His pocket presence, his decision making, reading the coverages, going to secondary receivers, reminding guys offensively about their splits or their depths - just part of the overall operation of offense is better than it was two months ago.

Coach Belichick on Heath Evans, Sept. 19

He's a just good all around player. He does a lot of things for us and does a lot of things well. He's a bigger guy that can hold up against bigger people in pass protection. As a run blocker, he runs the ball effectively as a power back. He plays in the kicking game on the coverage teams and also on the return teams. He's a smart guy with some versatility and he does a lot of different roles for us. He's been our third down back in the past when Kevin [Faulk] wasn't available. He's really done a lot of fullback, halfback and special teams. He's been a very versatile player for us. He's another dependable guy that works hard and he's a smart kid. He's got very good playing strength. He's a strong player.

Coach Belichick on Kevin Faulk, Oct. 26

Kevin is a good football player and you are right he has made a lot of plays since I have been here and before. He has been a very dependable and consistent player. It seems like you can always count on Kevin no matter what phase of the game it is in. Whether it is returning kicks, blocking, pass protection, catching, running, two point plays [or] being on the goal line. He is a clutch player and he is a good player. He does a lot of things well and I think he is a guy that we all have a lot of confidence in around here - coaches, players, quarterbacks, the whole football team. He comes to work everyday. He is one of the best team players we have. He is all about our football team whatever he can do to help us win he'd do - mop the floors, he'd mop them. Like Troy Brown, you just can't say enough about a guy like Kevin Faulk.

Coach Belichick on Jabar Gaffney, Sept. 3

I think he is appreciated around here by the coaching staff, the offensive coaches, the players and the quarterback. He is a very versatile player. He does a lot of different things for us. I don't think there is any way for someone outside this organization to understand how versatile a player he is and how much he patches together, in one way or another, on different plays and formations. He is smart, versatile and a good receiver that has been effective in a lot of different situations - man, zone, red area, third down. He has a good skill set and is a very flexible player that helps our offense in many different ways - some subtle and some not so subtle. He is one of the bonding agents that holds things together.

Coach Belichick on Stephen Gostkowski, Oct. 6

Steve's been kicking the ball very well in all situations - kickoffs and all the field goal and extra point situations. Not only is he hitting them straight, but with good elevation, get-off time and good hang time on the kickoff. I think he's really done a good job in every opportunity he's had here in the past four games. He's been outstanding - he really has.

Coach Belichick on BenJarvus Green-Ellis, Oct. 29

I think he has gained everybody's confidence through his preseason play and his hard work. Anytime a guy doesn't get a lot of snaps then you put him in there and he does well on those few opportunities, you really respect that because of the 100 plays that could be called you pick out four or five and if he knows those with not too many repetitions than that gives you confidence that he is studying, that he is on top of it. I think Ben did that a lot in the preseason games where he didn't get a lot of plays in practice but whether it is blitz pickup or routes, or reads in the running game he showed that he could pick things up quickly and that led to his eventual promotion from the practice squad to the roster and opportunity to play and he has done that when he has been in the game. He still has a lot to learn, he is a young kid but he is tough and has done a good job in the opportunities that he's had and that is a real credit to him because he pays attention, he is up on all the little things and when something comes up most of the time he's pretty on top of it for the amount of reps he has had.

Coach Belichick on Gary Guyton, Oct. 10

I don't think [Gary] he has missed anything at all - not a practice, not a snap. He works hard. He is a smart kid and he has some versatility. He keeps getting better every single day on special teams, on defense, in the passing game and in the running game. We give him different assignments and things to do and he handles it well. He's had opportunities to play and he's been pretty productive in the preseason, [against San Francisco] on defense, and on special teams - he made a real good tackle on a kickoff return. He's one of those kids that works hard and keeps on getting better. As long as he does that I am sure his playing time will increase and he will get more opportunities. He continues to take advantage of them.

Coach Belichick on LaMont Jordan, Aug. 12

Every player has their own set of skills. I think LaMont has a good set. He is a powerful guy, has some quickness and catches the ball well. He has good speed, he is not a track guy, but he has competitive speed, good quickness and can get through the hole. He breaks tackles. He has some things going for him.

Coach Belichick on Jerod Mayo, Sept. 19

He's been very consistent. He's learning something every time he walks out onto the field both in practice and in the games. There are things that Jerod [Mayo] hasn't, that every rookie hasn't, seen before. Things that are a little bit different than the situation in practice. [Things] that we went through in practice, he learns from those, improves on them the next time and they're usually not problems. I think he's gaining a little more experience and reacting a little bit quicker each time he goes out on the field. He works awfully hard at it. He is a very attentive and detailed young man.

Coach Belichick on Brandon Meriweather, Oct. 22

I think his awareness, his preparation, his overall decision making and recognition of what is going on and the quarterbacks and their tendencies, all of those things have improved significantly and he works hard at it. Brandon works hard at the preparation and I think that has paid off. Even though teams run the same patterns, who is running them and who is throwing them is different. So sometimes you want to play them differently. The plays he has made on the deep ball this season, he has been really productive back there.

COACH BELICHICK ON...

Coach Belichick on Deltha O'Neal, Oct. 8

Deltha's a smart guy. He's got a lot of experience. He's worked hard. He's picked up our system. I obviously wish that he would've been there through training camp to get all of the little things, but he's certainly worked hard to accelerate the learning and the communication, the adjustments, and all those kinds of things that we have to do defensively in the secondary. He's got a good work ethic. He's an experienced player. He understands concepts and he's an instinctive player. He's put it together pretty quickly. It's been really impressive really.

Coach Belichick on James Sanders, Oct. 22

James has come a long way as a player. He improved as a rookie but I think he dramatically improved after his second year after the Denver game [on Sept. 24, 2006] in his communication and his understanding of the passing game. I think when he came into the league he was a real good special teams player, real good physical player, real good tackler, real good in the running game. I think he has really developed in the passing game - coverages, techniques, understand coverages, how to organize the coverages in the secondary.

Coach Belichick on Lewis Sanders, Aug. 4

Lewis is working hard. He is another guy that has had a lot of different responsibilities for us in the kicking game, playing both corner and safety defensively. He's got good experience in a couple different systems so I don't think anything he is doing here is anything that new. It is just a question on some new terminology or adapting it to a different situation but he is an experienced guy and he keeps showing up. He shows up with a play or two everyday and he is a hard working guy.

Coach Belichick on Richard Seymour, Aug. 13

I think Richard has [tipped as many passes and disrupted the quarterback] as well as anybody. Year in and year out, he has tipped more balls than anybody around here and more than anyone I have coached. He is tall and has long arms. He is athletic, can jump and has a good sense of timing of when to try and get in the throwing lane, when to keep rushing the quarterback and attack the blocker. He is probably as good as you are going to get at that.

Coach Belichick on Matthew Slater, Aug. 4

Matthew is a smart kid. We have been working him at some different spots since he has gotten here in all three phases of the game. We will see how that all comes together but he is a smart guy that has a good set of skills.

Coach Belichick on Adalius Thomas, Aug. 13

Adalius is a smart guy who works hard. He has played in multiple positions in our defense. Last year at this time he was playing inside, getting some reps outside, involved in different things in the sub defense, playing off and on the line, playing in coverage and playing as part of the pass rush. He has a lot of experience from doing different things. He has a lot of game situations under his belt. I think he has really become one of the leaders on defense, not that he wasn't last year but more so going into his second year. Going into his second year he knows more of what he is doing as opposed to feeling like 'I have to learn this and learn that.' I am not saying he doesn't have anything to learn; we all have more to learn. He is a lot further ahead than he was last year. He has been very positive in his work ethic and with helping some of the younger linebackers like Shawn [Crawley], Vince [Redd], Pierre [Woods] and those guys. He really stepped up and gave a lot of leadership and good work ethic to the entire unit. He has done well and we are glad to have him.

Coach Belichick on David Thomas, Aug. 19

The bad news for David [Thomas] was '07. The good news was he really got off to a good start in '08. Kind of getting off to a good start, he's been able to maintain that momentum and the start there in the spring has carried over in the training camp and the preseason ... David works hard. He works hard at everything. He's a very competitive kid. He's smart. He knows how to use his strengths, leverage and position to his advantage. He competes hard. He has good playing strength and good quickness. He has done a good job with that.

Coach Belichick on Ray Ventrone, Sept. 15

No one has worked harder than Ray. He's just continued to improve the last couple years. He has good playing strength. He has good speed and he's a tough, fearless guy. He will throw his body in there, anywhere, in any situation. He has good concentration, like we saw in preseason, catching the ball - taking hits in traffic, hanging onto it and running with it after the catch. He's really been able to develop as an offensive and a defensive player, as well as, his role in the kicking game. That's kind of self-contained. But, on offense and defense he's been able to work into roles on those sides of the ball and actually take reps in both areas on a pretty consistent basis. He's kind of a unique player in his role, his niche and his versatility. You usually don't see a player have the kind of exceptional toughness and the kind of physical play that he does - that does all that. That's kind of a rare combination of forces coming together in his skill set.

Coach Belichick on Mike Vrabel, Oct. 8

Mike's one of our most consistent, versatile players. We ask him to do a lot of things, defensively, and also goal-line stuff on offense, things like that. Mike's very smart. He's one of the best prepared, smartest players I've ever coached. He can do a lot of things in regular defense, sub defenses. He can rush the passer, play in coverage. He has a lot of different responsibilities. He kind of thrives when we're changing things up and he's doing different things and playing in different spots and we move him around. We ask him to do that a lot because he does a good job.

Coach Belichick on Wes Welker, Sept. 16

His quickness [and] his running style make him effective after the catch. He's strong for his size. He has good balance and he's a hard guy to wrap up and tackle. [He is] similar to but also different than Troy Brown, who was another smaller type of guy who was hard to tackle because he could make people miss and bounce off some tackles because of his size, lower body strength and balance. He's able to stay on his feet and gain some extra yards. So, it's a combination of quickness, running style and vision. I think Wes does a good job of finding where there is a soft spot on defense and getting what's there.

Coach Belichick on Terrence Wheatley and Jonathan Wilhite, Sept. 30

I think [Terrence] Wheatley and Jonathan Wilhite have both improved quite a bit. They worked hard, got a lot of snaps in training camp and in the preseason games, especially Wheatley. As we have gotten into the regular season we have cut down because of our scheme, we just game plan for one team. Instead of running everything against everything, we narrow it down to the calls we are going to make in this particular game plan. I think that helps young players and new players coming into your team because they don't have to worry about every defense against every formation and every adjustment. I think there has been some improvement with Wheatley and Wilhite.

Coach Belichick on Pierre Woods, July 27

Pierre [Woods] is one of our hardest workers and one of our most diligent players. He works hard at his job and tries to do everything right, just the way you want it.

TEAM NEWS & NOTES

PATRIOTS ARE LEAST-PENALIZED TEAM IN 2008

The Patriots have been flagged for 24 accepted penalties in 2008 – the fewest of any NFL team this season. New England has had 29 penalties called against it (five have been declined), a figure that also leads the league. On Oct. 26 against St. Louis, the Patriots were not flagged for any accepted penalties, marking the first penalty-free game in the franchise's 731-game history. New England's penalty-free performance was the 50th in the NFL since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. The Patriots are on pace to be called for just 48 accepted penalties this season, a total that would set a new franchise record (beating the team's 50 penalties in 1973). The Seattle Seahawks had 59 accepted penalties last season – the fewest in the NFL since the league adopted the 16-game schedule in 1978.

2008 NFL LEADERS / FEWEST PENALTIES

DOMINATING DEFENSE

Since the beginning of the 2003 season, the Patriots have allowed an average of 17.25 points per game (including playoffs), a mark that leads the NFL over that span. In regular-season play only, the Patriots' 17.01 points per game allowed since 2003 also leads the NFL over that span. In 2007, the Patriots allowed 274 points, marking the fourth time in the last five seasons (since 2003) that New England has allowed fewer than 275 points in a season.

SOLID DOWN THE STRETCH

The Patriots have traditionally stepped things up a notch as the calendar has flipped to November. Since 2001, New England has done a remarkable job of finishing the season strong, compiling a 64-15 (.810) record after Nov. 1, including playoff games. Additionally, since 2001, the Patriots are 48-9 (.842) in games played after Thanksgiving Day and are 22-4 (.846) in games played after Christmas.

NOTES: The Indianapolis Colts were members of the AFC East in 2001 and compiled a 3-5 divisional record that season. In 2002, the Patriots and Jets both finished with a 9-7 overall record and a 4-2 divisional record, but the Jets claimed the division title by virtue of having a better record against common opponents.

TITLE TOWN

The Patriots have won five straight AFC East titles heading into this season, setting the all-time record for consecutive titles in that division. New England's five straight AFC East crowns tops the four straight division titles by the Buffalo Bills from 1988-91 and by the Miami Dolphins on two occasions. The Patriots have won six of the last seven division crowns. The Patriots have won eight division titles in the 14 seasons since Robert Kraft bought the team in 1994.

TOUGH AT HOME

The Patriots own an overall record of 49-10 (.831) at Gillette Stadium. Since their state-of-the-art facility opened at the beginning of the 2002 season, the Patriots own the NFL's best record at home. Now in their seventh season at Gillette Stadium, the Patriots have finished three seasons undefeated at home since the stadium opened (2003, 2004 and 2007) and own a perfect 7-0 playoff record at the venue.

WR RANDY MOSS NEWS & NOTES

MOSS: ALL-TIME LEADER IN RECEPTIONS PER TD

Over his 10-plus year NFL career, Randy Moss has averaged one touchdown for every 6.34 receptions, a total that is the best in NFL history among any receiver with at least 500 receptions. Moss has caught 128 touchdowns out of 812 career receptions. Lance Alworth, who played 11 seasons for San Diego and Dallas from 1962-72, ranks second on the list with an average of 6.38 catches per touchdown.

MOSS FIFTH-FATEST TO 800 IN NFL HISTORY

Randy Moss recorded his 800th career reception in the Patriots' Oct. 26 win over St. Louis, a 10-yard grab in the 1st quarter. Moss became the 20th player in NFL history to break the 800-reception mark, and did it in his 161st game, reaching the milestone in the fifth-fewest number of games in league history.

MOSS IS NFL'S PREMIERE TD RECEIVER

Since entering the NFL in 1998, Randy Moss has caught 128 touchdown passes, more than any other NFL player over that span. Since joining the Patriots via trade prior to the 2007 season, Moss has caught 27 touchdowns – also the best in the league over that span. In terms of overall touchdowns (rushing, receiving and returning), Moss has totaled 129 scores since entering the league in 1998 (128 via reception and one via punt return), a tally that ranks second only to LaDainian Tomlinson (134 touchdowns) over that span.

MOSS AMONG ALL-TIME LEADERS

RANDY MOSS is among the NFL's all-time leaders in two major receiving categories – career touchdown receptions and receiving yards per game. In his 10-plus seasons, Moss has caught 128 touchdown passes and is one of just five receivers in NFL history to break the 125-touchdown mark. Additionally, Moss has averaged 78.6 receiving yards per game during his career, a mark that ranks second all-time.

MEMBER OF 2000/2000 CLUB FOR THE 2000s

KEVIN FAULK is one of just 11 NFL players this decade to total at least 2,000 rushing yards and at least 2,000 receiving yards. Faulk has totaled 2,078 rushing yards and 2,422 receiving yards since 2000, joining an exclusive list of elite players who have achieved the feat. Faulk is one of just six players who reached the milestone with just one team. In the 1990s, there were 13 players who achieved the 2000/2000 milestone; 22 players did it in the 1980s; nine players achieved the feat in the 1970s.

O.T. IS THE PLACE TO BE

The Patriots have won eight consecutive overtime games and own the longest overtime winning streak in NFL history, including playoff games.

MOST CONSECUTIVE OVERTIME VICTORIES

Wins	Team	Dates
8*	New England	2000-present
7	Denver	1978-1985
6	Washington	1976-1987
6	Pittsburgh	1994-1997

*-Includes one playoff game

WORKING OVERTIME

The Patriots have won their last eight overtime games (including the playoffs). New England's eight-game overtime winning streak is the longest in NFL history. New England has not lost in overtime since Buffalo won 16-13 at Foxboro Stadium on Nov. 5, 2000. Since that time, the Patriots have won eight straight, including five games in which they scored on their first possession of overtime.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

MILESTONES APPROACHING

1

The number of wins the Patriots need to reach 50 total victories at Gillette Stadium (including playoffs) since the facility opened in 2002.

3

The number of receptions Randy Moss needs to pass Henry Ellard and Keyshawn Johnson and tie Shannon Sharpe for 17th place on the NFL's all-time receptions list. Moss enters this week's game ranked 20th in league history with 812 career receptions, while Ellard and Johnson are tied for 18th place with 814 career catches. Sharpe ranks 17th with 815 career catches entering this week's action.

4

The number of receptions Randy Moss needs to pass Shannon Sharpe and claim 17th place on the NFL's all-time receptions list. Moss enters this week's game ranked 20th in league history with 812 career receptions, while Sharpe is 17th with 815 career receptions.

8

The number of receptions Randy Moss needs to pass Steve Largent for 16th place on the NFL's all-time receptions list. Moss enters this week's game ranked 20th in league history with 812 career receptions, while Largent is 16th with 819 career receptions.

57

The number of receiving yards Randy Moss needs to pass Irving Fryar for 11th place on the NFL's all-time receiving yardage list. Moss enters this week's game ranked 12th with 12,729 career receiving yards, while Fryar ranks 11th with 12,785 receiving yards.

75

The number of receiving yards Kevin Faulk needs to become the sixth NFL player to have at least 2,000 rushing yards and at least 3,000 receiving yards this decade. Since the year 2000, only Tiki Barber, Marshall Faulk, LaDainian Tomlinson, Brian Westbrook and Michael Pittman have achieved the feat. Faulk enters this week's game with 2,708 rushing yards and 2,925 receiving yards this decade.

6

The number of receptions Wes Welker needs to set a new NFL record for most consecutive games with six or more receptions to begin a season. Welker has caught at least six passes in each of the season's first eight games, tying the record also achieved by Jacksonville's Jimmy Smith in each of the first eight games of the season in 2001.

3

The number of touchdown receptions Randy Moss needs to pass Cris Carter for seventh place on the NFL's all-time total touchdowns list. Moss enters this week's game with 128 career touchdowns (128 receiving, 1 return), while Carter had 131 career touchdowns (130 receiving, 1 return).

3

The number of touchdown receptions Randy Moss needs to pass Cris Carter for third place on the NFL's all-time touchdown receptions list. Moss enters this week's game with 128 career touchdown catches, while Carter had 131 career scoring grabs.

3

The number of victories Patriots head coach Bill Belichick needs to reach 150 total wins for his career. Belichick has 146 career wins (131 regular season, 15 playoffs). There are 16 coaches in NFL history who have reached the 150-win mark.

4

The number of sacks Mike Vrabel needs to reach 50 sacks in his Patriots career, becoming the sixth player in team history to total 50 sacks in a Patriots uniform.

STREAKING

156

The number of consecutive home games the Patriots have sold out. The streak includes ever preseason, regular-season and playoff game since the 1994 regular-season opener and includes this week's game against Buffalo.

9

The number of consecutive victories the Patriots own over this week's opponent, the Buffalo Bills. A win over the Bills this week would tie the longest current winning streak by one team over another in the NFL (10, Pittsburgh over Cleveland and San Diego over Oakland).

6

The number of consecutive victories by the Patriots over the Buffalo Bills at Gillette Stadium. New England is 6-0 against Buffalo at the facility since it opened in 2002.

5

The number of consecutive AFC East titles the Patriots have won entering 2008, marking the longest streak of consecutive crowns in the division's history.

12

The number of consecutive games (including playoffs) in which Wes Welker has had at least six receptions.

7

The number of consecutive seasons in which the Patriots have won nine or more regular-season games. They are the only team in the NFL to have won at least nine games in each of the last seven seasons.

13

The number of consecutive regular-season victories the Patriots have recorded against NFC teams, a streak that dates to 2005.

THE KRAFT ERA

3

The number of Super Bowl championships the Patriots have won since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994. That mark is the highest total in the NFL over that span. Only Denver (2; 1997 and 1998) has also won multiple Super Bowl titles since 1994.

5

The number of conference championships the Patriots have won since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994. That mark is the highest total in the NFL over that span, and more than twice the total of the next closest teams (Denver, Green Bay, Pittsburgh and St. Louis each have won two conference titles since 1994).

17

The number of playoff games the Patriots have won since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994. That mark is the highest total in the NFL over that span. Pittsburgh ranks second with 12 playoff wins over that span.

24

The number of playoff games the Patriots have appeared in since 1994. The mark is the highest in the NFL, ahead of the 20 games played by Green Bay and Pittsburgh.

THE BELICHIK ERA

105-32

The Patriots' record since 2001 under Head Coach Bill Belichick. His .766 winning percentage is the best in the NFL over that span among coaches who have coached at least one full season since then. Tony Dungy ranks second at 93-40 (.699).

110

The number of wins Coach Belichick has recorded since becoming Patriots head coach in 2000. He joins Mike Shanahan (135 wins since becoming Denver's head coach in 1995) and Jeff Fisher (129 wins since becoming Tennessee's head coach in 1994) as one of three current NFL head coaches to achieve 100 or more wins with their current team.

GAME RECAPS: GAME 7

GAME 7: PATRIOTS 23, RAMS 16

October 26, 2008 ★ Gillette Stadium (Att: 68,756)

	1	2	3	4	Final
St. Louis Rams	3	7	3	3	— 16
New England Patriots	7	6	0	10	— 23

The Patriots improved to 5-2 on the season with a fourth-quarter comeback against St. Louis leading to a 23-16 win. The Patriots trailed 16-13 with fewer than 10 minutes to go in the game, but a 41-yard field goal by Stephen Gostkowski tied the score with 8:22 remaining and a 15-yard scoring strike from Matt Cassel to Kevin Faulk provided the game-winning touchdown with 3:13 left. Cassel set a career high with 267 yards, while Randy Moss totaled 102 yards on seven catches. The Patriots defense had seven quarterback hits, including four sacks, and Deltha O'Neal's interception with just more than one minute left helped to seal the victory for the Patriots.

PATRIOTS TURN IN FRANCHISE'S FIRST PENALTY-FREE PERFORMANCE

The Patriots were not flagged for any accepted penalties against St. Louis, marking the first penalty-free game in the franchise's 731-game history. The Patriots have been called for just one penalty in a game on 13 occasions, most recently on Sept. 10, 2006 against Buffalo. New England's penalty-free performance was the first in the NFL this season and the first for an NFL team since Seattle was not flagged for any accepted infractions against Baltimore on Dec. 23, 2007. The Patriots' penalty-free game was the 50th such performance by an NFL team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

FAULK'S GAME-WINNING TD CATCH

Kevin Faulk hauled in the game-winning touchdown catch, a 15-yard reception from Matt Cassel with 3:13 remaining in the game, breaking a 16-16 tie and providing the winning 23-16 margin. Faulk had four catches for 48 yards and a touchdown to go along with 13 rushes for 60 yards, good for 108 total yards from scrimmage on 17 total touches (6.4 avg.). Faulk's touchdown was his third of the season and his first via reception (the other two were scored rushing).

100-YARD GAME FOR MOSS

Randy Moss had 102 yards on seven rushes, marking his third 100-yard receiving game of the season, his 12th 100-yard receiving game as a Patriot and the 58th 100-yard receiving game of his career. Moss's 58 100-yard receiving games rank third in NFL history, trailing only Jerry Rice (76) and Marvin Harrison (59).

CASSEL LEADS FIRST CAREER FOURTH-QUARTER COMEBACK

Matt Cassel led his first career fourth-quarter comeback, helping to rally the Patriots to a 23-16 win after facing a 16-13 fourth-quarter deficit. After the Rams took the lead, 16-13, on a 25-yard field goal with 12:25 left, Cassel directed a 6-play, 28-yard drive that led the Patriots into field goal range as Stephen Gostkowski tied the score at 16 on a 41-yard boot. After a three-and-out by the New England defense, Cassel and the Patriots offense drove 53 yards on seven plays to take a 23-16 lead on a 15-yard scoring strike from Cassel to Kevin Faulk. A Deltha O'Neal interception ended the Rams' next drive, and by the time St. Louis got the ball back with five seconds left in the game, the New England defense only needed one stop to preserve the win.

FIRST-TIME VISITORS

The Rams made their first visit to Gillette Stadium, and the Patriots improved to 24-4 against first-time visitors to the venue. The Patriots have won 20 of their last 21 games against teams making their first visit. The only teams the Patriots have not played at Gillette Stadium are Arizona, Atlanta and Carolina.

CASSEL SETS CAREER HIGH FOR PASSING YARDS

Matt Cassel recorded 267 yards on 33-for-21 (63.6 percent) passing, including the game-winning touchdown pass to Kevin Faulk with 3:13 remaining in the game. Cassel's 267 yards were a career high, topping his 259 yards against San Francisco on Oct. 5. Cassel's career-high yardage and game-winning touchdown pass against St. Louis came on the heels of an Oct. 20 performance against Denver that saw him garner AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors after compiling a career-best 136.3 passer rating (the 10th highest in Patriots history).

DELTA O'NEAL RECORDS SECOND PICK

Deltha O'Neal intercepted a Marc Bulger pass at the Patriots' 16-yard line with 1:26 left in the game to halt a potential game-tying drive by St. Louis and preserve the Patriots' victory. The interception was O'Neal's second of the season, placing him second on the team behind Brandon Meriweather (3). The pick was the 33rd of O'Neal's nine-year NFL career. He had 14 interceptions with Denver from 2000-03 and 16 picks with Cincinnati from 2004-07. O'Neal was signed by the Patriots as a free agent on Sept. 1, 2008.

GREEN-ELLIS EARNS START; HITS END ZONE

Rookie BenJarvus Green-Ellis started for the Patriots at running back against the Rams – marking his first career start in just his third career game – and scored on a 2-yard touchdown run in the first quarter to give the Patriots a 7-3 lead. The touchdown was the second of his career and his second in as many weeks. Last week, while seeing his first extensive action at running back in the second half of the Patriots' victory over the Broncos, Green-Ellis had 65 yards on 13 carries (5.0 avg.) and a touchdown. Green-Ellis, originally signed by the Patriots as a rookie free agent this past offseason out of the University of Mississippi, was signed to the active roster from the practice squad on Oct. 11.

SACK ATTACK

- Adalius Thomas sacked Marc Bulger twice in the second quarter, each time for a 13-yard loss. The pair of sacks marked Thomas's fifth career regular-season game with two or more sacks (he also had two sacks in Super Bowl XLII). Thomas's five sacks so far this season lead the team.
- Richard Seymour sacked Bulger for a 2-yard loss on third down in the second quarter, forcing a Rams punt on the next play. The sack was Seymour's fourth of the season.
- Ty Warren sacked Bulger for a 5-yard loss in the fourth quarter, recording his first sack of the season.

THREE KICKS FOR GOSTKOWSKI

Stephen Gostkowski hit all three of his field goal attempts, connecting from 30 and 27 yards in the second quarter and from 41 yards in the fourth quarter to tie the game at 16 with 8:22 left. Gostkowski is now 16-for-17 (94.1 percent) this season and has made 23 of his last 24 kicks dating back to 2007. His 41-yard kick in the fourth quarter raised his career points total to 302 points, making him the seventh player in team history to score 300 or more points for the Patriots. Gostkowski's fourth-quarter extra point raised his career total to 303 points, moving him past Ben Coates (302) for sixth place on the Patriots' all-time scoring list. Gostkowski was drafted by the Patriots in the fourth round (118th overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft.

GAME RECAPS: GAME 6

GAME 6: PATRIOTS 41, BRONCOS 7

October 20, 2008 ★ Gillette Stadium (Att: 68,756)

	1	2	3	4	Final
Denver Broncos	0	0	0	7	— 7
New England Patriots	6	14	14	7	— 41

The New England Patriots improved to 4-2 on the season with a 41-7 win over Denver at Gillette Stadium. The Patriots tied their largest Monday Night Football victory and improved to 15-1 since 2003 following a loss. New England's defense forced five turnovers and the Patriots offense converted those takeaways into a total of 20 points. The New England rushing attack totaled 257 yards – its highest total in 15 years – and Matt Cassel set a career high with three touchdown passes, two to Randy Moss.

PATRIOTS RUSHING TOTAL TIES MOST IN A SINGLE GAME SINCE 1985

As a team, the Patriots ran for 257 yards on 38 carries (6.8 avg.), tying the team's highest single-game rushing total since Dec. 22, 1985, when the Patriots posted 281 yards on 46 carries (6.1 avg.) against the Cincinnati Bengals. New England rushing total against Denver matched their Dec. 26, 1993 total of 257 yards (on 58 carries) against Indianapolis as the highest since that 1985 game. Against Denver, Sammy Morris led the way with a career-high 138 rushing yards, while rookie BenJarvus Green-Ellis added 65 yards on 13 carries, Kevin Faulk picked up 50 yards on four carries, Heath Evans had three yards on one carry and Matt Cassel has one yard on four carries, including three game-ending kneeldowns.

CASSEL'S PASSER RATING RANKS IN FRANCHISE TOP 10

Matt Cassel posted a career-high passer rating of 136.3, completing 18-of-24 passes (75 percent) for 185 yards and three touchdowns. Cassel's 136.3 passer rating places among the Patriots' top 10 single-game passer ratings since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, ranking 10th on that list, just ahead of Drew Bledsoe's 136.2 rating on Sept. 7, 1997 against Indianapolis. Cassel's three touchdowns against Denver also set a new career high, and his 75 percent completion rate was also a career best.

TURNING OVER POINTS

The Patriots forced five Denver turnovers and scored 20 points off of those turnovers. The five forced turnovers were the most for the Patriots since also forcing five in a 28-21 win over Detroit on Dec. 3, 2006. New England's 20 points off turnovers were its highest total since scoring 21 points off of four Cleveland turnovers in a 34-17 win on Oct. 7, 2007.

PATRIOTS TIE THEIR SECOND HIGHEST POINT TOTAL AT GILLETTE STADIUM

The Patriots scored 41 points against Denver, tying the team's second highest single-game point total in Gillette Stadium history. The only game in which the Patriots scored more points at Gillette Stadium came on Oct. 28, 2007, when they defeated Washington 52-7. New England's 41-7 win over Denver ties their 41-point output in a 41-38 win over Kansas City on Sept. 22, 2002 as their second highest point total at home since moving into Gillette Stadium in 2002.

PATRIOTS TOTAL FIFTH-LARGEST MARGIN OF VICTORY IN BELICHICK ERA

The Patriots' 34-point victory over Denver (41-7) was the fifth largest margin of victory for the team since Bill Belichick became head coach in 2000. The only larger margins of victory for New England under Belichick were by 46 points against Buffalo on Nov. 18, 2007 (56-10), 45 points against Washington on Oct. 28, 2007 (52-7), 37 points against the New York Jets on Sept. 15, 2002 (44-7) and 35 points against the Green Bay Packers on Nov. 19, 2006 (35-0).

PATRIOTS IMPROVE TO 15-1 FOLLOWING LOSSES SINCE 2003

The Patriots bounced back from a loss with a victory for the 15th time in their last 16 chances, a run of success that dates back to the beginning of the 2003 season. Since then, the Patriots have only lost back-to-back games on one occasion, dropping their first two games in November, 2006. This season, New England has followed each of its losses with victories, bouncing back from a 38-13 loss to Miami on Sept. 21 with a 30-21 win over San Francisco on Oct. 5 and rebounding from a 30-10 setback at San Diego on Oct. 12 with a 41-7 win over Denver on Oct. 20.

CAREER HIGH FOR MORRIS

Running back Sammy Morris had a career-high 138 rushing yards on 16 carries (8.6 avg.), topping his previous career best of 123 yards on 25 carries while playing for the Miami Dolphins against the Patriots on Dec. 10, 2006. Morris broke the 100-yard rushing mark early in the second quarter, totaling exactly 100 yards on his first nine rushes of the game. The performance marked the fourth 100-yard rushing game of Morris's 9-year career and his third in 12 games as a Patriot. Morris joined the Patriots as a free agent from the Dolphins prior to the 2007 season.

CASSEL-TO-MOSS FOR TWO

Randy Moss caught two touchdown passes from Matt Cassel – a 13-yard strike in the second quarter and a 27-yard score on a catch-and-run play in the third quarter. Moss's second score gave the Patriots a 27-0 lead with 7:32 left in the third quarter. The two-touchdown performance marked Moss's first multiple-touchdown game of the season and his ninth since joining the Patriots via trade prior to the 2007 season. The two-touchdown game against Denver marked the 30th time in his career that Moss has caught two or more scoring passes in a game. Moss now has 128 career touchdown receptions, a total that ranks fourth all-time and is two behind Cris Carter's total of 130 scoring catches.

MERIWEATHER INTERCEPTION

Brandon Meriweather picked off a deep ball from Jay Cutler intended for Darrell Jackson at the Patriots' 16-yard line in the second quarter. The interception was Meriweather's team-leading third of the season and was also the third of his career. Meriweather was selected by the Patriots in the first round (24th overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft.

SANDERS INTERCEPTION

James Sanders recorded his first interception of the season and the fifth interception of his 4-year career when he picked off a Jay Cutler pass in the third quarter. The play set up an 8-play, 80-yard drive that ended in a 6-yard scoring strike to Wes Welker and a 34-0 Patriots lead.

ANDRE TIPPETT NIGHT

The Patriots-Broncos game was "Andre Tippett Night" at Gillette Stadium in honor of Tippett's enshrinement in the Pro Football Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2008. The Patriots and their fans honored the legendary linebacker in a ceremony on the field at halftime, during which Tippett was presented with his Hall of Fame ring. Tippett also served as an honorary captain at the coin toss. Tippett's Hall of Fame bust was on display this past weekend at The Hall at Patriot Place presented by Raytheon.

GAME RECAPS: GAMES 4 & 5

GAME 5: CHARGERS 30, PATRIOTS 10

October 12, 2008 ★ Qualcomm Stadium (Att: 68,704)

	1	2	3	4	Final
New England Patriots	0	3	0	7	— 10
San Diego Chargers	10	7	10	3	— 30

The Patriots saw their 12-game road winning streak snapped in a 30-10 loss to San Diego at Qualcomm Stadium. The Chargers took a 10-0 lead in the first quarter and held off New England's second-half comeback try to snap the Patriots' 11-game winning streak in the month of October. The Patriots seemed poised to cut the deficit to 17-10 after getting the opening kickoff of the second half and gaining a first-and-goal on the San Diego 1-yard line. But the Chargers came up with a goal-line stand to maintain a 17-3 lead and promptly drove the length of the field to extend their advantage to 24-3. Two San Diego field goals extended the lead to 30-3 before a New England touchdown with 5:18 left in the game made the final score 30-10.

ROAD STREAK ENDS

The loss to San Diego ended the Patriots' streak of 12 consecutive regular season road victories, dating back to a Dec. 24, 2006 win against the Jaguars in Jacksonville. The Patriots' 12-game road winning streak is the second-longest road winning streak in NFL history (San Francisco, 18, 1988-90). Three teams have won 11 straight road games (San Diego 1960-61, San Francisco 1987-88, Pittsburgh 2004-05).

WELKER CONSISTENT

Wes Welker had nine catches against San Diego, marking the fifth straight game to open the season that Welker has had six or more catches. Welker has 36 receptions in 2008 and is averaging 7.2 catches per game this season after averaging seven catches per game in 2007, his first season with the Patriots. Welker's 112 catches in 2007 tied for the league lead and set an NFL record for most receptions by a player in his first season with a new team.

FUMBLE RECOVERY

Ty Warren recovered a fumble by Jacob Hester in the fourth quarter, marking the Patriots' first defensive fumble recovery of the season. The fumble recovery was the sixth of Warren's career, and set up an 8-play, 46-yard drive that ended in a 1-yard touchdown run by Sammy Morris.

MORRIS TOUCHDOWN

Sammy Morris scored on a 1-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter to make the score 30-10. The touchdown was Morris' third rushing score of the season and was the 20th rushing touchdown of his 9-year NFL career. He also has one career receiving touchdown. Morris's three total touchdowns lead the team through five games and equal his total of three touchdowns in 2007.

MORRIS CATCH

Sammy Morris gained 28 yards on a pass play in the third quarter, tying the second longest reception of his career. The catch trails only his 44-yard reception on Oct. 22, 2006 while he was with the Miami Dolphins. Morris's other 28-yard reception also came that year during the Dolphins' Dec. 10 game against the Patriots. Morris's 28-yard catch against the Chargers set the Patriots up in a first-and-goal from the 1-yard line.

QUICK HITS

- The Patriots lost a game in October for the first time since 2005, snapping a streak of 11 straight October wins. Prior to falling in San Diego, the Patriots' last loss in October came on Oct. 16, 2005, a 28-20 loss at Denver.

GAME 4: PATRIOTS 30, 49ERS 21

October 5, 2008 ★ Candlestick Park (Att: 67,650)

	1	2	3	4	Final
New England Patriots	7	10	7	6	— 30
San Francisco 49ers	14	0	0	7	— 21

... The Patriots improved to 3-1 on the season with a 30-21 win on the road against San Francisco. Matt Cassel set career highs in passing yards and completions, while Randy Moss totaled 111 receiving yards, including a 66-yard touchdown grab. Stephen Gostkowski was a perfect three-for-three on field goals, including a crucial 49-yarder that gave the Patriots a two-score advantage in the fourth quarter. The Patriots defense came up with three interceptions to help halt the San Francisco momentum, while Kevin Faulk set a career high with two rushing touchdowns.

CAREER HIGHS FOR CASSEL

Quarterback Matt Cassel set single-game career highs with 259 yards, 22 completions and 32 attempts. Prior to the game against the 49ers, his previous single-game highs were 168 yards (vs. Miami on Jan. 1, 2006), 19 completions (vs. Miami on Sept. 21, 2008) and 31 attempts (vs. Miami on Sept. 21, 2008).

FAULK'S GOAL LINE SCORES

Kevin Faulk scored on a two-yard run to give the Patriots a 17-14 lead with six seconds remaining in the first half and a two-yard run on fourth and goal to give the Patriots a 24-14 lead in the third quarter. It was the first time Faulk has scored two rushing touchdowns in a game and just the third time he has scored two total touchdowns in a game (vs. Houston, 12/17/06 and at Chicago, 11/10/02). The touchdowns were Faulk's first two of the season. Faulk's first touchdown was his first rushing score since Dec. 17, 2006, when he had an 11-yard scoring run against the Houston Texans.

MOSS GOES FOR 111

Randy Moss had five receptions for 111 yards, recording his second 100-yard receiving game of the season and the 57th 100-yard receiving game of his career. Moss's 57 career 100-yard receiving games rank third in NFL history, trailing only Jerry Rice (76) and Marvin Harrison (59). In 2007, Moss had nine 100-yard receiving games. Moss had four catches for 111 yards in the first half against San Francisco.

CASSEL BOMB TO MOSS

On third and eight from the 49ers' 34-yard line in the first quarter, Matt Cassel rolled to his right and hit Randy Moss, who had split the defense down the middle, on a 66-yard touchdown, tying the score at seven. The catch was Moss's longest reception as a Patriot and his longest reception since Oct. 2, 2005, when he snared a 79-yard catch while playing for Oakland against the Dallas Cowboys. The touchdown toss was the longest of Matt Cassel's career, the longest play of the year for the Patriots and the longest since Donté Stallworth's 69-yard touchdown reception against Dallas on Oct. 4, 2007. The touchdown was Moss's 126th career scoring reception and his 25th touchdown grab since joining the Patriots via trade prior to the 2007 season. Last season, Moss had touchdown receptions of 65 yards (at N.Y. Giants, 12/29/07) and 63 yards (vs. Pittsburgh, 12/9/07).

FIRST WIN IN SAN FRANCISCO

The Patriots' 30-21 victory over the 49ers was New England's first win in San Francisco. The Patriots had lost in each of their four previous road matchups with the 49ers. The Washington Redskins are now the only NFL team the Patriots have never beaten on the road.

GAME RECAPS: GAMES 2 & 3

WEEK 3: DOLPHINS 38, PATRIOTS 13

September 21, 2008 ★ Gillette Stadium (Att: 68,756)

	1	2	3	4	Final
Miami Dolphins	7	14	7	10	— 38
New England Patriots	0	6	7	0	— 13

The Patriots fell to 2-1 on the season, dropping a 38-13 decision to the Miami Dolphins at Gillette Stadium. New England's 21-game regular-season winning streak was broken as the Patriots lost in regular season play for the first time since Dec. 10, 2006, when they fell 21-0 at Miami. The Patriots lost at home for the first time since Nov. 12, 2006, snapping a streak of 15 straight home victories in the regular season and playoffs.

2008 PATRIOTS HALL OF FAME INDUCTION WEEKEND

The Patriots will conclude the inaugural Patriots Hall of Fame Induction Weekend with a halftime ceremony at the Dolphins game. Patriots Hall of Famers honored on the field at halftime included: Nick Buoniconti, Gino Cappelletti, Ben Coates, Steve Grogan, John Hannah, Mike Haynes, Stanley Morgan, Steve Nelson, Babe Parilli and Andre Tippett. The late Bob Dee was represented by his son, Bob Dee, Jr., and the late Jim Lee Hunt was represented by his wife, Rosa Hunt. The weekend's events included a ribbon-cutting ceremony on Thursday Sept. 18 for The Hall at Patriot Place Presented by Raytheon, and a re-induction of all Patriots Hall of Famers and the enshrinement of 2008 Patriots Hall of Fame inductee Ben Coates on Saturday, Sept. 20.

HOBBS SETS PATRIOTS RECORD FOR MOST KICKOFF RETURN YARDAGE IN A GAME

Ellis Hobbs totaled 237 yards on six kickoff returns, setting a Patriots record for most kickoff return yardage in a game. Hobbs topped the previous Patriots record of 220 kickoff return yards, set by Kevin Faulk against the New York Jets on Dec. 22, 2002. Hobbs had long kickoff returns of 81 yards and 50 yards en route to his record against the Dolphins. His 82-yard return in the third quarter set up Matt Cassel's 5-yard touchdown pass to Jabar Gaffney. Playing in his 50th career game, Hobbs returned the opening kickoff of the game 50 yards to the Miami 49-yard line. In his 50-game career, Hobbs has now recorded six kickoff returns of 50 yards or longer and nine kickoff returns of 40 yards or longer.

GAFFNEY SCORES

Jabar Gaffney snared a 5-yard touchdown pass from Matt Cassel on fourth-and-three with 3:20 remaining in the third quarter to cut the Miami lead to 28-13. The touchdown catch was Gaffney's first of the season and the 14th of his career. Last season, Gaffney set a career high with five touchdown receptions.

QUICK HITS

- 2008 Patriots Hall of Fame Inductee Ben Coates served as an honorary captain at the coin toss.
- The Dolphins game was the 153rd straight home sellout for the Patriots. The streak is now in its 15th season and includes every Patriots preseason, regular-season and playoff game since the 1994 regular-season opener.
- Patriots tackle Matt Light played in his 100th career game. Light, a 2008 offensive captain, was drafted by the Patriots in the second round (48th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft.
- Sam Aiken made his Patriots debut after missing the first two games of the season. Aiken, signed as a free agent from the Buffalo Bills in the offseason, caught his first pass in a New England uniform in the second quarter, a 9-yard catch on third-and-two.

WEEK 2: PATRIOTS 19, JETS 10

September 14, 2008 ★ Giants Stadium (Att: 78,554)

	1	2	3	4	Final
New England Patriots	3	3	10	3	— 19
New York Jets	0	3	0	7	— 10

The Patriots began the season with a 2-0 record for the third straight season and won their 21st consecutive regular-season game, a 19-10 road divisional victory over the New York Jets. Matt Cassel, in his first career start at quarterback, completed nearly 70 percent of his passes, while Stephen Gostkowski hit all four of his field goal attempts to help the Patriots to victory. New England's defense allowed just 10 points for the second straight week, and a key interception by Brandon Meriweather in the third quarter set up a New England touchdown that gave the Patriots a solid lead.

CASSEL WINS FIRST CAREER START

Matt Cassel made his first career start at quarterback and completed 16-of-23 passes (69.6 percent) for 165 yards and a passer rating of 89.9 in helping the Patriots to a 19-10 divisional win on the road. New England started the season with a 2-0 record for the third straight year and for the fifth time in the nine seasons since Bill Belichick became head coach in 2000.

DEFENSE: 20 POINTS THROUGH TWO GAMES

The Patriots allowed the Jets to score 10 points and allowed a total of just 20 points through two games (Kansas City also scored 10 points in a 17-10 Patriots win on Sept. 7). The 20 points allowed through the season's first two games is the lowest total by a Patriots team since Bill Belichick became head coach in 2000. The last time the Patriots allowed a total of 20 points or fewer in the season's first two games was in 1997, when New England allowed a total of 13 points, beginning the season with a 41-7 win over San Diego at Foxboro Stadium and following that up with a 31-6 win at Indianapolis.

GOSTKOWSKI TIES CAREER HIGH

Stephen Gostkowski nailed all four of his field goals – from 21, 37, 28 and 27 yards – improving to a perfect 5-for-5 on the season. He tied his career high for field goals in a game, matching his 4-for-4 performance against Houston as a rookie on Dec. 17, 2006.

MERIWEATHER'S FIRST CAREER INTERCEPTION SETS UP TOUCHDOWN

Brandon Meriweather recorded his first career interception, picking off a Brett Favre pass at the Jets' 44-yard line in the third quarter and returning it 13 yards to give the Patriots possession at the New York 31-yard line. The play set up a 6-play, 31-yard drive that ended in a 1-yard scoring plunge by Sammy Morris that gave the Patriots a 13-3 lead. Meriweather was selected by the Patriots in the first round (24th overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft out of Miami.

SERIES STREAKS

- With their win over the Jets, the Patriots took the lead in the all-time series against New York, 49-48-1 (including a 2-0 playoff record). The last time the Patriots were above .500 in their all-time series with New York was in entering the 1967 season, when they led 7-6-1.
- The Patriots defeated the Jets for the eighth consecutive time on the road. The streak dates back to a 17-16 win at Giants Stadium on Dec. 2, 2001.
- The Patriots have now held the Jets to 17 points or fewer in 10 of their last 11 meetings.

GAME RECAPS: GAME 1

PATRIOTS 17, CHIEFS 10

September 7, 2008 ★ Gillette Stadium (Att: 68,756)

	1	2	3	4	Final
Kansas City Chiefs	0	3	0	7	— 10
New England Patriots	0	7	7	3	— 17

The Patriots won their 20th consecutive regular-season game, a 17-10 victory over Kansas City to open the 2008 season. Randy Moss had six catches for 116 yards and a touchdown, while the Patriots totaled 126 rushing yards on 28 carries (4.5 avg.) and quarterback Matt Cassel completed 13-of-18 passes (72.2 percent) and threw for a touchdown in relief of an injured Tom Brady.

After losing starting quarterback Tom Brady for the season due to a left knee injury in the scoreless first quarter, the Patriots got on the board as quarterback Matt Cassel directed a 10-play, 98-yard drive that ended in a 10-yard touchdown pass to Randy Moss and a 7-0 Patriots lead. The Chiefs closed the gap to 7-3 with a field goal in the final minute of the first half, but the Patriots used their only possession of the third quarter to march 80 yards on 11 plays and extend their lead to 14-3 on a 5-yard touchdown run by Sammy Morris. The Chiefs answered back with a touchdown to open the fourth quarter, cutting the New England lead to 14-10. After two three-and-outs by the Patriots and one by the Chiefs, Ellis Hobbs intercepted a Damon Huard pass and gave the Patriots possession near midfield, setting up a field goal that extended New England's lead to 17-10 with 2:26 left in the game. The Chiefs mounted one last charge, gaining a first-and-goal from the Patriots' 5-yard line with 53 seconds left, but the Patriots defense bore down with a key red zone stop to keep Kansas City out of the end zone and preserve the 17-10 victory.

RED ZONE STOP IN FINAL MINUTE

The Patriots defense clinched the 17-10 win by keeping Kansas City out of the end zone after the Chiefs had gained a first-and-goal from the 5-yard line with 53 seconds left in the game. The Patriots did not allow the Chiefs to even gain a yard. The Patriots forced an incompletion on first down, Richard Seymour and Mike Vrabel combined to stop Larry Johnson for no gain on second down, and then New England forced two straight Kansas City incompletions on third and fourth downs.

CASSEL LEADS 98-YARD DRIVE

In his first drive at quarterback in the first quarter, Matt Cassel directed a 10-play, 98-yard drive that ended in a 10-yard scoring strike to Randy Moss and a 7-0 Patriots lead. The drive was the longest for the Patriots since Sept. 23, 2007, when they also embarked on a 10-play, 98-yard drive against Buffalo at Gillette Stadium.

MOSS SCORES 126th CAREER TOUCHDOWN

Randy Moss caught a 10-yard touchdown pass from Matt Cassel in the second quarter, recording his 126th career overall touchdown and his 125th career receiving touchdown. His 126 total touchdowns (125 receiving, 1 via punt return) tying him with Jim Brown (106 rushing, 20 receiving) for eighth on the NFL's all-time touchdowns list.

MOSS BREAKS 100-YARD MARK IN 1ST QUARTER

Randy Moss had 101 yards on four receptions in the first quarter, marking the third time in his career that he has broken the 100-yard receiving mark in the first quarter. The last time he achieved the feat was on Oct. 3, 1999, while playing for Minnesota in a game against Tampa Bay. Last season, Moss had 100 or more receiving yards in a quarter on one occasion—in the second quarter at Miami on Oct. 21, 2007, when he had 104 yards on three receptions.

HOBBS INTERCEPTION

Ellis Hobbs intercepted a Damon Huard pass at the Kansas City 41-yard line with 7:21 remaining in the game and the Patriots holding a 14-10 lead. Hobbs pounced on the pass intended for Dwayne Bowe and returned the ball to the 38-yard line. The interception was the seventh of Hobbs's regular-season career. He also has two career postseason interceptions. Including his interception against Kansas City, Hobbs had four interceptions in a five-game span—he had one in the 2007 regular season finale and added two in three playoff games last season.

MORRIS SCORES

Sammy Morris gave the Patriots a 14-3 lead on a 5-yard scoring run with 3:01 left in the third quarter. The touchdown was the 19th of Morris's career (18 rushing, one receiving). Last season, Morris played in six games with two starts and totaled 384 yards on 85 rushes (4.5 avg.) before being placed on injured reserve with a chest injury on Nov. 2, 2007.

CASSEL-TO-MOSS

Matt Cassel's 51-yard completion to Randy Moss on the final play of the first quarter was the longest completion of his career at the time, topping his 36-yard completion to Andre Davis in the 2005 regular-season finale against Miami on Jan. 1, 2006.
