

PATRIOTS VS. JETS

SERIES HISTORY

The Patriots and Jets will meet for the 99th time since the series between the AFC East rivals began in 1960. New England defeated the Jets earlier this season in their first road contest by a 19-10 score. The Patriots have won 11 of their last 12 games against the Jets (including one playoff game). The Patriots have swept the season series with the Jets in four of the last five seasons. New England is 20-10 against the Jets since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994. New England's 49 victories over the Jets (including two playoff wins) are the second most over any single opponent, trailing only Buffalo (55 all-time wins).

A complete listing of the results of games between the New England Patriots and the New York Jets/New York Titans can be found on page 277 of the 2008 Patriots Media Guide. In addition to those games, the Patriots defeated the Jets 19-10 on Sept. 14, 2008.

The Patriots began the year with a 2-0 record for the third straight season and won their 21st consecutive regular-season game, a 19-10 road divisional victory over the New York Jets. Matt Cassel, in his first career start at quarterback, completed nearly 70 percent of his passes, while Stephen Gostkowski hit all four of his field goal attempts to help the Patriots to victory. New England's defense allowed just 10 points for the second straight week, and a key interception by Brandon Meriweather in the third quarter set up a New England touchdown that gave the Patriots a solid lead.

LAST WEEK: PATRIOTS 20, BILLS 10

PATRIOTS 20, BILLS 10

November 9, 2008 ★ Gillette Stadium (Att: 68,756)

| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | Final |
|-----------------------------|---|---|---|---|-------|
| Buffalo Bills | 0 | 3 | 0 | 7 | — 10 |
| New England Patriots | 7 | 3 | 3 | 7 | — 20 |

The Patriots improved to 6-3 with a 20-10 victory over division rival Buffalo. New England outgained Buffalo 370-168 and controlled the ball for 37:40 en route to the win. Matt Cassel completed 23-of-34 passes (67.6 percent) for 234 yards, with 10 receptions going to Wes Welker, who totaled a season-high 107 receiving yards. BenJarvus Green-Ellis had 105 rushing yards and a touchdown to pace the Patriots' running game. On defense, Ellis Hobbs and Deltha O'Neal each had interceptions, while Richard Seymour and Ty Warren each had sacks as the Patriots allowed just 168 total net yards – the fewest in nearly two years, dating back to a 120-yard performance at Green Bay on Nov. 19, 2006.

WELKER SETS NFL RECORD

On a 12-yard reception in the third quarter – his sixth catch of the day – Wes Welker became the first player in NFL history to have six or more receptions in each of the first nine games of a season. Welker topped the previous league record of eight games, achieved by Jacksonville's Jimmy Smith in 2001. Dating back to last season (and including the playoffs), Welker has had six or more receptions in 13 straight games. The NFL record for most consecutive games with six or more receptions is 16, achieved by Marvin Harrison of the Colts from 2002-03.

WELKER SETS SEASON HIGHS FOR REC., YARDS

Wes Welker ended the game with a season-high 10 receptions for a season-best 107 yards. The game was his first 100-yard receiving game of the season and was the fifth of in his career. Welker's four previous 100-yard games all came last season with the Patriots. His career high of 149 receiving yards came against Philadelphia on Nov. 25, 2007. The game was Welker's fourth career contest with 10 or more receptions.

GREEN-ELLIS TOPS 100 RUSHING YARDS

Rookie running back BenJarvus Green-Ellis topped the 100-yard rushing mark, totaling 26 rushes for 105 yards and a touchdown. The touchdown was his fourth of the season and his fourth in as many weeks. Since being signed to the Patriots active roster on Oct. 11, Green-Ellis has scored touchdowns in four of five games, becoming the first Patriots rookie to score touchdowns in as many as four of his first five career games since running back Robert Edwards scored in each of his first six career games in 1998. The Patriots' franchise record for consecutive games with a rushing touchdown is held by Curtis Martin, who scored a rushing touchdown in seven straight games in 1996. The 100-yard game was the first of Green-Ellis's five-game NFL career.

PATRIOTS TIE MOST PLAYS IN A SINGLE DRIVE IN TEAM HISTORY

The Patriots tied the longest drive in team history (in terms of number of plays) when they embarked on a 19-play, 92-yard drive in the fourth quarter, chewing up 9:08 of clock time and protecting what was then a 13-3 lead. The drive ended in a 1-yard touchdown by BenJarvus Green-Ellis that made the score 20-3. The 19-play drive against Buffalo tied a 19-play drive against the New York Jets on Sept. 15, 2002 as the longest drive in team history in terms of number of plays.

FEATS, RECORDS AND MILESTONES

- The Patriots improved to 16-1 (.941) in games following a loss since the beginning of the 2003 season.
- The Patriots had a 100-yard rusher (BenJarvus Green-Ellis) and a 100-yard receiver (Wes Welker) in the same game for the first time since Oct. 7, 2007.

PATRIOTS BEAT BILLS FOR 10th STRAIGHT TIME

The Patriots beat the Bills for the 10th consecutive time, extending a streak that dates back to 2003. The last time the Bills beat the Patriots was on Sept. 7, 2003. New England's 10 straight wins over the Bills ties the longest current winning streak by one NFL team over another (San Diego has beaten Oakland 10 straight times and Pittsburgh has defeated Cleveland 10 straight times). The 10 straight wins over Buffalo ties the second longest streak over an opponent (they also beat San Diego 10 straight times from 1973-2001). The Patriots franchise record for most wins over a single opponent is 11, achieved against the Bills from 1983-87.

CASSEL SCORES SECOND CAREER TOUCHDOWN

Matt Cassel gave the Patriots a 7-0 lead on a 13-yard touchdown run in the first quarter to cap off a 7-play, 71-yard drive on the Patriots' first offensive possession of the game. The touchdown was the second of Cassel's career – he also scored on a 15-yard run against Washington on Oct. 28, 2007.

MOSS MOVES UP ALL-TIME LIST

Randy Moss moved up three spots on the NFL's all-time receptions list today, taking sole possession of 17th place in league history after entering the day in the 20th spot. Moss's third catch of the day, a 6-yard grab in the first quarter, was the 815th reception of his career and moved him past Henry Ellard (814) and Keyshawn Johnson (814) and into a tie with Shannon Sharpe (815) for 17th place all-time. His fourth catch of the day, a 9-yard catch in the second quarter, was the 816th of his career and moved him past Sharpe into sole possession of 17th place all-time. Moss ended the day with five receptions, bringing his career total to 817. Steve Largent ranks 16th in league history with 819 career receptions.

HOBBS INTERCEPTION

Ellis Hobbs intercepted a Trent Edwards pass in the first quarter and returned it four yards to the Bills' 34-yard line, setting up a 32-yard field goal by Stephen Gostkowski that gave the Patriots a 10-0 lead. The interception was Hobbs's second of the season and was the eighth of his regular-season career. Hobbs also has two career playoff interceptions, bringing his overall total to 10.

O'NEAL INTERCEPTION

Deltha O'Neal intercepted a Trent Edwards pass in the third quarter and returned it two yards to the Patriots' 41-yard line. The interception was O'Neal's third of the season, tying him with Brandon Meriweather for the team lead. The interception was the 34th of O'Neal's nine-year NFL career. He had 15 interceptions with Denver from 2000-03 and had 16 picks with Cincinnati from 2004-07. O'Neal was signed by the Patriots as a free agent on Sept. 1, 2008.

SEYMOUR SACK

Richard Seymour sacked Trent Edwards for a six-yard loss on third down on Buffalo's first possession of the game, forcing a Bills punt on the next play. The sack was Seymour's fifth of the season (tying him with Adalius Thomas for the team lead) and raised his career sack total to 36.0, tying Garin Veris for 11th on the Patriots' all-time sacks list.

GOSTKOWSKI IMPROVES TO 21-FOR-23

Stephen Gostkowski was 2-for-3 on field goals, hitting a 32-yard field goal in the second quarter to give the Patriots a 10-0 lead and nailing a 29-yarder in the third quarter to give New England a 13-3 advantage. He also missed a 49-yard try in the second quarter. Following his 2-for-3 performance his accuracy rate was 91.3 percent this season (21-for-23). He has hit 28 of his last 30 field goals (93.3 percent) dating back to last season, and his career accuracy rate of 84.9 percent (62-for-73) is the best in Patriots history.

ROBERT KRAFT NEWS & NOTES

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports. In 14 seasons of ownership, Kraft has transformed one of the league's least successful clubs into what many observers view as a model NFL franchise. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund team, winning just 19 of 80 games (.311 pct.) and recording the worst record in the NFL over that span. When he bought the franchise on Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft announced his intention to bring a championship to New England, a tall order considering the team's previous success rate. But under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won eight division titles, five conference crowns and three Super Bowl championships. The Patriots have made five Super Bowl appearances since Kraft purchased the team, a period during which no other NFL franchise has earned more than two Super Bowl berths.

A CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION

The Patriots and the San Antonio Spurs are the only teams from North America's four major professional sports leagues to have won three titles since 2001. Since 1994, the Patriots trail only the New York Yankees and San Antonio Spurs in having won three titles in the period since Robert Kraft purchased the team.

SELLOUT STREAK

In the early 1990s, the Patriots seemed destined for relocation until Robert Kraft's purchase of the team rejuvenated local interest. In 1991, the season ticket base was just 17,635, barely enough to support the club. Now, the season-ticket base stands at a capped total of 61,759 and more than 50,000 fans are on a waiting list. The Patriots have sold out 156 consecutive home games (dating back to the 1994 regular-season opener).

SUCCESS STORY

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have been one of the NFL's elite franchises. Over the first 14-plus years of Kraft's ownership, the Patriots own the NFL's highest win total, the league's highest winning percentage and have won more Super Bowl titles, more conference championships and more playoff games than any other NFL team.

Bill Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl titles in a four-year span. Over the Patriots' last 100 games, Belichick has directed the team to an 81-19 record, marking the best 100-game span for any team in NFL history. In the 2007 season, Belichick led the Patriots to the fourth undefeated and untied regular season in the NFL's 88-year history and the first since the NFL established a 16-game schedule in 1978. He has led the Patriots to the Super Bowl four times in the last seven seasons and has produced five straight AFC East titles and six division championships in the last seven seasons. Belichick's Patriots teams own the all-time NFL records for consecutive total victories (21 from 2003-04), consecutive regular-season victories (21 from 2006-08) and consecutive playoff victories (10 from 2001-05). Belichick owns the second best postseason record in NFL history (15-4) and is the winningest NFL head coach since 2001 (106-32). From 2003-04, he directed the Patriots to back-to-back Super Bowl titles while posting consecutive 17-win campaigns. Belichick has spent more seasons in the league than any other current NFL head coach, and in that time has been a part of five Super Bowl championship teams. His overall record of 111-43 with the Patriots gives him the most victories and the best winning percentage of any head coach in franchise history.

ELITE COMPANY

Bill Belichick is one of nine NFL head coaches to win three or more championships since the league began postseason play in 1933. With the Patriots' victory in Super Bowl XXXIX, Belichick joined an exclusive club in which each of the eight other members has been enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

COACH BELICHICK ON...

Coach Belichick on Sam Aiken, Nov. 9

He is very good on coverage. He is very physical. He is a strong kid for a receiver. He is very strong, powerful and a hard guy to match up with. If you get a guy as fast as him, he is probably not going to be as strong and if you get a guy as fast as him, he is probably not going to be as strong. So, he is a tough match up in the kicking game from a coverage standpoint and a blocking standpoint. Again he is a guy that can block a fast guy and he can block a bigger guy, like a linebacker, and there are not a lot of receivers that you can say that about.

Coach Belichick on Matt Cassel, Oct. 27

I think Matt is really progressing in all areas - his decision-making, his reads in coverages [and] his pocket presence. Not that we are cutting anything back but we are building offensively as any team would in the seventh week of the regular season relative to the first week of the season, relative to the 14th week of the season. You build things not just with your quarterback but with your entire offensive, or defensive, or special teams unit. You add plays, you add wrinkles, you do complimentary things and so that has been a part of it too. I think Matt's improved in a lot of areas in his game. As have a lot of other players as they have played more. His pocket presence, his decision making, reading the coverages, going to secondary receivers, reminding guys offensively about their splits or their depths - just part of the overall operation of offense is better than it was two months ago.

Coach Belichick on Heath Evans, Sept. 19

He's a just good all around player. He does a lot of things for us and does a lot of things well. He's a bigger guy that can hold up against bigger people in pass protection. As a run blocker, he runs the ball effectively as a power back. He plays in the kicking game on the coverage teams and also on the return teams. He's a smart guy with some versatility and he does a lot of different roles for us. He's been our third down back in the past when Kevin [Faulk] wasn't available. He's really done a lot of fullback, halfback and special teams. He's been a very versatile player for us. He's another dependable guy that works hard and he's a smart kid. He's got very good playing strength.

Coach Belichick on Kevin Faulk, Oct. 26

Kevin is a good football player and you are right he has made a lot of plays since I have been here and before. He has been a very dependable and consistent player. It seems like you can always count on Kevin no matter what phase of the game it is in. Whether it is returning kicks, blocking, pass protection, catching, running, two point plays [or] being on the goal line. He is a clutch player and he is a good player. He does a lot of things well and I think he is a guy that we all have a lot of confidence in around here - coaches, players, quarterbacks, the whole football team. He comes to work everyday. He is one of the best team players we have. He is all about our football team whatever he can do to help us win he'd do - mop the floors, he'd mop them. Like Troy Brown, you just can't say enough about a guy like Kevin Faulk.

Coach Belichick on Jabar Gaffney, Sept. 3

I think he is appreciated around here by the coaching staff, the offensive coaches, the players and the quarterback. He is a very versatile player. He does a lot of different things for us. I don't think there is any way for someone outside this organization to understand how versatile a player he is and how much he patches together, in one way or another, on different plays and formations. He is smart, versatile and a good receiver that has been effective in a lot of different situations - man, zone, red area, third down. He has a good skill set and is a very flexible player that helps our offense in many different ways - some subtle and some not so subtle. He is one of the bonding agents that holds things together.

Coach Belichick on Stephen Gostkowski, Oct. 6

Steve's been kicking the ball very well in all situations - kickoffs and all the field goal and extra point situations. Not only is he hitting them straight, but with good elevation, get-off time and good hang time on the kickoff. I think he's really done a good job in every opportunity he's had here in the past four games. He's been outstanding - he really has.

Coach Belichick on BenJarvus Green-Ellis, Oct. 29

I think he has gained everybody's confidence through his preseason play and his hard work. Anytime a guy doesn't get a lot of snaps then you put him in there and he does well on those few opportunities, you really respect that because of the 100 plays that could be called you pick out four or five and if he knows those with not too many repetitions than that gives you confidence that he is studying, that he is on top of it. I think Ben did that a lot in the preseason games where he didn't get a lot of plays in practice but whether it is blitz pickup or routes, or reads in the running game he showed that he could pick things up quickly and that led to his eventual promotion from the practice squad to the roster and opportunity to play and he has done that when he has been in the game. He still has a lot to learn, he is a young kid but he is tough and has done a good job in the opportunities that he's had and that is a real credit to him because he pays attention, he is up on all the little things and when something comes up most of the time he's pretty on top of it for the amount of reps he has had.

Coach Belichick on Gary Guyton, Nov. 4

He kind of has a little bit of everything but I don't know if he is the prototype in terms of size, speed and all of that for any of [the linebacker] positions. But he seems to do well enough to play elements of all of them. He was one of the fastest players at the combine at his position. His ability to run I think is evident and that shows up in the kicking game. We saw that early in the Baltimore game when he ran a return route out of bounds down there on the goal line for a long return. He has been on the field everyday. He just keeps getting better and working hard. He has some things going for him and the biggest thing is he is taking advantage of his play opportunity.

Coach Belichick on LaMont Jordan, Aug. 12

Every player has their own set of skills. I think LaMont has a good set. He is a powerful guy, has some quickness and catches the ball well. He has good speed, he is not a track guy, but he has competitive speed, good quickness and can get through the hole. He breaks tackles. He has some things going for him.

Coach Belichick on Jerod Mayo, Nov. 9

Jerod is a good football player. He has made a lot of plays, a lot of tackles for us. He is around the ball a lot but it has been like that all year, it really has even in preseason games and in training camp. He has a nose for the ball and he is quick, fast and plays strong. He is a strong tackler. He has been doing it pretty regularly. He is a hard working kid, I know he puts a lot into it and that's the kind of kid you are happy to see have success because I think he really deserves it - as hard as he works and as much as he puts into it.

Coach Belichick on Brandon Meriweather, Oct. 22

I think his awareness, his preparation, his overall decision making and recognition of what is going on and the quarterbacks and their tendencies, all of those things have improved significantly and he works hard at it. Brandon works hard at the preparation and I think that has paid off. Even though teams run the same patterns, who is running them and who is throwing them is different. So sometimes you want to play them differently. The plays he has made on the deep ball this season, he has been really productive back there.

COACH BELICHICK ON...

Coach Belichick on Deltha O'Neal, Oct. 8

Deltha's a smart guy. He's got a lot of experience. He's worked hard. He's picked up our system. I obviously wish that he would've been there through training camp to get all of the little things, but he's certainly worked hard to accelerate the learning and the communication, the adjustments, and all those kinds of things that we have to do defensively in the secondary. He's got a good work ethic. He's an experienced player. He understands concepts and he's an instinctive player. He's put it together pretty quickly. It's been really impressive really.

Coach Belichick on James Sanders, Oct. 22

James has come a long way as a player. He improved as a rookie but I think he dramatically improved after his second year after the Denver game [on Sept. 24, 2006] in his communication and his understanding of the passing game. I think when he came into the league he was a real good special teams player, real good physical player, real good tackler, real good in the running game. I think he has really developed in the passing game - coverages, techniques, understand coverages, how to organize the coverages in the secondary.

Coach Belichick on Lewis Sanders, Aug. 4

Lewis is working hard. He is another guy that has had a lot of different responsibilities for us in the kicking game, playing both corner and safety defensively. He's got good experience in a couple different systems so I don't think anything he is doing here is anything that new. It is just a question on some new terminology or adapting it to a different situation but he is an experienced guy and he keeps showing up. He shows up with a play or two every day and he is a hard working guy.

Coach Belichick on Richard Seymour, Aug. 13

I think Richard has [tipped as many passes and disrupted the quarterback] as well as anybody. Year in and year out, he has tipped more balls than anybody around here and more than anyone I have coached. He is tall and has long arms. He is athletic, can jump and has a good sense of timing of when to try and get in the throwing lane, when to keep rushing the quarterback and attack the blocker. He is probably as good as you are going to get at that.

Coach Belichick on Adalius Thomas, Aug. 13

Adalius is a smart guy who works hard. He has played in multiple positions in our defense. Last year at this time he was playing inside, getting some reps outside, involved in different things in the sub defense, playing off and on the line, playing in coverage and playing as part of the pass rush. He has a lot of experience from doing different things. He has a lot of game situations under his belt. I think he has really become one of the leaders on defense, not that he wasn't last year but more so going into his second year. Going into his second year he knows more of what he is doing as opposed to feeling like 'I have to learn this and learn that.' I am not saying he doesn't have anything to learn; we all have more to learn. He is a lot further ahead than he was last year. He has been very positive in his work ethic and with helping some of the younger linebackers like Shawn [Crabbe], Vince [Redd], Pierre [Woods] and those guys. He really stepped up and gave a lot of leadership and good work ethic to the entire unit. He has done well and we are glad to have him.

Coach Belichick on David Thomas, Aug. 19

The bad news for David [Thomas] was '07. The good news was he really got off to a good start in '08. Kind of getting off to a good start, he's been able to maintain that momentum and the start there in the spring has carried over in the training camp and the preseason ... David works hard. He works hard at everything. He's a very competitive kid. He's smart. He knows how to use his strengths, leverage and position to his advantage. He competes hard. He has good playing strength and good quickness. He has done a good job with that.

Coach Belichick on Ray Ventrone, Sept. 15

No one has worked harder than Ray. He's just continued to improve the last couple years. He has good playing strength. He has good speed and he's a tough, fearless guy. He will throw his body in there, anywhere, in any situation. He has good concentration, like we saw in preseason, catching the ball - taking hits in traffic, hanging onto it and running with it after the catch. He's really been able to develop as an offensive and a defensive player, as well as, his role in the kicking game. That's kind of self-contained. But, on offense and defense he's been able to work into roles on those sides of the ball and actually take reps in both areas on a pretty consistent basis. He's kind of a unique player in his role, his niche and his versatility. You usually don't see a player have the kind of exceptional toughness and the kind of physical play that he does - that does all that. That's kind of a rare combination of forces coming together in his skill set

Coach Belichick on Mike Vrabel, Oct. 8

Mike's one of our most consistent, versatile players. We ask him to do a lot of things, defensively, and also goal-line stuff on offense, things like that. Mike's very smart. He's one of the best prepared, smartest players I've ever coached. He can do a lot of things in regular defense, sub defenses. He can rush the passer, play in coverage. He has a lot of different responsibilities. He kind of thrives when we're changing things up and he's doing different things and playing in different spots and we move him around. We ask him to do that a lot because he does a good job.

Coach Belichick on Wes Welker, Sept. 16

His quickness [and] his running style make him effective after the catch. He's strong for his size. He has good balance and he's a hard guy to wrap up and tackle. [He is] similar to but also different than Troy Brown, who was another smaller type of guy who was hard to tackle because he could make people miss and bounce off some tackles because of his size, lower body strength and balance. He's able to stay on his feet and gain some extra yards. So, it's a combination of quickness, running style and vision. I think Wes does a good job of finding where there is a soft spot on defense and getting what's there.

Coach Belichick on Terrence Wheatley and Jonathan Wilhite, Sept. 30

I think [Terrence] Wheatley and Jonathan Wilhite have both improved quite a bit. They worked hard, got a lot of snaps in training camp and in the preseason games, especially Wheatley. As we have gotten into the regular season we have cut down because of our scheme, we just game plan for one team. Instead of running everything against everything, we narrow it down to the calls we are going to make in this particular game plan. I think that helps young players and new players coming into your team because they don't have to worry about every defense against every formation and every adjustment. I think there has been some improvement with Wheatley and Wilhite.

Coach Belichick on Pierre Woods, July 27

Pierre [Woods] is one of our hardest workers and one of our most diligent players. He works hard at his job and tries to do everything right, just the way you want it.

TEAM NEWS & NOTES

PATRIOTS ARE LEAST-PENALIZED TEAM IN 2008

The Patriots have been flagged for 26 accepted penalties in 2008 – the fewest of any NFL team this season. New England has had 31 penalties called against it (five have been declined), a figure that also leads the league. On Oct. 26 against St. Louis, the Patriots were not flagged for any accepted penalties, marking the first penalty-free game in the franchise's 731-game history. New England's penalty-free performance was the 50th in the NFL since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. The Patriots are on pace to be called for just 46 accepted penalties this season, a total that would set a new franchise record (besting the team's 50 penalties in 1973). The Seattle Seahawks had 59 accepted penalties last season – the fewest in the NFL since the league adopted the 16-game schedule in 1978.

SOLID DOWN THE STRETCH

The Patriots have traditionally stepped things up a notch as the calendar has flipped to November. GAME NOTES: GAMES 1 & 2

GAME 1: PATRIOTS 17, CHIEFS 10

September 7, 2008 ★ Gillette Stadium (Att: 68,756)

| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | Final |
|-----------------------------|---|---|---|---|-------|
| Kansas City Chiefs | 0 | 3 | 0 | 7 | — 10 |
| New England Patriots | 0 | 7 | 7 | 3 | — 17 |

The Patriots won their 20th consecutive regular-season game, a 17-10 victory over Kansas City to open the 2008 season. Randy Moss had six catches for 116 yards and a touchdown, while the Patriots totaled 126 rushing yards on 28 carries (4.5 avg.) and quarterback Matt Cassel completed 13-of-18 passes (72.2 percent) and threw for a touchdown in relief of an injured Tom Brady, who sustained a knee injury in the first quarter.

RED ZONE STOP IN FINAL MINUTE

The Patriots defense clinched the 17-10 win by keeping Kansas City out of the end zone after the Chiefs had gained a first-and-goal from the 5-yard line with 53 seconds left in the game. The Patriots did not allow the Chiefs to even gain a yard. The Patriots forced an incompleteness on first down, Richard Seymour and Mike Vrabel combined to stop Larry Johnson for no gain on second down, and then New England forced two straight Kansas City incompleteness on third and fourth downs.

CASSEL LEADS 98-YARD DRIVE

In his first drive at quarterback in the first quarter, Matt Cassel directed a 10-play, 98-yard drive that ended in a 10-yard scoring strike to Randy Moss and a 7-0 Patriots lead. The drive was the longest for the Patriots since Sept. 23, 2007, when they also embarked on a 10-play, 98-yard drive against Buffalo at Gillette Stadium.

MOSS BREAKS 100-YARD MARK IN 1ST QUARTER

Randy Moss had 101 yards on four receptions in the first quarter, marking the third time in his career that he has broken the 100-yard receiving mark in the first quarter. The last time he achieved the feat was on Oct. 3, 1999, while playing for Minnesota in a game against Tampa Bay. Last season, Moss had 100 or more receiving yards in a quarter on one occasion—in the second quarter at Miami on Oct. 21, 2007, when he had 104 yards on three receptions.

HOBBS INTERCEPTION

Ellis Hobbs intercepted a Damon Huard pass at the Kansas City 41-yard line with 7:21 remaining in the game and the Patriots holding a 14-10 lead. Hobbs pounced on the pass intended for Dwayne Bowe and returned the ball to the 38-yard line. The interception was the seventh of Hobbs's regular-season career. He also has two career postseason interceptions. Including his interception against Kansas City, Hobbs had four interceptions in a five-game span—he had one in the 2007 regular season finale and added two in three playoff games last season.

MORRIS SCORES

Sammy Morris gave the Patriots a 14-3 lead on a 5-yard scoring run with 3:01 left in the third quarter. The touchdown was the 19th of Morris's career (18 rushing, one receiving). Last season, Morris played in six games with two starts and totaled 384 yards on 85 rushes (4.5 avg.) before being placed on injured reserve with a chest injury on Nov. 2, 2007.

CASSEL-TO-MOSS

Matt Cassel's 51-yard completion to Randy Moss on the final play of the first quarter was the longest completion of his career at the time, topping his 36-yard completion to Andre Davis in the 2005 regular-season finale against Miami on Jan. 1, 2006.

GAME 2: PATRIOTS 19, JETS 10

September 14, 2008 ★ Giants Stadium (Att: 78,554)

| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | Final |
|-----------------------------|---|---|----|---|-------|
| New England Patriots | 3 | 3 | 10 | 3 | — 19 |
| New York Jets | 0 | 3 | 0 | 7 | — 10 |

The Patriots began the season with a 2-0 record for the third straight season and won their 21st consecutive regular-season game, a 19-10 road divisional victory over the New York Jets. Matt Cassel, in his first career start at quarterback, completed nearly 70 percent of his passes, while Stephen Gostkowski hit all four of his field goal attempts to help the Patriots to victory. New England's defense allowed just 10 points for the second straight week, and a key interception by Brandon Meriweather in the third quarter set up a New England touchdown that gave the Patriots a solid lead.

CASSEL WINS FIRST CAREER START

Matt Cassel made his first career start at quarterback and completed 16-of-23 passes (69.6 percent) for 165 yards and a passer rating of 89.9 in helping the Patriots to a 19-10 divisional win on the road. New England started the season with a 2-0 record for the third straight year and for the fifth time in the nine seasons since Bill Belichick became head coach in 2000.

DEFENSE: 20 POINTS THROUGH TWO GAMES

The Patriots allowed the Jets to score 10 points and allowed a total of just 20 points through two games (Kansas City also scored 10 points in a 17-10 Patriots win on Sept. 7). The 20 points allowed through the season's first two games is the lowest total by a Patriots team since Bill Belichick became head coach in 2000. The last time the Patriots allowed a total of 20 points or fewer in the season's first two games was in 1997, when New England allowed a total of 13 points, beginning the season with a 41-7 win over San Diego at Foxboro Stadium and following that up with a 31-6 win at Indianapolis.

GOSTKOWSKI TIES CAREER HIGH

Stephen Gostkowski nailed all four of his field goals – from 21, 37, 28 and 27 yards – improving to a perfect 5-for-5 on the season. He tied his career high for field goals in a game, matching his 4-for-4 performance against Houston as a rookie on Dec. 17, 2006.

MERIWEATHER'S FIRST CAREER INTERCEPTION SETS UP TOUCHDOWN

Brandon Meriweather recorded his first career interception, picking off a Brett Favre pass at the Jets' 44-yard line in the third quarter and returning it 13 yards to give the Patriots possession at the New York 31-yard line. The play set up a 6-play, 31-yard drive that ended in a 1-yard scoring plunge by Sammy Morris that gave the Patriots a 13-3 lead. Meriweather was selected by the Patriots in the first round (24th overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft out of Miami.

SERIES STREAKS

- With their win over the Jets, the Patriots took the lead in the all-time series against New York, 49-48-1 (including a 2-0 playoff record). The last time the Patriots were above .500 in their all-time series with New York was in entering the 1967 season, when they led 7-6-1.
- The Patriots defeated the Jets for the eighth consecutive time on the road. The streak dates back to a 17-16 win at Giants Stadium on Dec. 2, 2001.
- The Patriots have now held the Jets to 17 points or fewer in 10 of their last 11 meetings.

HOBBS SETS PATRIOTS RECORD FOR MOST KICKOFF RETURN YARDAGE IN A GAME

Ellis Hobbs totaled 237 yards on six kickoff returns, setting a Patriots record for most kickoff return yardage in a game. Hobbs topped the previous Patriots record of 220 kickoff return yards, set by Kevin Faulk against the New York Jets on Dec. 22, 2002. Hobbs had long kickoff returns of 81 yards and 50 yards en route to his record against the Dolphins. His 82-yard return in the third quarter set up Matt Cassel's 5-yard touchdown pass to Jabar Gaffney. Playing in his 50th career game, Hobbs returned the opening kickoff of the game 50 yards to the Miami 49-yard line. In his 50-game career, Hobbs has now recorded six kickoff returns of 50 yards or longer and nine kickoff returns of 40 yards or longer.

GAFFNEY SCORES

Jabar Gaffney snared a 5-yard touchdown pass from Matt Cassel on fourth-and-three with 3:20 remaining in the third quarter to cut the Miami lead to 28-13. The touchdown catch was Gaffney's first of the season and the 14th of his career. Last season, Gaffney set a career high with five touchdown receptions.

QUICK HITS

- 2008 Patriots Hall of Fame Inductee Ben Coates served as an honorary captain at the coin toss.
- The Dolphins game was the 153rd straight home sellout for the Patriots. The streak is now in its 15th season and includes every Patriots preseason, regular-season and playoff game since the 1994 regular-season opener.
- Patriots tackle Matt Light played in his 100th career game. Light, a 2008 offensive captain, was drafted by the Patriots in the second round (48th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft.
- Sam Aiken made his Patriots debut after missing the first two games of the season. Aiken, signed as a free agent from the Buffalo Bills in the offseason, caught his first pass in a New England uniform in the second quarter, a 9-yard catch on third-and-two.

Matt Cassel set career highs in passing yards and completions, while Randy Moss totaled 111 receiving yards, including a 66-yard touchdown grab. Stephen Gostkowski was a perfect three-for-three on field goals, including a crucial 49-yarder that gave the Patriots a two-score advantage in the fourth quarter. The Patriots defense came up with three interceptions to help halt the San Francisco momentum, while Kevin Faulk set a career high with two rushing touchdowns.

CAREER HIGHS FOR CASSEL

Quarterback Matt Cassel set single-game career highs with 259 yards, 22 completions and 32 attempts. Prior to the game against the 49ers, his previous single-game highs were 168 yards (vs. Miami on Jan. 1, 2006), 19 completions (vs. Miami on Sept. 21, 2008) and 31 attempts (vs. Miami on Sept. 21, 2008).

FAULK'S GOAL LINE SCORES

Kevin Faulk scored on a two-yard run to give the Patriots a 17-14 lead with six seconds remaining in the first half and a two-yard run on fourth and goal to give the Patriots a 24-14 lead in the third quarter. It was the first time Faulk has scored two rushing touchdowns in a game and just the third time he has scored two total touchdowns in a game (vs. Houston, 12/17/06 and at Chicago, 11/10/02). The touchdowns were Faulk's first two of the season. Faulk's first touchdown was his first rushing score since Dec. 17, 2006, when he had an 11-yard scoring run against the Houston Texans.

MOSS GOES FOR 111

Randy Moss had five receptions for 111 yards, recording his second 100-yard receiving game of the season and the 57th 100-yard receiving game of his career. Moss's 57 career 100-yard receiving games rank third in NFL history, trailing only Jerry Rice (76) and Marvin Harrison (59). In 2007, Moss had nine 100-yard receiving games. Moss had four catches for 111 yards in the first half against San Francisco.

CASSEL BOMB TO MOSS

On third and eight from the 49ers' 34-yard line in the first quarter, Matt Cassel rolled to his right and hit Randy Moss, who had split the defense down the middle, on a 66-yard touchdown, tying the score at seven. The catch was Moss's longest reception as a Patriot and his longest reception since Oct. 2, 2005, when he snared a 79-yard catch while playing for Oakland against the Dallas Cowboys. The touchdown toss was the longest of Matt Cassel's career, the longest play of the year for the Patriots and the longest since Donté Stallworth's 69-yard touchdown reception against Dallas on Oct. 4, 2007. The touchdown was Moss's 126th career scoring reception and his 25th touchdown grab since joining the Patriots via trade prior to the 2007 season. Last season, Moss had touchdown receptions of 65 yards (at N.Y. Giants, 12/29/07) and 63 yards (vs. Pittsburgh, 12/9/07).

FIRST WIN IN SAN FRANCISCO

The Patriots' 30-21 victory over the 49ers was New England's first win in San Francisco. The Patriots had lost in each of their four previous road matchups with the 49ers. The Washington Redskins are now the only NFL team the Patriots have never beaten on the road.

GAME NOTES: GAMES 5 & 6

GAME 5: CHARGERS 30, PATRIOTS 10

October 12, 2008 ★ Qualcomm Stadium (Att: 68,704)

| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | Final |
|----------------------|----|---|----|---|-------|
| New England Patriots | 0 | 3 | 0 | 7 | — 10 |
| San Diego Chargers | 10 | 7 | 10 | 3 | — 30 |

The Patriots saw their 12-game road winning streak snapped in a 30-10 loss to San Diego at Qualcomm Stadium. The Chargers took a 10-0 lead in the first quarter and held off New England's second-half comeback try to snap the Patriots' 11-game winning streak in the month of October. The Patriots seemed poised to cut the deficit to 17-10 after getting the opening kickoff of the second half and gaining a first-and-goal on the San Diego 1-yard line. But the Chargers came up with a goal-line stand to maintain a 17-3 lead and promptly drove the length of the field to extend their advantage to 24-3. Two San Diego field goals extended the lead to 30-3 before a New England touchdown with 5:18 left in the game made the final score 30-10.

ROAD STREAK ENDS

The loss to San Diego ended the Patriots' streak of 12 consecutive regular season road victories, dating back to a Dec. 24, 2006 win against the Jaguars in Jacksonville. The Patriots' 12-game road winning streak is the second-longest road winning streak in NFL history (San Francisco, 18, 1988-90). Three teams have won 11 straight road games (San Diego 1960-61, San Francisco 1987-88, Pittsburgh 2004-05).

WELKER CONSISTENT

Wes Welker had nine catches against San Diego, marking the fifth straight game to open the season that Welker has had six or more catches. Welker has 36 receptions in 2008 and is averaging 7.2 catches per game this season after averaging seven catches per game in 2007, his first season with the Patriots. Welker's 112 catches in 2007 tied for the league lead and set an NFL record for most receptions by a player in his first season with a new team.

FUMBLE RECOVERY

Ty Warren recovered a fumble by Jacob Hester in the fourth quarter, marking the Patriots' first defensive fumble recovery of the season. The fumble recovery was the sixth of Warren's career, and set up an 8-play, 46-yard drive that ended in a 1-yard touchdown run by Sammy Morris.

MORRIS TOUCHDOWN

Sammy Morris scored on a 1-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter to make the score 30-10. The touchdown was Morris' third rushing score of the season and was the 20th rushing touchdown of his 9-year NFL career. He also has one career receiving touchdown. Morris's three total touchdowns lead the team through five games and equal his total of three touchdowns in 2007.

MORRIS CATCH

Sammy Morris gained 28 yards on a pass play in the third quarter, tying the second longest reception of his career. The catch trails only his 44-yard reception on Oct. 22, 2006 while he was with the Miami Dolphins. Morris's other 28-yard reception also came that year during the Dolphins' Dec. 10 game against the Patriots. Morris's 28-yard catch against the Chargers set the Patriots up in a first-and-goal from the 1-yard line.

QUICK HITS

- The Patriots lost a game in October for the first time since 2005, snapping a streak of 11 straight October wins. Prior to falling in San Diego, the Patriots' last loss in October came on Oct. 16, 2005, a 28-20 loss at Denver.

GAME 6: PATRIOTS 41, BRONCOS 7

October 20, 2008 ★ Gillette Stadium (Att: 68,756)

| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | Final |
|----------------------|---|----|----|---|-------|
| Denver Broncos | 0 | 0 | 0 | 7 | — 7 |
| New England Patriots | 6 | 14 | 14 | 7 | — 41 |

The New England Patriots improved to 4-2 on the season with a 41-7 win over Denver at Gillette Stadium. The Patriots tied their largest Monday Night Football victory and improved to 15-1 since 2003 following a loss. New England's defense forced five turnovers and the Patriots offense converted those takeaways into a total of 20 points. The New England rushing attack totaled 257 yards – its highest total in 15 years – and Matt Cassel set a career high with three touchdown passes, two to Randy Moss.

PATRIOTS RUSHING TOTAL TIES MOST IN A SINGLE GAME SINCE 1985

As a team, the Patriots ran for 257 yards on 38 carries (6.8 avg.), tying the team's highest single-game rushing total since Dec. 22, 1985, when the Patriots posted 281 yards on 46 carries (6.1 avg.) against the Cincinnati Bengals. New England rushing total against Denver matched their Dec. 26, 1993 total of 257 yards (on 58 carries) against Indianapolis as the highest since that 1985 game. Against Denver, Sammy Morris led the way with a career-high 138 rushing yards, while rookie BenJarvus Green-Ellis added 65 yards on 13 carries, Kevin Faulk picked up 50 yards on four carries, Heath Evans had three yards on one carry and Matt Cassel has one yard on four carries, including three game-ending kneeldowns.

CASSEL'S PASSER RATING RANKS IN FRANCHISE TOP 10

Matt Cassel posted a career-high passer rating of 136.3, completing 18-of-24 passes (75 percent) for 185 yards and three touchdowns. Cassel's 136.3 passer rating places among the Patriots' top 10 single-game passer ratings since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, ranking 10th on that list, just ahead of Drew Bledsoe's 136.2 rating on Sept. 7, 1997 against Indianapolis. Cassel's three touchdowns against Denver also set a new career high, and his 75 percent completion rate was also a career best.

TURNING OVER POINTS

The Patriots forced five Denver turnovers and scored 20 points off of those turnovers. The five forced turnovers were the most for the Patriots since also forcing five in a 28-21 win over Detroit on Dec. 3, 2006. New England's 20 points off turnovers were its highest total since scoring 21 points off of four Cleveland turnovers in a 34-17 win on Oct. 7, 2007.

CAREER HIGH FOR MORRIS

Running back Sammy Morris had a career-high 138 rushing yards on 16 carries (8.6 avg.), topping his previous career best of 123 yards on 25 carries while playing for the Miami Dolphins against the Patriots on Dec. 10, 2006. Morris broke the 100-yard rushing mark early in the second quarter, totaling exactly 100 yards on his first nine rushes of the game.

CASSEL-TO-MOSS FOR TWO

Randy Moss caught two touchdown passes from Matt Cassel – a 13-yard strike in the second quarter and a 27-yard score on a catch-and-run play in the third quarter. Moss's second score gave the Patriots a 27-0 lead with 7:32 left in the third quarter. The two-touchdown performance marked Moss's first multiple-touchdown game of the season and his ninth since joining the Patriots via trade prior to the 2007 season. The two-touchdown game against Denver marked the 30th time in his career that Moss has caught two or more scoring passes in a game. Moss now has 128 career touchdown receptions, a total that ranks fourth all-time and is two behind Cris Carter's total of 130 scoring catches.

GAME NOTES: GAMES 7 & 8

GAME 7: PATRIOTS 23, RAMS 16

October 26, 2008 ★ Gillette Stadium (Att: 68,756)

| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | Final |
|----------------------|---|---|---|----|-------|
| St. Louis Rams | 3 | 7 | 3 | 3 | — 16 |
| New England Patriots | 7 | 6 | 0 | 10 | — 23 |

The Patriots improved to 5-2 on the season with a fourth-quarter comeback against St. Louis leading to a 23-16 win. The Patriots trailed 16-13 with fewer than 10 minutes to go in the game, but a 41-yard field goal by Stephen Gostkowski tied the score with 8:22 remaining and a 15-yard scoring strike from Matt Cassel to Kevin Faulk provided the game-winning touchdown with 3:13 left. Cassel set a career high with 267 yards, while Randy Moss totaled 102 yards on seven catches. The Patriots defense had seven quarterback hits, including four sacks, and Deltha O'Neal's interception with just more than one minute left helped to seal the victory for the Patriots.

PATRIOTS TURN IN FRANCHISE'S FIRST PENALTY-FREE PERFORMANCE

The Patriots were not flagged for any accepted penalties against St. Louis, marking the first penalty-free game in the franchise's 731-game history. The Patriots have been called for just one penalty in a game on 13 occasions, most recently on Sept. 10, 2006 against Buffalo. New England's penalty-free performance was the first in the NFL this season and the first for an NFL team since Seattle was not flagged for any accepted infractions against Baltimore on Dec. 23, 2007. The Patriots' penalty-free game was the 50th such performance by an NFL team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

FAULK'S GAME-WINNING TD CATCH

Kevin Faulk hauled in the game-winning touchdown catch, a 15-yard reception from Matt Cassel with 3:13 remaining in the game, breaking a 16-16 tie and providing the winning 23-16 margin. Faulk had four catches for 48 yards and a touchdown to go along with 13 rushes for 60 yards, good for 108 total yards from scrimmage on 17 total touches (6.4 avg.). Faulk's touchdown was his third of the season and his first via reception (the other two were scored rushing).

100-YARD GAME FOR MOSS

Randy Moss had 102 yards on seven rushes, marking his third 100-yard receiving game of the season, his 12th 100-yard receiving game as a Patriot and the 58th 100-yard receiving game of his career. Moss's 58 100-yard receiving games rank third in NFL history, trailing only Jerry Rice (76) and Marvin Harrison (59).

CASSEL LEADS FIRST CAREER FOURTH-QUARTER COMEBACK

Matt Cassel led his first career fourth-quarter comeback, helping to rally the Patriots to a 23-16 win after facing a 16-13 fourth-quarter deficit. After the Rams took the lead, 16-13, on a 25-yard field goal with 12:25 left, Cassel directed a 6-play, 28-yard drive that led the Patriots into field goal range as Stephen Gostkowski tied the score at 16 on a 41-yard boot. After a three-and-out by the New England defense, Cassel and the Patriots offense drove 53 yards on seven plays to take a 23-16 lead on a 15-yard scoring strike from Cassel to Kevin Faulk. A Deltha O'Neal interception ended the Rams' next drive, and by the time St. Louis got the ball back with five seconds left in the game, the New England defense only needed one stop to preserve the win.

FIRST-TIME VISITORS

The Rams made their first visit to Gillette Stadium, and the Patriots improved to 24-4 against first-time visitors to the venue. The Patriots have won 20 of their last 21 games against teams making their first visit. The only teams the Patriots have not played at Gillette Stadium are Arizona, Atlanta and Carolina.

The Patriots dropped a tight game on the road to the Indianapolis Colts, falling 18-15 after a game-winning 52-yard field goal by Indianapolis in the fourth quarter that broke a 15-15 tie. The Patriots came from behind to tie or take the lead twice in the game. After falling behind 7-0, the Patriots rallied to take a 12-7 lead in the third quarter. The Colts then regained the lead (15-12) with a touchdown, before New England tied the game at 15 early in the final quarter. Despite the loss, the Patriots outgained the Colts 342-301 and outrushed Indianapolis 140-47. Matt Cassel completed 73.5 percent of his passes (25-for-34) and the Patriots rushing attack, led by Kevin Faulk and BenJarvus Green-Ellis, averaged 4.4 yards per carry (140 yards on 32 rushes).

WELKER TIES RECORD FOR MOST GAMES WITH SIX OR MORE CATCHES TO OPEN SEASON

On a 10-yard reception in the fourth quarter – his sixth catch of the game – Wes Welker tied the NFL record for most games with six or more receptions to begin a season. Welker has had six or more receptions the Patriots' first eight games and ties the record established by Jacksonville's Jimmy Smith in 2001.

GREEN-ELLIS SCORES FOR THIRD STRAIGHT WEEK

Rookie running back BenJarvus Green-Ellis gave the Patriots a 12-7 lead on a 6-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. The scoring run was Green-Ellis's third of the season, the third of his career and his third in as many weeks, having also scored against Denver on Oct. 29 and against St. Louis on Oct. 26. Green-Ellis, who was originally signed by the Patriots in the offseason as an undrafted rookie free agent out of Mississippi, was signed to New England's active roster on Oct. 11. He has now scored a touchdown in three of his four professional games.

QUICK HITS

- Kelley Washington tackled Colts punt returner Marvin Harrison at the Indianapolis 9-yard line in the first quarter after just a 2-yard punt return, helping the Patriots to net 62 yards on a 64-yard Chris Hanson punt.
- Kevin Faulk completed a pass to Wes Welker for a 2-yard loss in the second quarter. The completion was the second of Faulk's career, and came on his fourth career passing attempt (and his first since 2003). Faulk's only career completion prior to the Colts game came on a 23-yard completion to Tom Brady in 2001.
- The Patriots outgained the Colts in total yardage, 342-301.
- Jerod Mayo, the NFL's defensive rookie of the month for October, led the Patriots with 11 tackles (8 solo).

FAULK BREAKS 3,000-YARD RECEIVING MARK

On an 11-yard reception in the second quarter, Kevin Faulk recorded his 3,000th receiving yard, becoming the 14th player in Patriots history to break the 3,000 receiving yard mark. Following his 11-yard catch against the Colts, Faulk had 3,003 career receiving yards – a total that ranks 14th in team history.

PENALTY-FREE STREAK BROKEN

The Patriots were called for a false start penalty in the third quarter, breaking a streak of seven penalty-free quarters. Prior to the third-quarter false start, the last time the Patriots were penalized was in the third quarter against Denver on Oct. 20. On Oct. 26 against St. Louis, the Patriots played the first penalty-free game in franchise history.
