When will game times be determined?

Game times will be determined by the NCAA. It is expected that fans will be informed of the game times by February 2008.

Where should we stay during the championships?

There is a wide array of hotels throughout New England. Boston is located 25 miles from Gillette Stadium, which is where the participating teams will stay. In addition, there are over 10,000 hotel rooms located within 10 miles of the Stadium. For information on hotels and to make hotel reservations, please check out the Fan Housing Website (www.lax2008.com).

What airport should we fly in to?

Boston's Logan International Airport (www.massport.com) is the largest airport in New England, offering direct non-stop service to 79 U.S. and 37 International destinations. It is located conveniently to downtown Boston. TF Green Airport, Providence, Rhode Island, and Manchester Airport, Manchester, New Hampshire, also offer convenient alternatives.

If we stay in Boston, how do we get to Gillette Stadium?

Downtown Boston is located 25 miles from Gillette Stadium. Fans staying in Boston will be able to utilize the FREE non-stop MBTA train that will run during the championships from Boston's Back Bay Station to Gillette Stadium. The train station is approximately 150 yards from the Stadium.

Where will be able to park?

Gillette Stadium owns 16,500 parking spaces adjacent to the facility. As a convenience to fans, a parking fee has been included in all ticket prices thereby eliminating the need to worry about parking passes.

Where is bus/rv parking?

There is plenty of parking for buses or RV's in the paved lot across Route 1 from Gillette Stadium. This is the same lot used for football and other major events. RV's will NOT be permitted to remain in the parking lot overnight.

Are there any area campgrounds we can park our camper?

For those fans using RV's and needing a campground, Normandy Farms Campground (<http://www.normandyfarms.com/>) is approximately three miles from the Stadium.

Will there be any activities for kids?

It is our goal to maximize the pre-game experience for all kids attending the championships. We will be working with the NCAA and its corporate partners to create a wonderful activity area at the Stadium.

Will there be a youth clinic?

It is anticipated that there will be a clinic for boys and girls during the weekend. Specific information will be available after we receive more details from the NCAA.

Will there be a youth tournament conducted in conjunction with the championships?

Gillette Stadium is working with several youth organizations to promote the concept of a youth lacrosse event during championships weekend. The main challenge associated with this concept is timing. With five NCAA games, it is difficult to find a large time block for this youth event.

Where can I find New England visitor information?

There are many fine websites promoting cultural and tourism activities in New England. The initial search should be at <http://www.bostonusa.com> or to speak with a Visitor Services Representative from the Greater Boston Convention & Visitors Bureau call toll free 1-888-SEE-BOSTON (1-888-733-2678).
