

PATRIOTS VS. RAVENS

SERIES HISTORY

The Patriots and Ravens have squared off five times in the regular season since the Baltimore franchise was founded following the Cleveland Browns' move to Baltimore in 1996. New England owns a perfect 5-0 record over Baltimore, including a 27-21 victory at Gillette Stadium in Week 4 of the 2009 season. This week's game will be the first time the teams will be meeting in postseason play.

The Ravens' first trip to Gillette Stadium came on Nov. 28, 2004 with the Patriots claiming a 24-3 victory. Baltimore's first visit to Foxborough was the final game of the 1999 regular season, a 20-3 New England win. The first meeting between the teams came during the Ravens' first season in Baltimore, when the Patriots prevailed 46-38 on Oct. 6, 1996. The 84 total points scored by both teams in that game rank as the second-highest total number of points in a game in Patriots history.

TE Benjamin Watson

- Tied a single-game career high with two touchdown receptions vs. the Bills (9/14).

WR Wes Welker

- Finished the season with 123 receptions for 1,348 receiving yards.
- His 123 receptions were tops in the league and the second most in a single season in NFL history, despite two complete games due to injury.
- His 1,348 receiving yards finished second in the NFL and third most in Patriots history.
- Earned his second Pro Bowl berth.
- Averaged 8.8 receptions per game, the second highest average in NFL history.

- Registered his third straight season with at least 100 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards while setting a career high in receiving yards.
- Owns the Patriots' three highest single-season reception totals with 123 in 2009, 112 in 2007 and 111 in 2008.
- Joins Marvin Harrison (4), Jerry Rice (3) Herman Moore (3) and Brandon Marshall (3) as the only NFL players to catch 100 passes in three consecutive seasons.
- Reached 100 receptions in his 11th game of the season to tie Marvin Harrison for the fewest individual games played to reach 100 receptions in a season in NFL history. (Welker missed two games in 2009 due to injury.)
- Finished with 10 receptions in a game seven times to tie the NFL record for most 10-plus reception games in a single season, matching Houston's Andre Johnson who had seven in 2008.
- Set a franchise record for receptions in a non-overtime game while also establishing single-game career highs in receptions (15) and receiving yards (192) vs. the NY Jets (11/22).
- Welker and Randy Moss each hauled in 12 catches for the Patriots in the first meeting in 2009 against Buffalo, with each player tying the team's fifth-highest single-game reception total. It is the first time in team history that two players have had at least 12 catches in the same game.
- He and Moss became the first Patriots to have back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons last season and have now stretched that to three straight 1,000 yard seasons and are just the sixth tandem to accomplish the feat for three straight seasons.

NT Vince Wilfork

- Earned his second Pro Bowl berth.
- Led Patriots defensive linemen with 65 total tackles.
- Registered his first career forced fumble at the NY Jets (9/20).

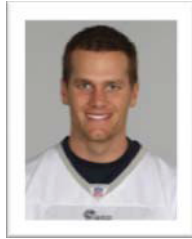

DL Mike Wright

- Set a career high with five sacks for a loss of 45 yards.
- Set a single-game career high with a two-sack performance vs. the Baltimore Ravens (10/4).

FOUR PATRIOTS SELECTED TO AFC PRO BOWL SQUAD

MANKINS AND WILFORK SELECTED AS STARTERS; BRADY AND WELKER AS RESERVES

Quarterback Tom Brady, G Logan Mankins, WR Wes Welker and NT Vince Wilfork were selected to represent the New England Patriots and the AFC in the 2010 Pro Bowl on Jan. 31 in South Florida. Mankins and Wilfork were selected as starters, while Brady and Welker were selected as reserves. It is the fifth Pro Bowl selection for Brady (2001, 2004, 2005 and 2007) and the second for Mankins (2007), Welker (2008) and Wilfork (2007).

Mankins was named to his second Pro Bowl in three seasons when he became the first Patriots guard to earn a Pro Bowl selection since 1985 when Pro Football Hall of Famer John Hannah went to his ninth career Pro Bowl. Mankins joins Hannah as the only Patriots guards to earn Pro Bowl bids since the 1970 merger. The Fresno State product is in his fifth season with the Patriots since being selected in the first round (32nd overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft. He has started all 16 games this season and has never missed an NFL game, starting all 80 of his career games. Mankins is part of an offensive line that has allowed only 18 sacks. The average of 1.1 sacks per game is the second lowest in team history.

Wilfork earned his second Pro Bowl berth after helping the Patriots finish 11th in total defense and fifth in points allowed. Since being selected in the first round (21st overall) of the 2004 draft out of Miami, Wilfork has helped the Patriots defense finish in the top 10 on four occasions (2004, 2005, 2007 and 2008). Since 2004, the Patriots own a 73-23 (.760) record in the regular season. Wilfork led the defensive line with 65 total tackles. He had a team-leading 10 total tackles in a key 31-14 AFC East victory over the New York Jets on Nov. 22. Wilfork was selected by his teammates as a defensive captain in 2009 for the second straight season.

Brady finished the season with 4,398 yards passing and 28 touchdowns. He threw for 300 yards seven times, including a streak of five straight games. It is his third season with over 4,000 yards and his fifth season with 25 or more touchdowns in a season. Brady's five seasons with at least 25 touchdowns are tied with Drew Brees for the fifth-most in NFL history. Brady became the Patriots' all-time leading passer in 2009 and also became the 31st NFL player to reach the 30,000-yard milestone. He was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week three times in 2009 and was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for October.

Welker finished first in the NFL with 123 receptions in 2009, a Patriots single-season record that eclipses the 112 he had in 2007. Welker broke the 100-reception milestone for the third straight season after catching 112 passes in 2007 and 111 in 2008. He joins Marvin Harrison (4), Jerry Rice (3), Herman Moore (3) and Brandon Marshall (3) as the only NFL players to catch 100 passes in three consecutive seasons. Welker also set a career-high with 1,348 yards receiving. Welker and Randy Moss became the first Patriots players to have three straight 1,000-yard seasons and just the sixth pair in NFL history to have three straight 1,000 yard seasons.

PATRIOTS IN THE PLAYOFFS

PATRIOTS IN THE PLAYOFFS

New England has qualified for the playoffs 17 times in its 50-year history. Eleven of those playoff berths have come in the 16 seasons since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, a dramatic contrast to the six total playoff berths that the team earned in its first 34 years of existence. New England has won 12 division crowns, including seven in the past nine seasons, and has qualified as a Wild Card team on four occasions (1998, 1994, 1985 and 1976). The Patriots also qualified for the playoffs in 1982 as part of a 16-team tournament following a players' strike.

ANNUAL ACHIEVEMENTS

The Patriots have won more than half of their games for the ninth straight year after finishing with a 10-6 record. They are the first team to win more than half of their games in nine straight seasons since free agency began in 1993.

The Patriots are the fifth team to win more than half of their games in nine straight seasons since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, joining the 49ers (16 straight from 1983-1998), the Cowboys (16 straight from 1970-85), the Raiders (11 straight from 1970-80) and the Steelers (9 straight from 1972-80).

The Patriots have now won nine or more games 13 of the 16 seasons Robert Kraft has owned the team.

HOME SWEET HOME

The Patriots are 11-1 at home in the playoffs in their history and own an 11-game home winning streak in postseason play. New England has not lost at home in the playoffs in 31 years, dating back to Dec. 31, 1978. Eleven of the franchise's 12 home playoff games have taken place since Robert Kraft purchased the team 16 years ago.

TITLE TOWN

The Patriots won the AFC East for the seventh time this decade. The Patriots had a streak of five straight division titles snapped last season when they finished 11-5, but lost to Miami on a tie breaker to finish in second place. New England's five straight AFC East crowns from 2003-07 top the four straight division titles by the Buffalo Bills from 1988-91 and by the Miami Dolphins on two occasions. The Patriots have won seven of the last nine division crowns. The Patriots have won nine division titles in the 16 seasons since Robert Kraft bought the team in 1994.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

PLAYOFF NUMBERS

The number of playoff games the Patriots have won at Gillette Stadium in seven games played at the stadium.

11

The number of consecutive home games the Patriots have won in the playoffs. The Patriots have not lost a home playoff game since Dec. 31, 1978.

15

The number of playoff wins by Coach Belichick, a total that is the fifth-highest by a head coach in NFL history.

24

The number of playoff games the Patriots have played in since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the most in the NFL since that time.

STREAKING

The number of consecutive seasons Randy Moss has recorded 10 or more touchdown catches to become the first Patriots player with three seasons of 10-plus TD catches. He had 23 in 2007, 11 in 2008 and an NFL-leading 13 in 2009. His nine seasons of 10 or more touchdowns tie Jerry Rice for the NFL record.

The number of consecutive seasons in which the Patriots have won nine or more regular-season games. They are the only team in the NFL to have won at least nine games in each of the last eight seasons entering 2009.

23

The number of consecutive home games the Patriots have won when Tom Brady starts, including the postseason.

169

The number of consecutive home games the Patriots have sold out. The streak includes every preseason, regular-season and playoff game since the 1994 regular-season opener.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Wes Welker and Randy Moss became the first Patriots to have back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons last season and have now stretched that to three straight 1,000-yard seasons after both went over 1,000 yards at Miami three weeks ago.

The number of seasons that Wes Welker has reached 100 receptions (122 in 2009) to join Marvin Harrison (4), Jerry Rice (3), Herman Moore (3) and Brandon Marshall (3) as the only players to catch 100 passes in three consecutive seasons.

The number of times in NFL history that a team has had two players go three straight seasons with 1,000 yards receiving after Randy Moss and Wes Welker completed their third straight season with over 1,000 yards receiving in 2009.

The number of NFL receivers who have reached 14,000 receiving yards. Randy Moss became the seventh player to reach the milestone and now has 14,126 receiving yards.

The number of seasons that Tom Brady has passed for more than 3,000 yards to tie the team record with Drew Bledsoe.

8.8

The number of receptions per game that WR Wes Welker averaged in 2009. He had 123 receptions despite missing two games due to injury. The 8.8 receptions per game average is second in NFL history to the 8.9 average set by Marvin Harrison in 2002.

The number of seasons that Randy Moss has reached 1,000-yards receiving. He joins Jerry Rice (14 seasons) as the only players in NFL history to record 10 seasons with 1,000 receiving yards.

11

The number of NFL receivers who have reached 900 career receptions. Moss became the 11th player to reach the milestone and now has 926 career receptions.

15

The number of times Tom Brady has earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors, after earning the award for his 378-yard passing effort in the Patriots' come-from-behind 25-24 win on opening week vs. Buffalo, a six-TD effort vs. Tennessee and vs. Jacksonville after setting a record for best completion percentage (.885).

30

The number of regular season 300-yard passing games by Tom Brady, a new team record. Brady's seven 300-yard games in 2009 moved him past Drew Bledsoe (26) for the team record.

31

The number of NFL players who have reached 30,000 yards passing yards after Tom Brady reached the milestone at Miami. Brady now has 30,844 passing yards.

64

The number of 100-yard receiving games by WR Randy Moss, which ranks second in NFL history to WR Jerry Rice's 76 100-yard receiving games.

THE KRAFT ERA

The number of Super Bowl championships the Patriots have won since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994. That mark is the highest total in the NFL over that span. Only Denver (2; 1997 and 1998) and Pittsburgh (2; 2005 and 2008) have won multiple Super Bowl titles since 1994.

The number of conference championships the Patriots have won since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994. That mark is the highest total in the NFL over that span. Pittsburgh has won three conference titles since 1994.

17

The number of playoff games the Patriots have won since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994. That mark is the highest total in the NFL over that span. Pittsburgh ranks second with 15 playoff wins over that span.

24

The number of playoff games the Patriots have appeared in since 1994. The mark is the highest in the NFL, ahead of the 23 games played by Pittsburgh.

THE BELICHIK ERA

Bill Belichick is one of just four coaches to win three championships since the Super Bowl era began. Belichick joins three members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in the exclusive club (Chuck Knoll 4, Joe Gibbs 3, and Bill Walsh 3). Belichick is the only coach to win three Super Bowls in the post-1993 salary cap era and the only one to ever win 3 in 4 years.

107-37

The Patriots' regular-season record since 2001 under Head Coach Bill Belichick. Under Belichick, the Patriots have won 74.3 percent of their regular-season games, recording the highest winning percentage of any major American professional sports team over that span.

ROBERT KRAFT NEWS & NOTES

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports. In 16 seasons of ownership, Kraft has transformed one of the league's least successful clubs into what many observers view as a model NFL franchise. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund team, winning just 19 of 80 games (.311 pct.) and recording the worst record in the NFL over that span. When he bought the franchise on Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft announced his intention to bring a championship to New England, a tall order considering the team's previous success rate. But under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won nine division titles, five conference crowns and three Super Bowl championships. The Patriots have made five Super Bowl appearances since Kraft purchased the team, a period during which no other NFL franchise has earned more than three berths.

SELLOUT STREAK

In the early 1990s, the Patriots seemed destined for relocation until Robert Kraft's purchase of the team rejuvenated local interest. In 1991, the season ticket base was just 17,635, barely enough to support the club. Now, the season-ticket base stands at a capped total of 61,759 and more than 50,000 fans are on a waiting list. The Patriots have sold out 169 consecutive home games (dating back to the 1994 regular-season opener).

SUCCESS STORY

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have been one of the NFL's elite franchises. Over the first 16 seasons of Kraft's ownership, the Patriots own the NFL's highest winning percentage and have won more Super Bowl titles, more conference championships and more playoff games than any other NFL team. The Patriots have now won 9 or more games in 13 of the 16 seasons that Robert Kraft has owned the team.

Bill Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl titles in a four-year span. He spent 20 years as an assistant coach in the NFL and this is his 15th season as a head coach. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, he is the only man in NFL history to serve 20 or more seasons as an assistant coach and at least 15 seasons as a head coach. Over a 100-game span from 2003-08, Belichick directed the team to an 82-18 record, marking the best 100-game span for any team in NFL history. In the 2007 season, Belichick led the Patriots to the fourth undefeated and untied regular season in the NFL's 88-year history and the first since the NFL established a 16-game schedule in 1978. He has led the Patriots to the Super Bowl four times in the last eight seasons and has produced seven division championships in the last nine seasons, including five straight from 2003-07. Belichick's Patriots teams own the all-time NFL records for consecutive total victories (21 from 2003-04), and established the record for consecutive regular-season victories (21 from 2006-08) and consecutive playoff victories (10 from 2001-05). Belichick owns the second-best postseason record in NFL history (15-4) and is the winningest NFL head coach since 2001 (121-40). From 2003-04, he directed the Patriots to back-to-back Super Bowl titles while posting consecutive 17-win campaigns. Belichick has spent more seasons in the league than any other current NFL head coach, and in that time has been a part of five Super Bowl championship teams. His overall record of 126-51 with the Patriots gives him the most victories and the best winning percentage of any head coach in franchise history.

ELITE COMPANY

Bill Belichick is one of nine NFL head coaches to win three or more championships since the league began postseason play in 1933. With the Patriots' victory in Super Bowl XXXIX, Belichick joined an exclusive club in which each of the eight other members has been enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

WELKER FINISHES WITH SECOND MOST RECEPTIONS AND SECOND HIGHEST AVERAGE IN NFL HISTORY

Welker led the NFL with 123 receptions, despite missing two games due to injury and part of the season-finale due to an injury. He averaged 8.8 receptions in the 14 games he played. The 123 receptions are a Patriots record and match Herman Edwards (Detroit in 1995) for the second most receptions in a single season in NFL history, behind Marvin Harrison's NFL record of 143 receptions in 2002. The 8.8 catches per game in NFL history to the 8.9 average set by Harrison in 2002.

Welker has had six or more receptions in 26 of his last 30 regular-season games. He has 18 games with nine or more catches since joining the Patriots. His 18 games with nine or more catches are the most in Patriots history, topping Ben Coates' mark of 10.

WELKER GOES OVER 100 RECEPTIONS IN 2009

Wes Welker's 10-catch game vs. Carolina pushed him over 100 receptions for the third straight season. He joins Marvin Harrison (4), Jerry Rice (3), Herman Moore (3) and Brandon Marshall (3) as the only players to catch 100 passes in three consecutive seasons. Welker owns the Patriots three highest single-season reception totals with 123 in 2009, 112 in 2007 and 111 in 2008.

WELKER PILES UP YARDS

Wes Welker (1,175 in 2007 and 1,165 in 2008) joined Randy Moss to become the first Patriots players with back-to-back 1,000-yard receiving seasons and stretched that to three straight seasons after breaking the 1,000-yard mark at Miami.

Welker had a career-high in receiving yards with 1,348 in 2009. It is the third highest in team history. Welker has three of the top eight receiving seasons in team history.

WELKER'S ROUTE TO THE NFL

Despite being named the Oklahoma football player of the year by both USA Today and the Daily Oklahoman, Wes Welker's only scholarship offer came from Texas Tech, and only after a player that committed to Texas Tech backed out.

"I was thinking I'd get a scholarship somewhere," Welker said. "When it didn't happen when it was supposed to I was pretty hurt by it."

Welker had an impressive collegiate career, accumulating 259 receptions and eight punts returned for touchdowns. He even won a national award as the best special teams player in the country. Despite those accolades, he was passed over in the 2004 NFL draft and signed with San Diego as a free agent. He made the team, then was cut after the first game. He signed with Miami soon after and was used just on special teams. He caught New England's eye with a 71-yard punt return on Monday Night Football in a game against the Patriots. He was acquired by the Patriots in a trade with Miami in 2007.

PATRIOTS NEWS & NOTES

WELKER TIES NFL RECORD FOR FEWEST INDIVIDUAL GAMES PLAYED TO REACH 100 RECEPTIONS

Welker reached 100 receptions in his 11th game of the season to tie Marvin Harrison for the fewest individual games played to reach 100 receptions in a season in NFL history. Harrison caught 100 passes in his first 11 games of the 2002 season en route to an NFL-record 143 catches. (Welker missed two games in 2009 due to injury).

WELKER GOES OVER 100 YARDS

Welker had a career-high six 100-yard games in 2009 and has 14 for his career. His previous high for most 100-yd games in a season was four in 2007 and 2008.

MOSS AND WELKER: FIRST TIME IN PATS HISTORY TWO PLAYERS HAVE 12 CATCHES

Randy Moss and Wes Welker each hauled in 12 catches for the Patriots in the first meeting in 2009 against Buffalo (9/14), with each player tying the team's fifth-highest single-game reception total. It is the first time in team history that two players have had at least 12 catches in the same game. The last time the Patriots had two or more players with at least 10 catches in the same game was on Nov. 13, 1994, when Leroy Thompson had 11 catches, Ben Coates had 10 and Michael Timpson had 10 catches in a 26-20 overtime win over Minnesota.

MOSS AND WELKER GO THREE STRAIGHT YEARS WITH 1,000 YARDS EACH

Wes Welker (1,348) and Randy Moss (1,264) became the first Patriots players to have three straight 1,000-yard seasons. It is the sixth time in NFL history a team has had two players go three straight seasons with 1,000 yards. Moss was part of another tandem to accomplish the feat from 1998-00.

Among active NFL running backs, Taylor's 4.6-yard average trails only Carolina's DeAngelo Williams (5.1), Minnesota's Adrian Peterson (4.9), Atlanta's Michael Turner (4.9), San Francisco's Frank Gore (4.8) and Jacksonville's Maurice Jones-Drew (4.7).

PATRIOTS ARE GOOD AT GOING LONG AND GETTING FIRST DOWNS

The Patriots finished second in the NFL with 37 drives of 10 plays or more. The NFL average was 26 10-play drives. The Patriots led the NFL with 373 first downs, the third most in team history to the 293 in 2007 and 356 in 2008. In 2009, the NFL average for first downs was 299.

BRADY GOES DEEP

Brady completed two 58-yard passes and an 81-yard pass at Miami (12/6). It is the first time in his career that he has completed three passes of 50 or more yards in the same game. He has five games with two 50-yard completions, including one in 2009. He completed a 63-yard touchdown and a 55-yard pass to WR Randy Moss at Indianapolis (11/15/09).

PATRIOTS ELECT FIVE SEASON CAPTAINS

The New England Patriots announced their 2009 captains prior to the start of the regular-season. Quarterback Tom Brady and WR Randy Moss serve as offensive captains. Nose tackle Vince Wilfork and LB Jerod Mayo serve as defensive captains. Wide receiver Sam Aiken serves as special teams captain. The Patriots' 2009 captains were elected by their teammates.

PATRIOTS FIRST TO PLAY 7 TEAMS WITH UNDEFEATED RECORDS

New England became the first team in NFL history to face seven teams with an undefeated record in a single season. The Patriots faced Buffalo, New York Jets, Atlanta, Baltimore, Denver, Indianapolis and New Orleans when they were undefeated.

PATRIOTS WERE CLOSE TO HAVING TWO PLAYERS WITH 10-PLUS TOUCHDOWNS

Randy Moss has 13 receiving touchdowns and Laurence Maroney has 9 rushing touchdowns. The Patriots had two players finish with 10 or more touchdowns overall two times. In 1974, Mack Herron had 12 tds (7 rushing, 5 receiving) and Sam Cunningham had 11 (9 rushing, 2 receiving). In 1976 Steve Grogan had 12 tds (12 rushing) Andy Johnson had 10 tds (6 rushing, 4 receiving).

SEAU AND THOMAS AMONG ACTIVE SACK LEADERS

Junior Seau (56.5) and Adalius Thomas (53.0) are among six active linebackers with 50 or more sacks. (Joining Joey Porter, DeMarcus Ware, Mike Vrabel and Chike Okeafor).

A JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT

LB Junior Seau ended a streak of 24 consecutive regular-season victories in games in which he appeared with the loss at Miami (12/6). Seau's 24 wins are tied with DT Mautly Moore of the Miami Dolphins (1972-73) for the longest personal winning streak since the merger. Seau's record stretched from two wins in November of 2006 (he finished the 2006 season on IR), 16 regular-season wins in 2007, the final four games of 2008 and the wins over Tennessee and Tampa Bay in 2009. Seau was active but did not play vs. Miami (11/8), at Indianapolis (11/15) and vs. Jets (11/22) and was inactive at New Orleans (11/30).

BANTA-CAIN SETS CAREER-HIGHS IN SACKS

LB Tully Banta-Cain set a single-game career-high with three sacks in the win at Buffalo (12/20) and closed out the 2009 season with a career-high of 9.5 sacks for the season. His previous best for a season was 5.5 in 2006 with the Patriots. He had three games in 2009 with at least two sacks and now has five games in his career with at least two sacks. The Patriots have had a player reach double digit sack totals nine times with the most recent being Mike Vrabel's 12.5 sacks in 2007.

LEADING IN BOTH SACKS AND INTERCEPTIONS

Shawn Springs (2004 with Washington) Adalius Thomas (2005 with Baltimore) and Junior Seau (1997 with San Diego) are three of just six players in NFL history to lead their team in both sacks and interceptions in a season.

Gostkowski finished sixth in the NFL with 125 points. He has scored over 100 points in each of his four NFL seasons (103 in 2006, 137 in 2007 and 148 in 2008). In 2008, he had an NFL-best 148 points.

PATRIOTS WIN GAME NUMBER 400

The Patriots recorded the franchise's 400th all-time victory, including postseason games, with the 26-10 win over Atlanta (9/27). The 400 victories rank third among the eight original AFL teams, behind Denver and Oakland. The eight original AFL teams, including the Patriots, began play in 1960. The Patriots recorded their milestone 400th victory in their 50th season and in their 777th overall game. Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have 183 victories, more than any other NFL team during that span.

TOUGH AT HOME

The Patriots own an overall record of 59-12 (.831) at Gillette Stadium. Since their state-of-the-art facility opened at the beginning of the 2002 season, the Patriots own the NFL's best record at home. In the franchise's first 43 seasons, the Patriots never enjoyed an undefeated season at home. In the past seven seasons at Gillette stadium, the Patriots have celebrated four undefeated seasons (2003, 2004, 2007 and 2009).

MAYO IS A YOUNG LEADER

Jerod Mayo learned knowledge and discipline are the keys to success while spending afternoons with his three brothers under the supervision of their grandfather, Walter Johnson, a retired Air Force veteran of 30 years. While Mayo's mother worked two jobs, Johnson taught the boys discipline, responsibility and the value of life. Those lessons helped Mayo develop a work ethic and demeanor that has earned him the nickname of "Old Soul" from his teammates. His leadership skills and talent helped him become only the second Patriot to be named Rookie of the Year, earning that title in 2008 to join Michael Haynes (1976).

PIERRE WOODS STAYS ON THE RIGHT PATH

On the field, linebacker Pierre Woods is respected for being one of the grittiest players on the Patriots. Woods emerged from an impoverished area of Cleveland and was steered away from a life of crime by the father of one of his closest friends, Ted Ginn, Jr., now a Miami Dolphins wideout. Ted Ginn, Sr. explained to the Boston Herald that "it took a lot of conversations he didn't want to have to get him to understand. I had to be that protector for him. I had to be that flashlight so he could see that what I was telling him was true."

Woods credited Ginn, Sr. with having such a powerful impact on his life that when he won the Big Ten Championship at Michigan, he gave the ring to his father figure, Ginn, Sr. "As I grew as a young man, I learned to respect and love the man like a father," Woods said to the Boston Herald. As Woods celebrates his fourth season in Foxborough, he takes the opportunity to reflect, especially now as a father of three. "[My son] should never have to go through the things that I went through," he said. "But, I wouldn't want my kids to be blind to the fact that this is what happens in the inner cities in America."

GUYTON HAS THE WORK ETHIC

Gary Guyton was not drafted into the NFL, but through a solid work ethic was able to make the 53-man roster and earn a starting job in his second year. Taking a peek into his work history shows his work ethic goes beyond the football field. At the end of the season last year, Guyton went back to Georgia Tech and worked as an office assistant at the school's research institute.

"I was an office assistant, right there at the desk," said Guyton, who worked for a small wage at Georgia Tech Research Institute. "Just a regular office assistant. Tech is my school and I enjoyed it."

"He's smart, well prepared," Bill Belichick said. "He understands. He's got a real good understanding of football. Not just his role but where other people have to be. That's what you really want in a defensive signal-caller, someone that understands how it all works."

It's been a long road," Guyton said. "I have come far. I've achieved some things. But I don't look back, just forward."

WILFORK WEARS HEART ON SLEEVE AND NECK

Defensive tackle Vince Wilfork wears No. 75 over his bulky shoulder pads. Underneath hangs a gold chain locket for those who were number one in his heart: his parents. In 2002, parents Vince and Barbara Wilfork both passed away within five months of each other, leaving the then University of Miami star without his greatest support system. His perseverance in the face of despair led him to the NFL, while off the field he became closer with his now strongest supporter, his wife Bianca, who helped him through his losses. While he has many accomplishments on the football field and will always cherish his National Championship and Super Bowl rings, his constant reminder lies closest to his heart, a picture of his late parents at their high school prom. "I carry them with me wherever I go," Wilfork said of his parents' keepsake. "They're with me. The only regret that I have in life is that my parents are not with me today to see where I am today. But I wouldn't be anywhere today without my wife."

PATRIOTS NEWS & NOTES

MERIWEATHER MAKES BIG PLAYS ON BIG STAGE

S Brandon Meriweather prides himself on preparing for every game and every situation – in any location. At Wembley Stadium in London against Tampa Bay, Meriweather showed that not even a different time zone could throw off his timing, picking off the Buccaneers twice in the first six minutes of the game and returning one for a 39-yard touchdown. His two picks were enough to earn him AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors.

To Bill Belichick though, Meriweather has been contributing weekly, whether or not the statistics reflect his performance. Said Belichick, "From the beginning of training camp he's really been a leader for us back in the secondary, making calls, making adjustments, sometimes taking harder responsibilities with the safeties. He makes plays that don't show up on the stat sheet." As for Meriweather, living up to an expectation of a repeat performance is a challenge he welcomes. "My level of expectation is already through the roof," Meriweather said. "I expect myself to be great every day. Not good here, good there, great here, great there - I expect to be great every day."

LIKE FATHER LIKE SON

WR Matthew Slater spent his college days in Los Angeles at UCLA. The second-year promising young talent was born in 1985, when another Slater in The City of Angels was named to his second of seven Pro Bowls. Matthew's father, Jackie Slater, a Hall of Fame offensive tackle, spent his entire career with the Rams organization in LA. He was voted the NFC Offensive Lineman of the year four times—1983, 1986, 1987, and 1989. Matthew Slater, drafted in 2008, is one of six sons of Hall of Fame members to be drafted in NFL history.

HALL OF FAME FATHERS WITH SONS DRAFTED IN THE NFL

- Jackie Slater (class of 2001) – son, Matthew Slater (NE)
- Howie Long (class of 2000) – son, Chris Long (STL)
- Bobby Bell (class of 1983) – son, Bobby Bell (NYJ)
- Tony Dorsett (class of 1994) – son, Anthony Dorsett (HOU)
- Bob Griese (class of 1990) – son, Brian Griese (DEN)
- Kellen Winslow (class of 1995) – son, Kellen Winslow (CLE)

LIKE FATHER LIKE SON, PART 2

CB Shawn Springs has always been a speedster. No doubt, the gift of fast feet was a hereditary gift from his father, Ron Springs, an 8-year NFL running back for the Dallas Cowboys and Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Ron, who tallied over 2,500 rushing and 2,200 receiving yards in his career, became ill in 1990 with Type 2 Diabetes. By 2004, Shawn was a respected NFL veteran, but he was willing to give up his career and offered to donate his kidney to his father, who needed a transplant. Ron declined, saying in a 2005 Washington Post article, "I think that was a tremendous gesture, and it just justifies the fact that he's a loving son. But I couldn't have let him do that, because I always prayed and wanted him to be a professional athlete, so I would not have shortened his career by no means necessary."

FREE AGENTS MAKE AN IMPACT

Sixteen players on the New England 53-man roster entered the NFL as rookie free agents. Two that came to the Patriots as rookie free agents are making an impact on the defense. Mike Wright came to New England as a rookie free agent in 2005. He registered his first career two-sack game, dropping Joe Flacco twice for total losses of 17 yards vs. Baltimore (10-4). He finished with a single-season career high with 5.0 sacks. Gary Guyton came to New England as a rookie free agent in 2007. He finished second on the team with 93 total tackles. Said Bill Belichick about players coming to the Patriots as a free agents, "I think Mike's similar to some of the other players that would fall into that category. Players like Gary Guyton and guys like that who weren't high picks that came in at a pretty early point—Pierre Woods, [Brian] Hoyer - came in and showed that they belonged, both physically and athletically from a football standpoint, recognizing things, reacting, kind of knowing what to do."

MATT LIGHT AND HIS FOUNDATION

The Light Foundation, a nonprofit founded in 2001 by Matt Light, held its signature fundraising event on, September 29 at Addieville East Farm in Mapleville, RI.

The Matt Light Celebrity Shoot-Out, now in its fifth year, offers participants the opportunity to match their shooting skills against Light, his teammates, and a host of local and national celebrities. Proceeds from the one-of-a-kind event benefit the Light Foundation, a youth-based organization that strives to install honesty, accountability and responsibility in young people through unique outdoor learning experiences that include a character development football camp, a financial literacy program offered at area schools and academic scholarships. In the eight years since the organization was founded, it has raised over $1.2 million to support these programs.

Light wanted a unique, high-profile charity event that would raise funds and exposure for his foundation, and his love of the outdoors naturally came into play.

STEPHEN NEAL TAKES A DIFFERENT ROUTE

Guard Stephen Neal knows how to use his 6-4, 305-pound frame. He has used it to gain leverage and overpower defensive linemen since 2001. The three-time Super Bowl Champion arrived in Foxborough with two NCAA titles of his own, except the only padding he saw was on the matted floors.

A championship wrestler at Cal-State Bakersfield, he compiled a 151-10 record, winning titles his junior and senior year, including a title win over NCAA wrestling and UFC heavyweight champion Brock Lesnar. In 1999, Neal won the Dan Hodge Award, known as the Heisman Trophy of wrestling.

Neal is one of only two active NFL players that did not play football in college before turning pro. The other is San Diego Chargers tight end Antonio Gates, a basketball star at Kent State. Gates led the Golden Flashes to the Elite Eight in 2002, averaging 21 points in his senior season.

JAMES SANDERS IS THE GREAT COMMUNICATOR

The Boston Herald recently wrote a story on how safety James Sanders' early life experiences were translating to the football field. Sanders grew up as the oldest of eight children in a single-parent home. So it should come as no surprise that he took the reins while his mother was out of the house. From homework to housework, James was in charge of holding the fort down in his formative years. Sanders was re-inserted into the starting lineup late in the season to help increase communication in the secondary.

PATRIOTS 50TH ANNIVERSARY

50TH ANNIVERSARY

The Patriots are celebrating their 50th anniversary season in 2009 through a series of acknowledgements and dedications. The 50th season logo will appear throughout the 2009 season in Gillette Stadium, on Patriots.com, on items in the ProShop and in Patriots publications. For the Patriots and their fans, this season is one to celebrate a franchise that has grown from humble beginnings to become the winningest franchise in the NFL over the last 15 seasons.

ALL-TIME LISTS

Over the course of the year, the Patriots are unveiling a series of 20 "Top 10 All-Time" lists for fans to discuss and debate on Patriots All-Access and Patriots.com. Fans have the opportunity to vote for Top 10s in each of the 20 categories at Patriots.com. Fans can also rank the Top 50 Moments in Franchise History, and the Top 10 Moments, as chosen by the fans, will be unveiled over the course of the season.

ALL-TIME TEAM

In recognition of the 50th anniversary, the Patriots' Hall of Fame nominating committee has selected an All-Time Team recognizing the greatest players at each position to play for the Patriots over 50 years. The Patriots' All-Time Team was recognized in the Patriots' home-opener against Buffalo on Sept. 14.

AFL LEGACY GAMES

This season marks the 50th anniversary for the American Football League (AFL), of which the Patriots were an original member. The Boston Patriots, who hosted the AFL's first regular season game on Sept. 9, 1960 at Boston University Field, were featured in the NFL's first "AFL Legacy Game" on the opening weekend of the 2009 season on Sept. 14, 2009, when the Patriots hosted the Buffalo Bills at Gillette Stadium on Monday Night Football. It was the first of four "AFL Legacy Games" in which the Patriots appeared this season (at Den, vs. Ten and at Mia). The Patriots wore red and white "throwback" uniforms in those games, replicating the uniforms worn by the 1963 team that claimed the franchise's first division title and competed in the franchise's first league championship game. Patriots coaches will also wear apparel featuring the Pat Patriot logo.

The Patriots coaches will also wear apparel featuring the Pat Patriot logo.

GAMEDAY PROGRAM DESIGN

The original "Pat Patriot" was born in 1960 when newspaper cartoonist Phil Bissell was assigned to sketch a reaction upon the announcement that Boston's American Football League team would be called the Patriots. From his original "Pat" cartoon, Bissell became forever linked with the franchise that wore a copy based off of his original figure on its helmets from 1961 to 1992.

Bissell, a resident of Rockport, Mass., also contributed stylized "Pat Patriot" cartoons to the covers of over 50 Patriots game programs throughout the team's AFL seasons from 1960-69. In recognition of the Patriots 50th anniversary, Bissell has been commissioned to create the covers of this season's Patriots GameDay magazines in the same style of those early covers.

50TH ANNIVERSARY AFL EXHIBIT

The Hall at Patriot Place presented by Raytheon is a monument to 50 years of Patriots history. In recognition of both the Patriots' 50th anniversary and the 50th anniversary of the AFL, The Hall is featuring a special exhibit throughout the 2009 season of game-worn jerseys, helmets and other memorabilia from the AFL era. "The AFL Turns 50" is the most extensive collection of AFL memorabilia viewable anywhere. For more information visit the thehallatpatriotplace.com or call 508-698-4800.

DECADE OF DOMINANCE

The New England Patriots have celebrated more wins (126) in the past decade (2000-09) than any other team in the NFL with 112 regular-season victories and 14 playoff victories. They also own the highest winning percentage (.743) of any team in professional sports since the start of the 2001 season. The Patriots won their first Super Bowl title in 2001. Two years later, they became the first franchise to win multiple championships during the decade, winning back-to-back titles in 2003 and 2004. In all, the Patriots won more Super Bowl championships (3), more conference championships (4) and appeared in more conference championship games (5) than any other NFL team. The Patriots have also claimed more division titles (7) this decade than any other team.

PATRIOTS ARE ALL-TIME DECADE LEADERS

The New England Patriots' 126 wins in the 2000s is the all-time best mark for a decade in NFL history. In the 1990s, San Francisco had 122 wins. Indianapolis tied that mark with their 122nd win of the decade in 2009.

TEAMS OF THE DECADES

TEAM (YRS)	REG. SEASON	POSTSEASON	TOTAL
NE (2000-09)	112-48 (.700)	14-3 (.824)	126-51 (.712)
SF (1990-99)	113-47 (.706)	9-7 (.563)	122-54 (.693)
IND (2000-99)	115-45 (.719)	7-7 (.500)	122-52 (.701)

Totals calculated using season years not calendar years*

PATRIOTS TIED FOR MOST PLAYOFF WINS IN A DECADE

The Patriots have won 14 playoff games this decade, tying the 1970s Pittsburgh Steelers and Dallas Cowboys for the most playoff victories by any NFL team since the 1930s. Pittsburgh and Dallas both won 14 playoff contests between 1970 and 1979, while New England has won 14 postseason games from 2000 to the present.

PATRIOTS 7 DIVISION TITLES TOP THE DECADE

The Patriots won 7 division titles in the 2000s, the most division titles for any team in the 2000s.

MOST DIVISION TITLES IN THE 2000s

New England	7 (2001, 03, 04, 05, 07, 08, 09)

San Diego	5 (2004, 06, 07, 08, 09)

PATRIOTS ACCOMPLISHMENTS THIS DECADE

During the recent decade, the Patriots have enjoyed some rare accomplishments, including:

- The Patriots have won more Super Bowls (3) than any other NFL team in the 2000s.
- The Patriots won more Conference Championships (4) than any other team.
- The Patriots appeared in more Conference Championship Games (5) than any other team.
- Bill Belichick became the only coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowls in a four-year span.
- Over a 100-game stretch, from 2003 to 2008, the Patriots recorded an 82-12 record, the best record in any 100-game span in NFL history.
- The Patriots became the fourth team to finish undefeated and untied in the regular-season in the NFL's 88-year history and the first since the NFL established the 16-game schedule in 1978 with a 16-0 record in 2007.
- The Patriots opened Gillette Stadium in 2002 and own the best record at home since that time with a 59-12 record.
- The Patriots are undefeated at home in the playoffs (8-0) during the decade.

NEW ENGLAND'S 21-GAME WIN STREAK

The Patriots own the all-time NFL record for consecutive victories (21 from 2003-04). The Patriots did not lose a game for more than a year. Following a 20-17 loss at Washington on Sept. 28, 2003, the Patriots did not lose for 398 days, until the streak was snapped in a 34-20 loss at Pittsburgh on Oct. 31, 2004.

Includes teams from the NFL (1920-Present), All American Football Conference (1946-49) and American Football League (1960-69).

The Patriots also established the NFL mark for consecutive regular season victories (21 from 2006-08) before the record was topped by the Indianapolis Colts (23 from 2008-09).

ONE HISTORIC GAME: 10/18/2009

The New England Patriots set team records for points in a game (59) and total net yards (619) in a 59-0 victory against the Tennessee Titans in snowy conditions at Gillette Stadium. The Patriots 59-point victory ties the largest margin of victory by any team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, equaling the L.A. Rams' 59-point win over Atlanta on Dec. 4, 1976 (59-0).

Patriots 59
Titans 0

QB Tom Brady completed 29-of-34 pass attempts for 380 yards with six touchdown passes, wide receivers Wes Welker (10-150-2 TDs) and Randy Moss (8-129-3 TDs) both went over 100 yards receiving, and RB Laurence Maroney added 123 yards rushing on the ground.

Brady had 345 yards passing in the first half alone, and set an NFL record with five touchdown passes in the second quarter. For his contributions, Brady earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for the second time on the young 2009 season. New England built a 45-0 halftime lead, the largest halftime lead in NFL history.

What They Said:

QB Tom Brady

(On the Patriots' historic output)

"You know, some days out there when it's snowy like that, it's actually an advantage for the offense. Today was one of those days because we had good footing and it's just fun to be a part of it. I was saying, when you see the weather forecast on Thursday, you're kind of [angry] and then once the day of the game comes around, everyone is excited because you're out there and you're like, 'This is football. This is how it should be.'"

WR Wes Welker

(On why the Patriots seem to play so well in the snow)

"I know Coach [Belichick] does a really good job of coaching us up: what's good, what's bad, making sure we have good footing, the right cleats, things like that. And understanding that we need to be in the right type of plays and being able to come off breaks and things like that are going to be a little bit different under the conditions. We need to make sure that in the kicking game we're taking care of our responsibilities and things like that."

Head Coach Bill Belichick

(On the Patriots' level of execution)

"[It's] good players. The players were the ones out there playing today and they did a good job. They kept their feet. They handled the ball well. They handled it cleanly. We missed some tackles on defense, but we made some. We made some plays defensively, turning the ball over. Some of those were tough catches, good plays, but we got them. The credit goes to the players; they did a great job."

NFL RECORDS SET AGAINST TITANS

- Most touchdown passes in a quarter, 5 (Tom Brady in the second quarter)
- Largest halftime lead, 45 points (45-0)

TEAM RECORDS SET AGAINST TITANS

- Most points in a game (59)

45-0 HALFTIME LEAD IS LARGEST EVER

New England's 45-0 halftime lead against the Titans was the largest halftime lead in NFL history. The previous largest halftime lead was 42 points, when Green Bay held a 42-7 halftime lead at Miami on Oct. 21, 2007.

PATRIOTS SET TEAM RECORD WITH 619 YARDS

The Patriots set a franchise record with 619 total net yards against Tennessee (10/18). The 619-yard performance was the fifth highest single-game total by an NFL team since the 1970 merger and was the ninth 600-yard game by an NFL team since 1970. The Patriots are the 6th team since 1990 to register 600 or more yards of total offense.

THE HALL AT PATRIOT PLACE

presented by RAYTHEON

The Hall at Patriot Place presented by Raytheon is the crown jewel of Patriot Place and the only sports and education experience of its kind. Through a dazzling array of interactive multimedia exhibits and artifacts never before viewable by the public, The Hall at Patriot Place presented by Raytheon showcases the tradition of the New England Patriots, explores the history of football in New England, and promotes math and science education for thousands of schoolchildren each year through its partnership with Raytheon.

The experience begins as visitors enter an elevator on the ground floor and hear a voice from Patriots history welcoming them to The Hall. The journey continues through 36,000 square feet and two stories until visitors reach one of The Hall's signature exhibits and its premier photo opportunity: the Patriots' three Lombardi trophies.

The Hall features interactive exhibits designed to educate and entertain. Visitors receive instruction from Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick on how plays in the Patriots' playbook are designed. They also step inside a game-used replay booth and make the call on an instant replay review with instruction from NFL Vice President of Officiating Mike Pereira. Fans of all ages test their vertical leap, reaction time and weight against NFL players.

The Hall's 19 high-definition touch screen kiosks allow visitors to interact with the exhibits in unique ways. Four and a half hours of exclusive video content is also displayed on 11 60-inch high-definition TV monitors, seven projection screens and the 48-foot-wide panoramic movie screen in the Raytheon Theater, where a 15-minute signature film plays every 20 minutes.

Each of the members of the Patriots Hall of Fame is immortalized on 30-foot high, six-foot wide video pylons utilizing the first Magink digital ink display in the United States. Fans can choose which Hall of Famer to highlight on one of four touch screen kiosks, causing the pylons to come alive with video and images of each player while additional information is displayed on the screen below.

To complement the audiovisual experiences, there are thousands of football artifacts on display at The Hall, ranging from the priceless (a football from the 1876 Harvard-Yale game) to the quirky (the infamous snow plow that cleared the way for a Patriots win over the Dolphins in 1982) to the sublime (Doug Flutie's 1984 Heisman Trophy).

In partnership with Raytheon Company, The Hall at Patriot Place presents an integrated math and science education program with lesson plans designed to combine elements of The Hall's exhibits in an engaging educational platform for visiting school groups. Additionally, all visitors can experience the "In the Numbers" exhibit, presented by Raytheon, which uses football to teach math and science in a fun and interactive way.

In 2009, The Hall received a Gold MUSE Award from the American Association of Museums and The Hall's signature film, "Patriots Way," won a CINE Golden Eagle Award. The Hall was also named to Boston Globe Magazine's Best of the New and was a Yankee Magazine Editor's Choice recommendation. For more information, please visit www.thehallatpatriotplace.com

TERRIFIC TUESDAYS

Each week, The Hall at Patriot Place presented by Raytheon presents a "Terrific Tuesday" game-related incentive, whereby if the Patriots achieve a certain goal in that week's game, ALL tickets to The Hall will be $5 on the following Tuesday. This week's incentive: If the Patriots hold the Ravens to less than 21 points this Sunday in the AFC Wild Card Playoff round, all tickets to The Hall will be $5 on Tuesday, Jan. 12.
