Pos.	Rank	Player	School	Ht.	Wt.	40
QB	1	Matt Ryan	Boston College	6-5	228	4.89
Notes: [Andy Hart] Polished leader, solid fundamentals. Intermediate NFL throws? [Tom Casale] Stares down receivers too much. Good arm but not sure he has the intangibles to be a great QB. [Paul Perillo] Good arm and good strength ... nice touch underneath [Erik Scalavino] Good improviser when play breaks down; tends to telegraph his throws
QB	2	Brian Brohm	Louisville	6-3	230	4.81
Notes: [Andy] Great experience making pro-type reads. [Tom] Smart QB with nice touch. Lack of arm strength could hurt him in the NFL. [Paul] Good accuracy ... not much zip on passes [Erik] Can make all the throws; scans the field well
QB	3	Chad Henne	Michigan	6-3	230	4.92
Notes: [Andy] Stares down receiver, low arm angle. [Tom] Best arm in the draft but needs to be more accurate. [Paul] Stands tall in pocket with good mechanics ... can move [Erik] Appears stiff at times and makes a lot of dump-off throws
QB	4	Joe Flacco	Delaware	6-7	236	4.84
Notes: [Andy] Great build, arm. Huge jump to pro game. [Tom] Great arm, not much else. [Paul] Big-time arm, throws off back foot too much [Erik] Hangs in the pocket, but can move when necessary; slow delivery
QB	5	Kevin O'Connell	San Diego State	6-5	225	4.61
Notes: [Andy] Combo good passer/athlete. Reminds of Ben Roethlisberger. [Tom] Not as good as the rest of these guys think. [Paul] Great size and accuracy ... a real sleeper [Erik] Perhaps the most talented QB in this draft; natural athlete who can run or throw; reads the field well
THE REST:
QB		John David Booty	USC	6-3	218	4.82
Notes: [Andy] Small hands. Accurate. Slow drops. [Tom] Has talent but was way too inconsistent in college. [Paul] Good feet and arm strength; inconsistent [Erik] Good pocket presence; can throw on the run;
QB		Andre Woodson	Kentucky	6-4	229	4.85
Notes: [Andy] Long, slow delivery. Plays like Rohan Davey. [Tom] Will be a decent CFL player. [Paul] Good quickness, takes a lot of chances [Erik] Good runner; forces too many throws
QB		Dennis Dixon	Oregon	6-3	195	4.58
Notes: [Andy] Obvious injury questions. Great athlete -- Vince Young. [Tom] Great athlete and underrated passer. [Paul] Does best outside pocket; steps in well
QB		Josh Johnson	San Diego	6-3	213	4.53
Notes: [Andy] Not asked to make many reads. Threw poorly at Combine. [Tom] Raw, has a long way to go. [Paul] Throws too many jump balls; not polished [Erik] Not a prototypical, stand-in-the-pocket QB; very raw, but has potential to be a solid backup
QB		Colt Brennan	Hawaii	6-3	207	4.79
Notes: [Andy] Quick release. Accurate. Creative arm angles. [Tom] Accurate passer but will struggle to make the transition to the NFL. [Paul] Good accuracy/vision; drops down a bit [Erik] Good footwork; throws well on the run
QB		Erik Ainge	Tennessee	6-6	225	4.98
Notes: [Andy] Plays stiff. Arm doesn't match his build. [Tom] Maybe the worst college QB I've ever scouted. No chance. [Paul] Floats his passes; no zip [Erik] Like Henne, very stiff; makes too many questionable throws
QB		Matt Flynn	LSU	6-2	231	4.79
Notes: [Andy] Always on move, not dropback passer. [Tom] Purely a college QB. [Paul] Struggles with accuracy; good athlete
QB		Paul Smith	Tulsa	6-1	208	4.95
Notes: [Andy] Plays skittish. Poor man's Colt Brennan. [Tom] I like Smith but may be better suited for the CFL because of his size. [Paul] Sees field well; gritty playmaker [Erik] Wild style of play; seems to throw it up for grabs too often

Pos.	Rank	Player	School	Ht.	Wt.	40
QB		Sam Keller	Nebraska	6-4	241	4.99
Notes: [Andy] Strange motion. Weak arm. [Tom] Good accuracy; could become a decent backup. [Paul] Drops elbow; decent accuracy [Erik] Unspectacular
QB		Bernard Morris	Marshall	6-3	223	4.68
Notes: [Andy] Runner, hectic player. Not a passer. [Tom] The main reason for Marshall's recent downfall. Awful. [Paul] Great scrambler but throws lots of floaters [Erik] Probably won't be a QB at the NFL level

RB	2	Darren McFadden	Arkansas	6-1	211	4.33
Notes: [Andy] Lives off big play. Goes down too easy on 1st contact. [Tom] Most explosive player in the draft. Needs to run harder between the tackles. [Paul] Dynamic big-play threat with toughness [Erik] Makes first tackler miss most times; good receiver out of the backfield; blitz pick-up a question mark
RB	3	Jonathan Stewart	Oregon	5-10	235	4.46
Notes: [Andy] Slippery fire hydrant. But lacks great vision or cutting ability. [Tom] A bulldozer who is surprisingly quick in the open field. [Paul] Good size but lacks agility [Erik] Runs hard; ran a lot of delayed hand-offs and options at Oregon
RB	4	Ray Rice	Rutgers	5-8	199	4.42

RB		Jamaal Charles	Texas	5-11	200	4.38
Notes: [Andy] Good pad level. Lot of delayed handoffs and draws. [Tom] A third-down back at the NFL level. Not a great inside runner. [Paul] Runs north-south; finishes well [Erik] Patient runner
RB		Kevin Smith	Central Florida	6-1	217	4.53
Notes: [Andy] Great build. Keeps feet. Long strides. More shuffler than cutter. [Tom] Great balance and deceptive speed. Underrated. [Paul] Upright style but has big-play ability [Erik] Eric Dickerson-style runner; good between-the-tackles runner
RB		Matt Forte	Tulane	6-2	217	4.44
Notes: [Andy] Good 1 cut guy. Decent power and toughness. [Tom] Tough, powerful runner with good vision. Patient and always gets positive yardage. [Paul] Another upright runner with good shake/toughness [Erik] Takes on blockers; good receiver

Notes: [Tom] Strong for his size. One of the best pass-catching backs in the draft.
RB		Steve Slaton	West Virginia	5-9	197	4.45
Notes: [Andy] Tiny. Just has speed. College player. [Tom] Great speed but lacks toughness. Won't be an every-down back in the NFL. [Paul] Great speed but lacks toughness [Erik] Good hands; ran a lot of delayed handoffs and options

Pos.	Rank	Player	School	Ht.	Wt.	40
RB		Mike Hart	Michigan	5-9	206	4.69
Notes: [Andy] Polished. Too much wear on treads. Weaver. Speed? [Tom] Heart of a lion but not very elusive. Takes too many hits for his size. [Paul] Brings intangibles and production but not much speed [Erik] Small, but doesn't give up when fighting off tacklers; willing to sacrifice his body for pass protection
RB		Chauncey Washington	USC	6-0	211	4.59
Notes: [Tom] Great goal line runner and short-yardage back. A late-round sleeper.
RB		Tashard Choice	Georgia Tech	5-11	215	4.48
Notes: [Andy] Avg. speed. Doesn't finish runs. [Tom] Always moving forward and breaks a lot of tackles. Underrated. [Paul] Not fast but runs hard; good hands [Erik] Emmitt Smith-style runner
RB		Allen Patrick	Oklahoma	6-1	198	4.55
Notes: [Andy] Decent vision, cuts. More patience than power. [Paul] Very quick with big-play ability/nice sleeper [Erik] Solid, all-around player with lots of potential

Notes: [Andy] HB, RB, returner Great SPT candidate. [Tom] Does a little bit of everything. Great hands, average blocker. [Paul] Versatile; good hands; similar to Schmitt [Erik] Decent receiver; blocking the question mark
FB	3	Jacob Hester	LSU	5-11	226	4.61
Notes: [Andy] RB/Jack of all trades. Versatile. [Tom] Tough, inside runner. Could become a Zack Crockett-type of player. [Paul] More of a runner; will need to block [Erik] Good hands, speed

Notes: [Andy] Slippery, breaks lot tackles. Goes after ball, good RAC. [Tom] Most underrated receiver in the draft. Has great hands. Takes short passes and turns them into big plays. Will be one of the steals of the draft. [Erik] Excels at yards-after-catch

----	---	-----------------------------	-----------------	-----	-----	------

Notes: [Andy] Playmaker. Unproven against higher competition. Breaks on ball well. [Tom] Maybe the best athlete in this draft regardless of position. Has a ton of upside but is raw and sometimes lacks concentration. Will be overdrafted based on computer numbers. [Erik] Finds a way to make the play; lower-level competition a question mark

CB	4	Leodis McKelvin	Troy	5-10	190	4.38

Notes: [Andy] Thinks he's Hester as returner. Had some cheap picks and questionable ball skills. [Tom] A great return man and a decent corner. Has potential but is vastly overrated at this stage in my opinion. [Erik] Excellent kick return ability

CB	5	Aqib Talib	Kansas	6-1	202	4.44
----	---	------------	--------	-----	-----	------

Notes: [Andy] Makes plays on ball. Wasn't feared in college. Not smooth. S? [Tom] Most overrated player in the draft. Doesn't do anything exceptionally well. CB		Tracy Porter	Indiana	5-11	188	4.37
----	--	--------------	---------	------	-----	------

Notes: [Andy] Decent breaks on ball. Some cheap picks. Plays gunner. Looks like Hobbs. [Tom] Aggressive, tough corner who plays bigger than his size. Too much all or nothing with him. Has some bad habits he needs to break. [Erik] Nice quickness; plays aggressive, but smart and not out of control

CB		Brandon Flowers	Virginia Tech	5-10	189	4.55

Notes: [Andy] Solid tackler, physical for size. Lot of zone. High motor type guy. [Tom] Gave up way too many big plays in college and lacks great instincts. I want nothing to do with him. [Erik] On the smaller side, but not afraid to throw his body into a tackle

CB		Chevis Jackson	LSU	6-0	192	4.52

Notes: [Andy] Big. Around ball. OK breaks. Ball skills? [Tom] A guy I really like. Much like Cason, doesn't have blazing speed but his instincts more than make up for it. Really breaks on the ball well. Will be a good value pick for some team.

----	--	----------------	----------------	-----	-----	------

Notes: [Andy] Decent breaks. Likes to hit. Solid tackler. [Tom] I liked this kid at BC but not sure his game will translate well to the pro level. I could see playing 10 years as a reserve DB, however.
